Safe Found Near Talent by Youths

A safe taken from Skeeters and Skeeters garage, Talent sometime last week end was found by two Talent boys Saturday afternoon near Suncrest rd. east of Talent, according to state police.

Sheriff's deputies yesterday were unable to determine if the safe had been opened. Owners of the safe, Charles L. and R. O. Skeeters, of Talent, as well as sheriff's deputies were unable to open the safe and it is not known if anything was taken from it.

The deputies noted that attempts had been made to open the safe which had been damaged. According to deputies, the safe contained about $4 and a $30 check made out to cash.

Sheriff's deputies are continuing an investigation.
