

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dee Reynolds Jr.

Reynolds-Hinks Ceremony Held in Methodist Chapel

Miss Dixie Marie Hinks became the bride of Paul Dee Reynolds Jr. in a ceremony held Sunday, March 17, in Meeker Memorial chapel of the First Methodist church, Medford. Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiated at the three o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony attended by more than 50 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hinks of Route 1, Box 180-B, Eagle Point, and has been making her home at 340 1/2 North Central avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dee Reynolds, Phoenix.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white ballerina length frock styled with lace bodice and lace and net skirt over satin. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Mrs. Carol Edwards was matron of honor. She wore a blue net dress and carried white carnations with blue ribbon streamers. Mrs. William Jackson of Eagle Point also attended the bride and was dressed as the honor attendant in pink.

Ernest Beer was best man and Roger Reynolds, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests. White calla lilies and stock decorated the church for the wedding. Mrs. Gerald Sherman was organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Daffodils and stock decorated the room. Mrs. Ethel Rogers was wedding hostess.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hinks chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Mrs. Reynolds wore a navy blue suit. They both had white carnation corsages.

Couple Wed In Portland Ceremony

An event of Sunday March 17, in Portland was the wedding of Miss Nancy Anne O'Donel to Clinton M. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Peterson, 540 Ross lane, Medford. The double ring two o'clock afternoon ceremony was held in Moreland Presbyterian church with the Rev. Paul Keyser officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. William O'Donel, Portland. Baskets of spring flowers and lighted candles in candelabra decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Dr. A. L. Latham, wore a white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt that ended in a cathedral train in back. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Clayton of Santa Ana, Calif. Miss Gloria Mitley and Miss Helen Weber were bridesmaids. They wore light green taffeta dress styled on princess lines with contrasting green bands accenting the bodice. They carried bouquets of daffodils. Their picture hats were light green.

Candlelighters were Miss Lenora Jensen and Miss Virginia Claypool. Little Marilyn Holman and Linda Bissinger were flower girls and Kenneth Stanton was ring bearer.

Glen Peterson served as best man for his brother while LeRoy Rockhill, Dayton, Ore., Clarence Connelly, Canby, Ore., Orlin Stansfield, Medford, and Forest Cook, cousin of the bridegroom from Medford, ushered and seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Serving and assisting at the reception were Mrs. Floyd Watkins of Medford, Mrs. C. W. Elaine, Prospect, Mrs. Jack Rugg of Pilot Rock, Mrs. Ray Stalker of Portland and Mrs. F. Snider and Mrs. Tom Stanton, both of Pilot Rock.

The bride is a graduate of Cleveland High school and the Portland Beauty academy. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford High school and is a student in the School of Forestry engineering at Oregon State College. The newlywed couple are making their home at 221 North 28th street, Corvallis.

Rogue Valley residents who attended the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watkins Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George L. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ricks Sr., and Gerald Johnson, all of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanderson, Gold Hill; and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blaine and daughters of Prospect.

Medford Student Is LC Candidate

Miss Shirley Lynch of Medford, junior in science at Lewis and Clark college, is a candidate for the office of vice-president of the college student body. The college has not had a woman student body vice-president for the past 10 years.

Miss Lynch, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lynch, 139 Kenwood avenue, is an honor roll student. She sings in the first alto section of the college choir, and toured with the group during spring vacation when the choir traveled through Washington and to Vancouver, B.C.

Spring Show Set In Eagle Point

Eagle Point — Plans were completed for the spring flower show to be held April 25 at the Eagle Point Garden club at their meeting last week.

The show will be held in the Grange hall between 1 and 8 p. m. A silver tea will be held from 2 until 7:30 p. m. and members are asked to take three dozen cookies each.

Members taking exhibits are asked to have them there by noon. A plant sale will also be held. For further information call Mrs. Farlie Jossy, TA 6-2293.

The next meeting of the group will be held May 8 instead of the date previously announced. It will be at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Ted Flury. Those planning to attend are asked to take a sack lunch and be prepared to take a driftwood hunt.

At the last meeting Mrs. Wilford Davies gave the program on plant propagation.

Announces Party

A card party will be held Wednesday, April 17, by the Gettogether club at the Moose hall at 1 p. m. The public is invited to attend.

Former Resident Sails for Europe

Mrs. David Shearer, the former Shirley Rice of Medford, sailed last week from Hoboken, N. J., for Germany where she will join her husband, on duty at Bamberg with the United States Army. Mrs. Shearer is making the trip on the Holland-American liner, S. S. Maasdam, and will disembark at Rotterdam.

Mrs. Shearer, who has been making her home at Carmel, Calif., is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Saginaw drive.

Dr. Merkel stated that because of changing conditions, there are about 10 tuberculosis cases now for each death. The case load is building up, he explained, not because the disease is on the increase but because people now "live with tuberculosis instead of dying."

Mrs. Helen Tweedy, new executive secretary of the association, was introduced. Mrs. Tweedy will be honored at a tea this afternoon to be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minear, Stage Road south near the Rogue River academy, between two and five o'clock.

Invitation Read For Sojourners

An invitation to be guests of the Klamath Falls Sojourner club May 8 was read to Medford Sojourners at the group's meeting Thursday.

A re-introduction of members was originated, beginning with members of the board and to continue through the alphabet. This is to better acquaint new members with those of longer standing.

New members welcomed into the club were Mrs. Charles A. Bennett, Mrs. F. R. Eaton, Mrs. Walter Hein and Mrs. E. E. Fields. Attending for the first time were Mrs. Harry Potter, Mrs. O. J. Crenshaw, Mrs. George H. Adler and Mrs. Max Morris.

The refreshment table was decorated with spring flowers. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Clifford Griffiths, Mrs. Earl Crisman and Mrs. Walter Winner.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Roy Stein and Mrs. Berg Marten; pin-ochle to Mrs. E. H. Crisman and Mrs. Jerry Pullen and canasta prizes to Mrs. J. E. Harper and Mrs. Henry Robertson. Special award was presented to Mrs. D. C. Goodman.

Sojourners is an organization devoted to the interests of newcomers to the Medford area and any woman who has lived here two years or less is eligible for membership. The next meeting will be Thursday, April 25 at the Pythian hall.

Farewell Party Given in Phoenix

Phoenix — Mrs. Larry Edwards was honored at a farewell party given Friday evening by Mrs. Enid Caster, her grandmother, at the Caster home. Mrs. Edwards will leave Monday for Clarksville, Tenn., to join her husband Sergeant Edwards, who is assigned to Army duty at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Decorations and refreshments were in the Easter theme. About 25 guests attended.

Club Makes Plans For Smorgasbord

Members of Wenonah club will meet Thursday, April 18, at Redmen hall to make favors for a smorgasbord and card party they will give May 2.

The meeting will start at 12 noon and final plans for the events will be made under the direction of Mrs. Carl Ludwig.

To Meet at Holt Home

Nevena Past Matrons' club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Holt, 3295 Forrest avenue, Wednesday, April 17, at 12:30 p. m. for luncheon. Mrs. Elizabeth Scott will be co-hostess. Members are asked to note the change in Mrs. Holt's address.

Business Women Postpone Session; Initiation Planned

The April meeting of Medford Business and Professional Women's club has been changed from Thursday, April 18, to the next Thursday, April 25, at which time an initiation dinner will be held at Roxy Ann Grange hall.

This action was taken at the board of directors meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harriet Watson Wednesday evening. The postponement was made in order that there would be no interference with Holy Week services held at both Protestant and Catholic churches before Easter.

The initiation program will be in charge of the emblem committee, headed by Mrs. Verna Thatcher. Hostesses will be the membership committee, whose chairman is Mrs. Ruth Simmons. Reports will be given by the delegates to the southern Oregon district conference held at Roseburg April 6 and 7.
