A will is something that's easily put off. Yet making one takes little time and the charge may be as small as $25.

Distant relatives may try to share your estate with the immediate family. Wills curb this and save expensive law suits.

You'd better make

IF YOU'RE AN average middle-class American, chances are you've never made out a will. Probably you think wills are only for rich people. But do you know what would happen to your estate if you should meet with a fatal accident tomorrow? Would it automatically go to your wife?

It might not. Quite possibly some of your property might wind up with distant relatives at the expense of your immediate family. Or your family might get tangled up in long and costly litigation to obtain the property you meant them to have.

WHY STOP THE FUN WITH ONLY ONE? THEY'RE PURE NABISCO COOKIES!

NABISCO DEVIL'S FOOD SQUARES. Better because they're COOKIE-CAKES —double-iced with chocolate and marshmallow over rich, rich devil's food.

NABISCO SUGAR WAFERS
Better because they're JUST THE RIGHT BLEND of luscious, creamy filling, crisp airy wafers. The original party treat!

NABISCO FANCY CRESTS. Better because they're heaped with the FLUFFIEST MARSHMALLOW of all—lavishly sprinkled with tender moist shreds of cocoanut.
