Apparently many people do not know where to report fires, according to volunteer fire department officials. In case of fire, residents may call any one of four numbers: Cove Variety, TR-8-2346; Cove Valley Supply, TR-8-2131; Shady Cove Cleaners, TR-8-2371, or Art Hutcheson, TR-8-2481.

Report the fire immediately, firemen urged, giving the full name, the location of the fire and directions for the fire department to reach the fire. If the house is located on a certain road or lane do not only give the name of the road but also give directions as to where the road is, officials urged. It is also of value to indicate neighbors so volunteer firemen may more readily locate the fire.

Miniature Aircraft Bombs Said Stolen

Santa Ana, Calif. — (U.P.) — which could possibly set off an explosion.

The FBI warned today that approximately 2,000 miniature aircraft bombs, many of which may be "extremely dangerous" had been stolen from the Marine Corps practice bombing area in nearby Trabuco canyon.

FBI agents and all other law enforcement agencies in Southern California immediately launched an intensive search for the thief or thieves and the menacing loot. It was indicated the bombs could pose a serious threat to citizens as well as whoever committed the perilous theft.

In an all points bulletin, the FBI warned that some of the bombs may be loaded with high flash-black powder and may contain six-inch shotgun cartridges
