

Braves, Chisox Keep Unbeaten Pace in Major League Rivalry

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
The 35-year-old wings of Jim Wilson and Warren Spahn enabled the Chicago White Sox and Milwaukee Braves to remain unbeaten today and soar into undisputed possession of first places in the major league pennant races.

Wilson, who turned 35 on Feb.
20, pitched the White Sox to their fourth straight victory when he outdueled ex-Yankee Tom Morgan in a 1-0, 10-inning thriller over Kansas City Sunday while Spahn, who'll celebrate his 36th birthday Tuesday, scattered nine hits in the Braves' 2-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds.

The White Sox took over the top rung in the A.L. when the Boston Red Sox dealt the New York Yankees their first setback, 5-4, and the Braves achieved a similar pinnacle in the N.L., when the previously unbeaten Brooklyn Dodgers split a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Wilson, who pitched a no-hitter in 1954, made a bid for his second classic with a perfect game for seven innings and a no-hitter for eight. Hector Lopez finally broke the hitless spell in the ninth and the Athletics collected two other hits. Wilson struck out eight and walked two for his first win.

Pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar, who knocked in five runs on Saturday, delivered a sacrifice fly in the 10th to send home rookie Jim Landis with the decisive tally. Morgan, who pitched a four-hitter on opening day, yielded only one hit in the first nine innings and was touched for only three in all.

Spahn settled down after a shaky four frames to hold the Redlegs to one hit in the last five innings and chalk up his second win of the year. Del Crandall singled home two runs in the fourth and Hank Aaron doubled and Joe Adcock singled for Milwaukee's other run in the eighth.
The loss was the fourth straight for the disappointing Redlegs.

Frank Thomas, Paul Smith, Dick Groat and Bob Skinner walloped homers as the Pirates beat the Dodgers, 6-3, in their opener but five runs in the second inning enabled the N.L. champions to breeze to a 7-4 decision in the nightcap. Don New-combe was routed by the Braves in the first game, but Clem Labine relieved 20-year-old Don Drysdale to save the nightcap.

Jack Dittmer, ex-Brave second baseman, singled with the bases filled in his first A.L. appearance to give the Detroit Tigers a 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 11-9, in the other A.L. games. The Senators led the second game, 2-1, after five innings when a power failure shut off the Griffith Stadium lights and the umpires asked A.L.
President Will Harridge for a ruling on the "contest."

Two other N.L. doubleheaders wound up in splits. Sam Jones struck out 11 of his former teammates as the St. Louis Cardinals gained a 6-3 triumph after the Chicago Cubs won their opener, 5-3, in 11 innings and the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the New York Giants, 8-5, after Johnny Antonelli out-duelled Robin Roberts, 2-1, in their first game.

Vancouver Stretches Lead in PCL; Padres Nab 2 From Beavers

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press Sports Writer
No, Dad, you haven't got your newspaper upside down. The Vancouver Mounties moved further ahead in the Pacific Coast league race today and it hardly looked like a fluke.

Manager Charley Metro's club, which was brushed off as a natural for the cellar by just about everybody this spring, swept a double header from Sacramento Sunday to post its 8th win in 10 games. The scores were 1-0 and 7-0 as Mel Hed and southpaw Art Ceccarelli turned in a pair of impressive three-hitters.

As for the silent Sacs, they have been blanked for 22 straight innings since getting a pair of unearned tallies on Saturday night. The teams play again tonight to make up a rained out contest.

In other games, San Francisco divided with Seattle to remain a game and a half off the pace behind the Mounties when they host this week. San Diego downed Portland twice and Los Angeles won two more from slumping Hollywood.

Held Had Help Held had little trouble with Sacramento in the first game and got all the help he needed in the fourth inning when Joe Frazier homered off Gene Bearden to help send the veteran left hander down to defeat.

The Mounties then combed Roger Osenbaugh for 10 hits in the seven-inning nightcap. Cecarelli held Sacramento to one pure single by Russ Rosburg

Light Failure Brings Problem To AL Officials

Chicago —(U.P.)— American league president Will Harridge promises to dig up an answer today to baseball's biggest riddle so far in 1957—what happens when the lights go out?

Everybody was left in the dark at Washington's Griffith stadium Sunday when a short circuit prevented eight arc-light towers from functioning.
The incident occurred when umpires ordered the lights turned on at the end of five innings of the second game of a Senators-Baltimore Orioles twin bill, with the Senators leading, 2-1.

The umpires waited an hour and, when nobody could fix the lights, called the game. But what happens now—is the game finished or isn't it?
Umpires Joe Paparella, Ed
Hurler, Ed Runge, and Frank Umort admit they don't know.
They said this was the first time such an incident has occurred. There doesn't seem to be anything in the rules that covers it and there is no such thing as a "suspended game" in the American league.

Harridge, at his office here, said, "We don't want to make any official statement until we get the full facts of exactly what happened—and what made the lights go out. However, we expect to have a decision ready today."

art also fanned three more times in the game to bring his total up to 22 in 11 games.
San Diego beat Portland, 8-5 and 4-0, on more sharp pitching. Dolan took over for Pete Mesa in the opener and gave up two hits as the Pads rallied to win.

Daley blanked the last place Beavers with a five-hitter and drove in two runs himself in the final with a double. He also stayed on after being hit by a liner in the ribs off the bat of Frank Ernaga in the seventh.
