New World Marks Held By Natators

Beverly Hills, Calif. — (U.P.) — A girl swimmer from Washington and two others from California reigned as new world record holders today following the 1957 National AAU Senior Women's swimming and diving championships.

The three day meet, which concluded Thursday night, also produced a stunning diver who could conceivably emerge as a successor to retired Olympic champion Pat McCormick.

Several swimming records were broken more than once in the championships, but the official results showed a total of three new world marks, four new American standards and five new national records.

Two of the new world records were established in last night's final competition by pretty Carin Cone of Ridgeway, N.J., and Nancy Ramey, 16-year-old swimming sensation from Seattle, Wash. The other world mark was set earlier in the meet by a 14-year-old Sylvia Rnnska of Berkeley, Calif.

Smashed Old Record

Miss Cone set a new world mark of 1:03.8 in the 100 yard backstroke, smashing the old standard of 1:04.6 set by G. Weisma of Holland in 1950.

Miss Ramey, of the Washington Athletic club, churned to a new world standard of 1:01.9 in the 100 yard butterfly event. Earlier Thursday she toured the course in 1:02.8 in a heat race, which also broke the old world mark of 1:04.1 set by Shelley Mann, of Washington, D.C., in 1956.

Paula Jean Myers, Unversity of Southern California coed from Montrose, Calif., emerged from the concluding round as a double diving winner. Miss Myers, who won the one meter crown earlier in the championships, came through to win the three meter title in the finals.

Little Miss Ruuska not only set a world mark of 5:08 flat in the 400 yard individual medley but also broke the American and national records in the 500 yard free-style with a clocking of 5:47.8.

Bobby Garrett Key Player in Pro Grid Trade

Cleveland — (U.P.) — Coach Paul Brown of the rebuilding Cleveland Browns today tagged quarterback Bobby Garrett the key man in the eight-player deal between Cleveland and the Green Bay Packers Thursday.

The Browns gave up quarterback Vito Babe Parilli and five others to obtain Garrett and line-backer Roger Zatkoff from the Packers. The other Cleveland players were defensive halfbacks John Pettibon and Billy Kinard, offensive guard John Macerelli, defensive end Carlton Massey and line-backer Sam Palumbo.

Brown indicated that he was counting heavily on Garrett to solve the Cleveland quarterback problem that has existed since the retirement of Otto Graham after the 1955 season and was a major factor in the Browns' loss of their Eastern Division NFL crown.

New York — (U.P.) — Eight years of frustration may be over today for Gino Cimoli because of a "Dutch uncle" lecture from the "old pro" of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Big, fast and the owner of a strong arm, Cimoli always had baseball talent. The one thing he lacked was determination.

Roy Campanella, who has ignored injuries and age because "we're lucky to be ball players," finally couldn't take Cimoli's attitude any longer and the law he laid down may have "made" young Gino.

The new attitude already has started to pay off. Gino won the season's opener with a home run and in two games already has equalled the four hits he made in 36 at bats all last season.

Didn't Give Hoot

"I have to thank Campy for everything," says the 27-year-old San Francisco. "Up until this year I just didn't give a hoot. I didn't seem to be getting anywhere and last year I didn't hardly ever get to play. Sure, I had a bad attitude. I was really down on myself."

But when the Dodgers made their post-season tour of Japan last fall, Campanella took the 6-foot, 1-inch Cimoli aside and dressed him down.

"He had quite a talk with me," Cimoli grins ruefully. "He convinced me I had the ability to be a regular big leaguer and that I would have to change my attitude. I have. Now I hope I'm going to be able to make up for lost time."

Finally on Way

Two games don't make a season. But, from the manner in which Cimoli is hustling, he seems a cinch to finally be on his way to the top.

His talents were so obvious that, at 19, he was able to squeeze a $20,000 bonus out of Branch Rickey, no mean feat in itself. The Yanks, Indians, Red Sox, Phils and Pirates all were after him.

He has been, until now, a distinct disappointment. Last year he rode the Brooklyn bench except when used as a late inning defensive replacement.

His new attitude put him in left field, long a Brooklyn sore spot, as the season opened. And, from the new look in his eyes, Gino is going to be mighty difficult to get out of there.

Services Set For Sweeney On Monday

Los Angeles — Rosary will be recited here Sunday for William Sweeney, veteran baseball manager who was one of the most colorful figures in the Pacific Coast league.

The big, jovial Irishman, who won three PCL pennants during his 19 years as a manager, died at Mercy hospital in San Diego, Calif., Thursday after major surgery for a perforated ulcer. He was 52.

Sweeney, manager of the Portland Beavers at the time of his death, was regarded with respect not only by his west coast colleagues but throughout the baseball world.

Three Years in Majors

Over the span of years, Sweeney played three years as a first baseman in the major leagues and once was away from the PCL to coach the Detroit Tigers in 1947-48. He still holds a PCL fielding record for first base, a .997 mark set in 1938 at Portland.

But he made his mark as a manager, piloting not only Portland but Los Angeles, Hollywood and Seattle in the PCL. The baseball world was "shocked" by the passing of Sweeney, whose mushy countenance and wry humor earned him the affectionate nickname of "Tomato Face."

"The Pacific Coast league has suffered a tremendous loss," said PCL president Leslie O'Connor. "Bill was highly regarded by players, umpires and fans. Above all, he was a sweet-natured person."

Regimen mass for Sweeney will be celebrated Monday at the church of St. Holy Angeles in his hometown of nearby Arcadia. He leaves a widow and son, Mike, 17.

Pat McMurtry Sparks Attack To Win Bout
Seattle — (U.P.) — Irish Pat McMurtry of Tacoma coasted for four rounds then came to life to pound out a unanimous decision over plodding Edgardo Romero of Argentina Thursday night in a 10-round heavyweight battle.

McMurtry, notching his 24th win against one defeat in 26 professional starts, was unable to solve Romero's jabbing style in the early rounds. He picked up the pace in the fifth and was in command the rest of the way.

Rain Stops B Encounter

Rain prevented completion of the St. Mary's-Jacksonville high baseball game in the Jackson County B league here yesterday afternoon.

The tussle was called with two men out in the top of the third inning on the fairgrounds diamond here. Arrangements for re-play have not been announced.

St. Mary's will go to Prospect for a make-up game on Monday. Jacksonville had a 5 to 0 margin when the game was stopped yesterday. The Redskins combined singles by Maurice McIntyre and Joe Hogan, a ground rule double by Gary Heuners and a base on balls for three runs in the first inning. A walk, a hit by Hogan and two errors got two runs in the third.

Gals Start Out In Lawton Open
Lawton, Okla. — (U.P.) — Twenty-one of the nation's top play-fay lady golfers teed off today in the first round of the 54-hole $5,000 Lawton Open Golf tournament with umbrellas and rain jackets in expectation of showers.

Betty Dodd, who captured the first Lawton Open last year with a blazing finish, was favored to repeat here again this year.

Joining Miss Dodd in the first 18-hole round were Wiffi Smith, who picked up first prize money in the $7,500 Dallas Open last week end, Marlene Bauer Hage, one of the top money winners this year, and Jackie Pung, the shotmaker from Hawaii, who turned pro several years ago after winning the U. S. Amateur title.

LEGISLATORS, LOBBYISTS HAVE SOFTBALL CONTEST

Salem — (U.P.) — A softball contest between legislators and lobbyists was called off Thursday at the end of five innings because of age.

A reliable source said the legislators won 10-5.

Gov. Robert Holmes umpired behind the plate and got into one argument with Jack Lansing of Pacific Power and Light company who wore the words "Hells Canyon Association" on his shirt.

Surprise Pinch Hitter
The lobbyists threw in a surprise pinch hitter in Ewart Potgieter, the giant boxer from South Africa. Potgieter had a huge bat and got a single.

Lobbyists contested numerous decisions but to the governor were Attorney General Robert Thornton and Secretary of State Mark Hatfield.

Ed Cone and Don Husband of Eugene did the pitching for the lawmakers and the lobbyists complained Husband's underhanded "snap" pitch wasn't legal. But the ump's gave them no heed.

Brays Have Good Salmon Fishing
Salmon fishing at Gold Beach at the mouth of Rogue river last Monday and Tuesday was reported poor for most fishermen.

Not so for Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Bray, 317 Lozier lane, Medford. They had that proverbial fishermen's luck.

Bray said that he and his wife had six strikes in two days of fishing and landed five of the fish. He caught four and Mrs. Bray one. Weight of the largest was estimated at 45 pounds.

Fish had started to strike better yesterday and good catches were made, Bray said he was told.

PILOTS SWEEP
Spokane — (U.P.) — University of Portland swept a twin bill from Gonzaga Thursday, 2-0 and 7-3.
Art Bull came within one out of pitching a no-hitter in the seven-inning opener. A single by Norb Trauba of the Zags spoiled Bull's bid with two out in the final frame.
