Scheduled Walkout On PRR Postponed
Detroit—(U.P.)—A scheduled walkout of 10,000 employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad failed to come off Saturday following an announcement that the strike has been postponed "indefinitely."

T. C. Carroll, president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees, announced the postponement Friday. The walkout scheduled for today was to have been in support of demands for changes in work standards and seniority.

The Pennsylvania operates in 13 states.

News About Servicemen

ON LEAVE
Marine Cpl. Warren R. Jackson of Merle W. Jack of Central Point, is spending a 15-day leave at his home in Central Point. Warren enlisted in the Marine corps Oct. 2, 1953, and took recruit training at San Diego, Calif. He has spent his three years with the Marines at Hawaii, Okinawa and Japan.

He is now stationed with Hotel company of the first Marine division at Camp Pendleton, Calif. Before enlisting, Warren attended Phoenix High school.

NEW PROGRAM
The local Marine Corps recruiting office has announced a new "reservation" system open to male high school students for deferred active duty with the Marines. Under the "reservation" system, a high school student who will be graduated in May or June may enlist in the Marine Corps reserve during the months of April, May or June. He will remain in the inactive reserve until graduation, and will then be assigned to active duty for two or three years on any date he specifies between graduation and a date not later than 120 days after his enlistment.

For example, a student who enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve on April 30, and was graduated on June 1, could select any date for starting active duty during the period between June 1 and Aug. 10. The quota of "reservations" for deferred active duty assigned to the local recruiting office is limited, officers pointed out. They have requested interested seniors to apply immediately to the Marine Corps recruiting office, room 200, post office building, Medford.
