Medford Zonta Elects Officers

Mrs. Jean Fish was named president of Medford Zonta club to serve for 1957-58 at the annual meeting for elections and reports held Thursday noon at the Jackson hotel. This will be Mrs. Fish's second term.

Other officers elected are vice president, Mrs. Bonnie Wilson; secretary, Mrs. Hazel Platz and treasurer, Mrs. Ethel McIntyre. Miss Josephine Kirtley was elected to serve on the board.

A memorial service for Mrs. Thora Roberts, who had been a charter member of the club, was led by Mrs. Oletha Olsen.

Mrs. Olsen gave the annual report of the services for the year which included a scholarship to Southern Oregon college, a donation to the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital, a fund for use by the Juvenile agency, money for the Amelia Earhart scholarship in aeronautics, which is the service of Zonta International, and help to a large family at Christmas with subsequent donations.

Mrs. Violet Anders is chairman of the committee in charge of a dinner April 25 at which time installation of new officers and initiation of new members will be held. This dinner will be held jointly with the Grants Pass Zonta club.

Lady Elks

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday, April 16, at 1 p.m. in the basement room of the temple for luncheon and cards. The committee will be Mrs. Merton Lyster, Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and Mrs. Nick DeWitt.

Nine Spectacular Style Shows Part of Easter Sunday Parade

By GAY PAULEY United Press Correspondent New York—(U.P.)—Part of New York's famous Easter parade will be an indoor affair this year.

Next Sunday, at least nine style "spectaculars" in various hotels will compete with the traditional toe-bruising show on Fifth Avenue.

Everyone attending the new-style shows, with lunch included, is helping a cause—from the American Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation.

Admission ranges from $5 to $25 per person—champagne is included in the latter charge. The benefit shows aren't new, but each year their numbers increase as each year the Fifth Avenue association and the New York Police Department attempt to curb the hi-jinks on the avenue. This year, for instance, is the seventh for the Kenny lunch and children's fashion show.

Expect 2 Million Paraders The association said it expected about two million persons to jam the avenue—a contrast to the few hundred strollers who turned out when the parade had its beginnings at the lower end of Manhattan Island more than a century ago.

As the city grew, the churches and fashionable residences moved uptown. Some sources say that by the 1870's the parade was pretty well established, but it wasn't until the 1880's that the newspapers began to give it much space.

The Easter parade had its unusual attractions early in its history. One account of the parade in the 1920's told of a party of "cigarette smoking girls" who strolled past St. Thomas and St. Patrick's cathedral "puffing with assurance and invoking the benediction for which they had hoped."

Anti-Depression Colors Worn The parade survived the Wall Street crash, and a United Press dispatch on the 1931 event described this way:

"Trying to forget the winter's dark days of bread lines and bad business, the women in today's Fifth Avenue Easter parade wore anti-depression colors—vivid, geranium reds, emerald greens and blue jades."

As the parade grew, commercialism and publicity stunts crept in. Women tried to outdo each other in zany hats, and it wasn't unusual to see a woman wearing a bird cage with a live bird in it, or an Easter basket with live bunny.

Four years ago, New York's civic-conscious decided the parade was losing its dignity completely and something should be done. The association, the Police Department, the clergy and radio and television executives joined to curb the stunts and commercialism.

Has the parade lost any of its appeal as a result? "We doubt it," said William Sloane, association secretary. "The hi-jinks of a few years ago prevented the true purpose of the parade—to be a promenade of fashions."

May Fellowship Luncheon Planned By Church Women

Among events scheduled for the near future is the annual May Fellowship luncheon sponsored by Medford Council of Church Women, Friday, May 3, in St. Mark's Guild hall. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mabel Winston, dean of women and registrar at Southern Oregon college, will speak following the luncheon.

Theme for the day "Free Schools in a Free America" is a timely one, officers of the council state.

Adding interest to the program will be a panel discussion on school systems of the past presented by former teachers. The group will include Mrs. Mamie Bloomfield, Mrs. Marie Dizney and Miss Jane Snedcor.

Special musical features are being arranged for the afternoon and Miss Vernal Cingcade, teacher of the Bible in the schools, will speak briefly. Proceeds from the luncheon each year, go toward assisting in her work.

All interested are invited to attend and young mothers will find nursery care available for their children.

Book Group The afternoon book review group of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, will meet Wednesday, April 17, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Milo Kubalek, 907 South Oakdale avenue.

Mrs. Neil Davidson will review the book "Courtroom" based on the life of the famous trial lawyer, Samuel Leibowitz.

To Meet a meeting of the Carnation club and of the executive committee of the Degree of Honor Protective association will be held Tuesday, April 16, at the home of Mrs. F. B. Gleaves, 1170 McAndrews road, at 8 p.m.

A broken bulb can be removed from the socket by using a large cork. Turn off the current, press the cork over the broken edges and turn until the bulb comes out.

Mrs. Melvin Lattie Hostess for HEC Phoenix—Home Economics club of Phoenix Grange will meet Wednesday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Melvin Lattie, Phoenix road.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Lattie will be assisted by Mrs. George Drake and Mrs. Alfred Schroeder.

Basic School Fund Measure Now in Education Committee

By FRANCES LITRELL Salem—The legislature has been 12 weeks in session; 28 bills were passed and sent to Governor Holmes in this, the 12th week.

The Senate passed Senate Joint Resolution 9 for the addition of one member to the Senate and one to the House, making 31 members in the Senate and 61 in the House; however, it's expected to die in the House because of the Democratic majority in the House, and the Democrats are against it. They want a lieutenant governor which they feel will do the same thing. The Republicans don't think so.

The tax program was not presented as promised last week. However, it is now promised within a week to ten days, and so it goes. The Republicans in the House made another valiant effort to get a separate surtax repeal bill acted on and tried to force it out of the committee on to the floor. It was not a success—they could muster only 21 votes and it required 40. We lost one Republican's vote and gained a Democrat's vote.

The calendars for the last three days of this week have been light, in fact we have had just four third readings for each day.

The Senate passed the Key District bill to re-distribute the basic school funds. It is now in the House education committee. There will be a public hearing held, and it will be the big issue before the House this week.

The Litrells received one of the most coveted of invitations this last week for Koshur luncheon at Rep. Sam Wilderman's apartment. We were included with members of the press from the Statesman.

Guests Reported By Bridge Clubs; Hattons Return

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatton, Mrs. Ben Todd and Mrs. Frank Ewald were guest players at the last meeting of Riverside Bridge club. The Hattons, who formerly lived in Medford, left here a few years ago for Hot Springs, S. D., but have now returned to Medford following Mr. Hatton's retirement from the service of the Veterans' administration. The Hattons are living at 602 Crater Lake avenue.

Mrs. Todd also formerly lived in Medford and now makes her home in Portland.

Winners for last week's session of the club, for the north-south playing position, were Mrs. B. L. Sanderson and Mrs. M. M. Herman, first, 105½ points; Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Mrs. Fred Rehling, second, 94½; Mrs. Thomas Randall and Roy Pruitt, third, 89; Mrs. O. O. Alender and Mrs. George Dean, fourth, 82½.

East-west winners were Mrs. Van Gilbert and Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, first, 105 points; Mrs. Berg Maten and Mrs. Dwight Seely, second, 93 points; Mrs. F. R. Baker and Dr. George Dean, third, 92; Mrs. Ben Todd and Mrs. Richard Milestone, fourth, 89.

The Hattons and Mrs. Todd were also guest players at last week's meeting of Medford Duplicate Bridge club. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barr, Grants Pass. Mr. Barr, former Medford resident, was at one time president of the Medford club.

Ten tables of players attended; the Mitchell movement was used.

North-south winners were Mrs. Todd and Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, first, 146½; Mrs. B. L. Sanderson and Mrs. Frank R. Baker, second, 144; the Hattons, third, 123½; Mrs. Yvonne Dalen and Mrs. Al Gilhousen, fourth, 122½.

East-west winners were Miss Isobel Stuart and Dr. George Dean, first, 124½; Mrs. Dolph Phipps and Mrs. Marrs Gibbons, second, 121½; Mrs. Paul McDuffee and Mrs. Robert Elliott, third, 121; Mrs. Howard Boyd and Jack Mitchell, fourth, 117½.

The Medford club has made plans for the annual guest night to be held April 23. Members will invite friends to be their partners for an evening of duplicate bridge.

Plans will be made for a sale of rummage, plants and cooked food which the crops will hold Friday, April 19.

Answers to many of the most commonly asked questions about etiquette are covered in books at the Medford library.

Thursday night of last week the largest and perhaps the gayest party of the session, the "Timber Bust" party, was held at the American Legion club. A group of legislative wives, with the assistance of the Forest Service, spent Thursday A. M. transforming the club into a pretend forest. We used several truck loads of fir, cedar, ferns and other greens while doing it. Guests came dressed in jeans, plaid shirts, and cotties. Any man who wore a tie had it promptly cut off at the door and each and every guest was sprayed with insecticide upon arriving at the party.

This party had some criticism, however, when you are here, you realize it is a good thing. It always comes at the time of the session when political lines are definitely drawn. Tempers are strained to the breaking point—and then the Timber Bust party. We all work together and for it, and we forget for the time being whether we are Republican or Democrat and we all have fun together and so it clears the air.

Tony Lausman was missed this week; however, his son, Jerry, was here and the legislators were pleased to meet the son of the Timber Bust party's most ardent supporter.

This Monday eve there will be a public hearing on HB 616; we refer to it as the "Big Bertha."

Legion Auxiliary Hears Talks by Welfare Workers

Don Chapman and Mrs. Winifred Nelson of the Jackson County Public Welfare department were guest speakers at the April meeting of the American Legion auxiliary. The program was arranged by Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith in observance of child welfare month and she was personally commended for her outstanding work and cooperation with the welfare office.

Mrs. James Grigsby, Mrs. Harry Leuty, and Mrs. George Smith were initiated. Taking part in the ceremony were Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, Mrs. Leo Williams, Mrs. Carol Parker, Mrs. Dorothy Sutter, Mrs. Clark Walker, Mrs. Nettie Ellenberg and Mrs. Herb Gifford.

Mrs. Goldsmith announced that the unit was sponsoring a senior girl from Jacksonville High school, Miss Joan Fretwell, for the $600 National President's scholarship contest.

Monetary contributions were made to "CARE" to purchase gardening tools for shipment to Honduras, the Pan American country the auxiliary is studying this year, and also to the American Legion Child Welfare Foundation. This project was started in 1954 and funds are used to finance research and public education toward the prevention of childhood difficulties instead of having to devote time and funds toward patching up sore spots after they have occurred, the auxiliary states.

At the meeting April 23, members will make crepe paper flowers for the Wheelchair parade to be conducted at Camp White April 28, and also for the veterans' Wheelchair parade at Portland, held yearly in conjunction with the Rose parade. It was also announced that a rummage sale would be held May 2 and 3.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charley Wiley and Mrs. George Trull.

Jackson county salon of 8 and 40, subsidiary organization of the American Legion auxiliary, will hold the April meeting Tuesday, April 16, at the home of Mrs. Cole Holmes, 16 Ross court.
