Ordination Services Held At Griffin Creek Grange

Ordination services were held Sunday for the Rev. Tyley O. Evans of Central Point, pastor of the Griffin Creek Union Sunday school.

More than 100 persons attended the service held at the Griffin Creek grange hall with the Rev. Raymond P. Targgart, Northwest supervisor for the American Sunday school Union, in charge. He was principal speaker at the service.

The Rev. Paul Korron, pastor of the Community Bible church, Central Point, gave the invocation.

Three Services at Presbyterian

The First Presbyterian church will hold three identical worship services Easter Sunday morning at 8:30, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Dr. D. Kirkland West, pastor of the church, will preach on the topic, "Life's Greatest Promise."

At the 8:30 service, the Westminster and children's choirs will sing two anthems, and Miss Kathy Barr will sing the solo, "There Is a Green Hill Far Away." At the 9:45 and 11 a.m. services, the church choir will sing two anthems, and a quartette composed of Mrs. Stanley Lacy, Miss Sharon Walsli, Otis Swisher and Lynn Sjolund will sing "Come Unto Him" from the "Triumph of the Cross."

The church will be decorated with memorial Easter lilies given by members and friends of the church.

After the Easter sunrise service at 6 a.m., the Senior High youth group will eat breakfast at the Rogue Valley Packing corporation, 13th and South Front sts. The Junior High youth people will have breakfast at the same time at the church.

The evening service at 7 p.m. will feature the film "Golgotha." This is a full length film telling the inspiring narrative of the last days on earth of Jesus of Nazareth.

Firewise for Senior High Westminster fellowship will be held after the evening service at the home of Carol McKeown, 109 South Orange st.

tion; the Rev. Allen Hill of the American Sunday school Union read the scripture, and the Rev. Thomas White, pastor of the Philadelphia church, spoke.

The dedicatory prayer and ordination was pronounced by the Rev. D. D. Randall, retired missionary of the American Sunday school Union.

Music was provided by the Rev. Billy Mallon of the "Region Beyond Mission," and the Rev. George Martin from Wonder.

The service was closed with the benediction by Joe Gray of the Community Bible church.

Among the visiting pastors was the Rev. Lester Wilcox of the Forest Acres Community church.

Sunday school classes are held at the Griffin Creek grange hall each Sunday at 10 a.m. followed by the worship service at 11.

The services held at the hall are non-denominational and are sponsored by the American Sunday school Union.

Early Service Planned at Zion

Easter at Zion Lutheran church, ULCA, Fourth and Oakdale, will be celebrated with two services in the church. The early service at 6 a.m. will be the same as the 11 a.m. service and it is held for those who like to experience the "early as it began to dawn" aspect of the celebration.

The choir, under the direction of Oscar Bjorlie, will sing, "The Lord Is Risen Today" with Mrs. Lorraine Evensen, organist.

The pastor of the church, G. H. Hillerman, will preach on "God's Power through Christ to You."

Between the two worship services, the Sunday school will hold its celebration of Easter beginning at 9:45 a.m. For this day all departments and classes of the school will meet in the church.

All persons will be welcomed to any or all of the services of the church.

Community Service Set by Methodists At Hedrick High

The Community Easter service, to be held at the Hedrick Junior High school auditorium, will be at 11 a.m., with Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb preaching. The sermon will be "What Do You Know — For Sure?"

The three choirs of the First Methodist church, the adult church choir, the youth choir, and the children's choir will join to bring the Easter music, "All Glory, Laud and Honor," and "Now Let All the Heavens Adore."

Other services to be conducted at the First Methodist church will include a service at 8 a.m. with the music by the youth choir, and the girls trio, with Karen Slonigher, Rosemary Doolen and Sue Donna Doolen. They will sing, "Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven Raise," and the choir will sing, "The Strife is O'er."

Dr. Balcomb will deliver the same sermon at the three services, at 8, 9:30, and 11 a.m.

All three services, the crib and nursery will be held as well as the kindergarten.

At the 11 a.m. service at Hedrick Junior High, the regular primary church group will meet and will be guided by Mrs. John Kent. The Rev. G. A. Trobough, associate minister, will assist in the three services.

On Sunday at 4 p.m., in the church, a baptismal service will be conducted. The children's choir will sing and Mr. Trobough will give the charge to the parents.

Junior High MYF and Senior High MYF will meet at 5:30 and at 7 p.m. These youth groups are cooperating in the sunrise service to be held at Heuner's Butte at 6 a.m.

The public is invited to these services.

Easter Program At First Assembly

Primary and junior departments of First Assembly of God Sunday school, 1108 West Main st., will present an Easter program Sunday at 9:45 a.m. Various classes in the departments will present the Easter story in songs and recitations. An instrumental number will be given by Don Strong and Bob Heide.

Ages ago the prophets foretold the events of Easter—that the Son of God would conquer death itself and rise again to fulfill His promises to mankind. May the joyous message of Easter bring new hope and happiness to you all!

Nazarene Features Three Choirs

Easter worship services at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., Medford, will feature three of the church choirs.

A junior choir of boys and girls, ages 9 to 11, with 59 voices will sing "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today." A 75-voice speaking choir of boys and girls of primary ages, 6 to 8, will present the scripture "Resurrection Story" from Matthew. Combined youth and sanctuary choirs will sing the "King of Kings."

The Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, pastor, will present the Easter sermon. New members will be received into the church at the morning worship service.

At 6 p.m., under the direction of W. Le Mansveld, minister of music, the church musicians will present an Easter vesper service of music. At 7:15 p.m. Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stark, medical missionaries to Africa, will speak briefly in their final service before leaving the United States for another term of service in the African mission field.

Choral Eucharist At St. Mark's

Easter services at St. Mark's Episcopal church will begin with the traditional sunrise choral eucharist at 6:30 a.m. It will be followed by the family Easter communion service at 9 a.m., full choral eucharist at 11 a.m. and close with the children's Easter floral service at 4 p.m.

At the 9 a.m. service St. Mark's chorists, directed by Miss Marcia Houghton and Mrs. Anna Wirkkula, with Miss Lou Elsa Voegtly at the organ, will lead the music, and the Rev. John Bright, assistant to the Rector will preach on "A Meaningful Miracle."

At 11 a.m. the sunrise music will be sung again by the senior choir, and the Rev. George R. V. Bolster will preach on "The Dynamics of the Resurrection."

The congregation is invited to attend a coffee hour in the Markade following this service.

The 4 p.m. children's service will feature the traditional "Flowering of the Cross" and the presentation of the Lenten mite boxes. A short Easter message will be given by Mr. Bright at this service. Following an old custom at St. Mark's all children attending this service will receive a potted pansy plant as they leave the church. Some children have accumulated ten or more such plants over the years.

Apostolic Faith Youth To Give Program

The young people of the Sunday school at The Apostolic Faith church, Third and Central, will portray "The Empty Tomb" at the 9:30 Sunday school hour, Easter morning. They will use as a background for the different scenes, Mrs. Isaac Shults' painting of the garden and the tomb.

The young people depicting the participants in that first Easter morning are Janice Robinson, Mary Magdalene; Linda Carver, the other Mary; David Wolf, the angel who rolls the stone away; Ronnie Wallace, Peter; Milton O'Neill, John, and Marilyn Gilman and Susanne Cearley, the two angels in the tomb. The appropriate scriptures will be read by Cliff Friesen, Paul Andrews and Cal Wolf.

A feature of the Sunday morning service will be the 35-piece orchestra. It will present "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and in the evening meeting the combined choruses of the church will sing "Unfold Ye Portals," accompanied by the orchestra. Martin Girard is musical director.

CHURCH MODEL—Two members of St. Luke's Methodist church check a scale model of the proposed first unit of their church with the pastor, the Rev. John A. Taylor (center). B. S. Bayless (left) and William Wilson designed and made the model. Tentative plans call for the $30,000 unit to be started in June on church property at Barnett rd. and Crestbrook. The church, sponsored by First Methodist church last year, now has 60 members.

Services Announced At First Baptist

Easter services are planned for the members and friends of the Medford First Baptist church.

On Sunday morning, the Sunday school will make a special effort to go have the 600 mark in attendance.

The morning worship service will have two Easter messages by the choir, "The Strife is O'er" and "Hosanna." Mrs. Herbert Hunter will be the soloist. The Rev. James Neely will speak on, "Resurrection Faith Makes A Difference."

The evening service will also feature Easter music. The youth choir will sing "God So Loved the World," and the ladies trio will also present Easter meditations in music. The evening sermon by the pastor will be "Resurrection Faith Demands Service."

'The Holy City' Scheduled in Ashland Sunday Afternoon

Ashland—The oratorio, "The Holy City," will be presented Sunday at 5 p.m. by the 30-voice choir of the First Methodist church of Ashland.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh of Medford, substitute organist for the church during the absence of the regular organist, will be guest organist for the service.

The choir is directed by Mrs. Della Weber. The public is invited to attend.

LENTEN MONOLOGUE

The fourth and last in the Lenten Monologue series on KBES-TV, "Thomas the Doubter," will be presented at 3:40 p.m., Saturday, April 20. The Rev. G. A. Trobough is narrator, with John Lusk, at the organ. Mr. Trobough is associate minister of the First Methodist church.
