CONSTIPATED?
New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloot or gripe
Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thirsty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: rous the colon so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.
To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.
And, of all laxatives, only COLONAL, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAL's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONAL's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAL is very soft smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.
Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAL neither gags, bloats nor grips; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.
It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAL exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAL, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Flue Fire — A flue fire was reported Saturday morning at the Herbert G. Miller residence, 216 Lincoln st., Medford, according to the Medford fire department. One pumper was dispatched to the residence in which no damage was reported.

Sessions for Fire Foremen To Start Here This Week

Two sessions of classes for fire foremen will be held in Medford Wednesday and Thursday, April 17 and 18, and in Grants Pass Friday, April 19, according to L. L. (Doc) Simpson, forester-manager of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association.

The school for fire foremen and other types of overhead originated in Medford area last year as the result of a survey of the serious fire situation of 1955. It was determined that at that time there was a lack of adequately trained personnel to act as foreman and in other supervisory capacities.

Two basic courses and one advanced course will be held this year. The first basic course will be held in Medford at the state forestry department headquarters April 17 and the other will be at the Grants Pass headquarters April 19.

Both lectures and field demonstrations will be covered in the basic course as well as large fire organizations, radio procedures and practices, fire behavior, proper use of water, time keeping and safety practices. A new course, the one-day advanced school for fire foremen, will be available only to those men who attended the basic course last year. It will be held at the department's headquarters in Medford, April 18. Fire behavior, fire line construction by hand and with heavy equipment, water mop up, dry mop up, proper use of water and safety practices will be included in the course.

Joint Sponsors — The school is sponsored jointly by SOCTFA, the state forestry department, the U.S. forest service and the bureau of land management. They have asked that both mill and logging operators send personnel to the training schools since mill crews are needed to supplement logging crews in the event of a fire of any magnitude.

Two Men Indicted for Murder at Klamath

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — The Klamath county grand jury Saturday indicted two men on murder charges and returned a not true bill against another in a third shooting case.

Osborne Lee Ball, 50, a Chiloquin logger, was indicted for first degree murder for the slaying of his wife, Francis, 35, with a .22 pistol April 4.

Bennie Raymond Belgard, 25, a Chiloquin construction worker, was indicted for second degree murder of his bride of four months, Maxine Walker Belgard, 20, on March 25.

The jury did not indict Adlai Johnson, 74, arrested last week after his wife, Arabella, 56, was wounded with a .30-30 caliber rifle. Judge David R. Vandenberg ordered $5000 bail returned to Johnson.

About 80 per cent of teachers in U. S. public schools are women.

Two Drivers Cited By State Police After Car Accidents

State police issued citations to two drivers involved in car accidents in Jackson county over the week end. No one was seriously injured in any of the accidents.

Chester Harlan Hamaker, 43, Klamath Falls, was cited for failure to operate on the right side of the highway Sunday afternoon, after his car collided with another vehicle on Highway 69 near the Summit Ranch.

Cars Collide — Driver of the other car was Dale Houston Cook, 22, Klamath Falls. Police said Hamaker's eastbound vehicle approached a sharp curve, crossed the center line and collided head-on with Cook's westbound car.

Hamaker, his wife and Cook were taken to Ashland General hospital for treatment of injuries. Police indicated none of the injuries were serious. Both cars were extensively damaged.

William Harold Sheehy, 20, Grants Pass, was cited for violation of the basic rule Saturday after his car went out of control and into a ditch on Highway 99 in a construction zone north of Rogue River.

Receives Scratch — Officers said Sheehy received a scratch on his forehead.

Cars operated by Leland Wayne Harger, 32, Eugene, and Eugene Edward Bibey, 19, Forest Acres, Medford, collided on Highway 99 near the south limits of Central Point at 1:53 a.m. today. Police said both cars were traveling north on the highway when Bibey started to change lanes and was struck by Harger's vehicle.

Both cars were reported damaged. There were no serious injuries, police said. No citations were issued.

Committee Favors Driver Training

A bill to provide automobile driver training for high school students was given the approval of the committee on governmental operations of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce this morning.

At the group's weekly breakfast meeting, the bill, HB635 of the Oregon legislature, was discussed and approved. It would finance the program through increased license fees and fines, and is designed to give proper training in driving to high school students before they are licensed to drive on public highways.

A series of other bills dealing with laws on automobile and highway matters was discussed, and measures which would change Oregon's statutes dealing with contributory negligence were disapproved. They would substitute consideration of "comparative negligence" for contributory negligence in actions arising out of accidents. The committee also opposed a law which would change some of the rules of evidence in court actions.

Two other bills which drew adverse action from the committee were one which would substitute a single commission for the present unemployment compensation commission, and one which would set up tourist information bureaus to be paid for from highway taxes, at the highway entrances to Oregon.

Major Earthquake In Pacific Recorded

Honolulu — (U.P.) — A major earthquake which could have caused considerable damage in a populated area was recorded in the Southwest Pacific Sunday near the Tonga Islands.

The shock set off tidal wave alarms 3,000 miles away in Honolulu, but officials said there was no indication giant waves would result from the tremor.

The U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey station here pinpointed the quake 420 miles southeast of Fiji in the Tongas. The estimated population of the islands is 48,000.

The quake, of "major proportions," was recorded on seismographs at the University of California, Berkeley, and at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena.

Portland — (U.P.) — An Oregon City housewife is the Mrs. Oregon for 1957.

Mrs. Howard Jean MacMurray, 27, formerly of Halfway, Ore., was picked from a field of seven entries Saturday night.

Wood Industry Leads In Manufacturing

Wood products, not including furniture, accounted for over 61 cents of every dollar added by manufacturing in Oregon in 1954, according to the final report of the Oregon Census of Manufactures.

The report was released Saturday by James E. Maxwell of the Portland field office, U. S. department of commerce.

All manufacturing industries of the state reported the creation of $1,037 million through manufacture in 1954, the report said.

Jackson County Reports — Jackson county, with 4,987 people on manufacturing industries payrolls, reported a value added by manufacturing of $37,636 in 1954. In 1947, Jackson county had 2,878 people on manufacturing industries payrolls and reported a value of $22,604.

Of the state total, the lumber and wood products industries accounted for $574 million and the pulp paper industry $64 million. These two wood using activities also accounted for 61 per cent of the employment and 62 per cent of the manufacturing payrolls of Oregon in 1947.

Food products industries created $142 million in new values in 1954, according to the report. Metal products were indicated as becoming increasingly important in the state with $71 million in value added by manufacture in 1954. This compares to $40 million in 1947.

Growth Shown — The machinery industry also showed growth, reporting values added by manufacture of $42 million in 1954, compared to $24 million in 1947. Printing and publishing industries reported $38 million of value added by manufacture in 1954. The textile and apparel industry reported a $28 million value added by manufacture in 1954, an increase from $21 million in 1947.

Multnomah county accounted for 30 per cent of all values created by manufacturing in Oregon in 1954. Lane county was second with $109 million or 10 per cent. Douglas, Linn and Coos counties reported value added by manufactures of $81, $54 and $43 million respectively. Marion county ranked fifth in value added by manufacture in 1947 and is now seventh behind Coos and Clackamas counties.

According to the report, notable changes in manufacturing activity occurred between 1947 and 1954.

Langley Will Be Sentenced April 26

Portland — (U.P.) — District Attorney William M. Langley will be sentenced April 26 for negligence in failing to prosecute gambling at a charity bazaar.

A Circuit Court jury of six men and six women returned a guilty verdict against Langley Saturday after deliberating one hour and 40 minutes. The jury vote was 11-1 on the misdemeanor charge.

The 41-year-old district attorney was accused specifically of failing to prosecute William B. Nettleton, a former Portland gambler, for running a gambling operation at a bazaar in February, 1955.

After the jury verdict was in, Judge Frank J. Lonergan granted the defense an arrest of judgment. This meant the court would enter no judgment until today. He set April 26 as the tentative date for sentencing.

It was the first of seven indictments against Langley to be taken into court.

Budget Request Forms Mailed Today To UMC Agencies

Budget requests and budget forms were mailed to all agency members of the United Methodist Crusade today, according to Tom G. Polk, chairman of the budget committee.

The deadline for submission of agency budgets for the fall campaign is June 15. Budgets are prepared on standard budget forms furnished by the UMC.

They represent a detailed account of agency program and budget items as estimated for the coming year as compared to the past year.

Series of Meetings — The UMC budget committee will hold a series of meetings following the receipt of the budgets and make a report to the UMC board. Board members take final action on budget authorizations and establishment of the campaign goal.

The budget committee also studies requests for admission of new agencies to UMC membership and makes recommendations for or against their inclusion.

Invitations Given — This year, as in preceding years, other agencies have been invited to join, and agencies which ask to be included will be accepted if they meet with the standards set up in the UMC constitution, Polk said.

Members of the budget committee serving with Polk are William H. Prentice, Ray Sorenson, Tom Oliver, Robert J. Cunningham, Glenn Jennings and David Holmes Jr., all of whom were appointed by Edward Branchfield, UMC president.

Three Australian Teachers Visit Here

Three school teachers from New South Wales, Australia, inspected city of Medford departments and several Medford public schools today while stopping here en route to Mexico.

The three, Miss Dorothy Morris and Miss Mollie Wood, high school teachers, and Miss Margaret Kevan, an elementary teacher, were to leave Medford this afternoon. This morning they were shown city departments by City Manager Robert Duff.

Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of Medford schools, conducted them through Lincoln elementary school, Hedrick Junior High school and Medford High school this afternoon. The Australian teachers are taking several months from their school duties to tour Canada, the United States and Mexico.

Analysis of Market Keeps Changes Small

New York — (U.P.) — Stocks moved within a narrow range today as the market paused to analyze the recent three-week advance which added close to $4 billion dollars to market values.

Price changes in the main list were small and many pivots held at their previous closing levels.

Irregularity crept into all major groups. However, a number of issues still managed to touch new highs for the year.

St. Regis Paper highlighted on the downside, losing more than four at its low and touching a new bottom for the year. The stock rallied from its low and was off around three near the close.
