Annual Installation Ceremony Held by Scottish Rite Women

The Scottish Rite Women's club installed Mrs. George D. Osler as twelfth president at a noon luncheon ceremony Monday at the Medford hotel. Other officers installed were Mrs. Garner W. Couey, vice-president; Mrs. Edwin C. Hoffman, secretary; and Mrs. Edward C. Root, treasurer. The new president appointed Mrs. Clay M. Lee, publicity chairman; Mrs. Howard C. Goldsmith, visitation chairman; Mrs. Herbert L. Alford, hostess; Mrs. Leonard C. Scott, custodian; and Mrs. Harry F. Nordwick, Mrs. B. sil Lindley, and Mrs. Ralph Lue, finance committee. Mrs. Fred Graten, junior past president, was installing officer. Mrs. Alford was installing secretary. Both Mrs. Frank Salyers, retiring president, and Mrs. Osler new president, were presented corsages. Mrs. Salyers was also presented a pin, a gift from the club. The luncheon tables were decorated with geraniums of various colors, Easter bunnies and chicks. The main table was centered with a basket of tulips, white stock and daisies. Corsages marked the places for the new officers of the club. The luncheon was opened with the singing of the Doxology. Mrs. Salyers thanked all of her officers and presented each with a gift. She gave a complete resume of the year's events. Bridge and canasta were the diversion of the afternoon, with the bridge prize going to Mrs. John P. Dickson and the canasta award to Mrs. Verna McCallister. Another award was given Mrs. Alford. Guests of the club were Mrs. Brew Starcher and Mrs. Dickson. Mrs. John H. Dalen, Mrs. Fred W. Scheffel, and Mrs. Arthur L. Carroll were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Ralph Lue was hostess for the day and Mrs. Salyers was general chairman; Mrs. Goldsmith and Mrs. Charles Hoppe, deceptions and Mrs.

A bit of spice is nice and you'll agree when you try lemon-ginger topping on coffee cakes and muffins. Mix together 1/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind and 1 1/2 teaspoons chopped candied ginger. This mixture is delicious on hot butter toast, too. Just butter slices of enriched white bread. Sprinkle with lemon-ginger topping and toast in the oven.

The fashion this Easter is for

Light refreshment

FASHION has a taste for the slim, modern waist—and so does Pepsi-Cola. Today's Pepsi—the modern, light refreshment—is reduced in calories. Never heavy, never too sweet! This holiday weekend, you, your family and friends will want to refresh without filling. Better pick up a couple of cartons for all those people who'll be saying, "Pepsi, please!"
