

YMCA Holds Underwater Swim Class

A class is now being conducted on Thursday at the Medford YMCA to familiarize boys with divers and safety features in "Scuba diving," which is underwater swimming with the use of air equipment.

In cooperation with the Ashland YMCA and the American Red Cross a life saving program for boys is being held on Wednesday evenings also at the Medford Y pool.

The Thursday class on underwater swimming meets at 4:45 p.m. Don Gray is instructor in charge. To qualify for the activity a boy must swim 440 yards, swim underwater the length of a pool with a face mask, float for five minutes in any style and surface dive correctly and recover objects in the water.

Aqua Lung Use
Instruction includes underwater swimming techniques, use of face mask, fins, snorkel and Aqua Lung.

William Warren, Ashland, is instructor for a life saving course for boys 12 to 18 years of age. He says youths must be fairly good swimmers for the course. Satisfactory completion of the course will give youths YMCA, Red Cross and Boy Scout life saving requirements. The course is open to Ashland or Medford students. One make-up period will be needed to catch up with the 6:45 p.m. class.

Information on both classes can be had by telephoning the Y.

Sealers Subdue Beavers on Homer By Joe Macko

By DON THACKERY
United Press Sports Writer
The Seattle Rainiers topped Sacramento, 6-3, Friday for their second victory in the Pacific Coast league against no losses.

Hollywood poured on the coal with a seven-run ninth inning to down San Diego 14-1 and Dick Stuart, who clouted 86 homers for Lincoln last year, got his third in three games against PCL pitching.

The other two contests Friday night were closers. The Vancouver Mounties beat Los Angeles 1-0 on Jim Marshall's home run and Portland edged San Francisco 2-1 on a clout by Joe (Smacko) Macko.

Portland got to loser R. W. Smith for a run in the sixth inning and then Macko homered to lead off the ninth. His home run came on the first PCL pitch by Tom Hurd, down to San Francisco from the Boston Red Sox.

The Seals threatened to get back in the game in the bottom of the ninth and drove winner Bill Werle to cover with one run. However two more Portland pitchers arrived in the nick of time and Bill Tremel fanned Albie Pearson with two out and two men on base to preserve the victory.

Portland was outthit by the Seals 7-6, but Macko's smack made the difference.

Dodgers Place Valdez on Roster

Brooklyn—(U.P.)—Rene Valdez who won 22 games and pitched eight shutouts for Portland in the Pacific Coast League last year, officially has been placed on the Brooklyn Dodger roster. Valdez, who impressed manager Walt Alston with his relief pitching this spring, will be used mainly in relief.

PILOTS VICTORS

Stockton—(U.P.)—University of Portland downed College of Pacific 6-1 here Friday in a tennis match.

BROWNS FREE RATTERMAN

Cleveland—(U.P.)—George Ratterman, understudy for former Cleveland Browns quarterback Otto Graham, was looking for a team Saturday because he failed to make a good showing with the Browns. Coach Paul Brown, who put the veteran Ratterman on the waivers list Friday, said it was doubtful that he could make the team this fall.

Giants, Nats Triumph in Exhibitions

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
The New York Giants read the newspapers, too, and they're working up a pretty good lather over all those experts who are picking them seventh and eighth.

The Giants certainly didn't look like tail-enders Friday as they licked the Indians, 8-1, at Jacksonville, Fla. Right-hander Ruben Gomez shut out Cleveland after yielding a first inning homer to Bobby Avila and wound up with a trim five-hitter.

Few observers see the Washington Senators finishing any higher than seventh or eighth. Yet they rose up to defeat the world champion Yankees, 11-10, at Griffith Stadium Friday.

Larsen Battered
The Senators got to Don Larsen for seventh runs in the fifth inning and then went on to register the victory at the expense of southpaw Tommy Byrne when rookie Lyle Luttrall singled home Roy Sievers from second base in the ninth.

Rookie outfield Carl Powis singled home the winning run in the eighth as the Orioles scored a 3-2 victory over Cincinnati at Baltimore.

Before the game, Cincinnati sold pitcher Russ Meyer to the Boston Red Sox and bought the contract of pitcher Raul Sanchez from Havana of the International league.

Frank Lary and Paul Foytack combined to pitch the Detroit Tigers to a 9-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Red Sox jumped on Grady Hamner for three runs in the eighth to trip the Phillies, 5-2, at Richmond, Va.

Ring Mix Taken By Tiger Jones

Syracuse, N.Y.—(U.P.)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones, who has taken to boxing's Gypsy trail, Saturday set out to get ready for his third middleweight bout in 30 days.

The powerful fifth-ranked contender, tired of waiting for a shot at the title, figures he'll keep trim fighting at a whirlwind pace just as he did Friday night in a 10-round televised victory over the surprisingly heavier but less powerful Chico Vejar.

Jones, who was favored at 13-5, said Vejar was a "good fighter" — good enough to make the oddsmakers look ridiculous.

Next on the agenda for the 29-year-old Jones, of Yonkers, N.Y., is an April 25 fight with Joey Gray of Flint, Mich. Jones outpointed Arthur Kink in Toronto, March 25 and so the Gray fight will be his third in 30 days.

Pancho Unhappy With Net Setup

Cleveland—(U.P.)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, who defeated Pancho Segura Friday night for a fifth straight Cleveland Professional Tennis tournament title, said he is seeking a legal decision over the tourney's promoter, Jack Kramer.

Gonzales said he is dissatisfied with conditions under Kramer. The bronzed Californian disclosed he has placed the matter of a possible break with Kramer in the hands of his attorney.

Under the current contract with Kramer, he has a five-year option agreement effective from January of 1956.

Gonzales' chief complaint with the Kramer setup is that he has too little time to rest between stands in the United States and overseas.

Maderos Billed Against Thomas

Portland—(U.P.)—Boxing promoter Tommy Moyer announced today that he has signed heavyweights Julio Mederos and Benny Thomas for a 10-round fight April 24 at the Civic Auditorium.

Moyer earlier this week announced the signing of Johnny Holman and Nino Valdez for a nationally televised heavyweight fight here May 8.

Wy'East Names Hosford, Flippin

Hood River—(U.P.)—Two new coaches have been appointed for Wy-east high school. Donald L. Hosford, formerly coach at Sheridan high school, was named head football coach at Wy-east and Gene Flippin, a
