Junior Symphony To Give Concert Saturday Night

Portland—The Portland Junior Symphony's Spring festival concert Saturday, April 27, will feature a program of popular symphonic works. The program is planned as a special tribute to the more than 2000 young musicians who have performed in its ranks since the orchestra's organization 33 years ago. For the occasion, two distinguished alumni and former Junior Symphony concertmasters, will return to be the star soloists of the evening. They are Elinore Sharp and Catherine Petersen and they will perform the Mozart "Duo Concerto for Violin and Viola" with the orchestra. Ravel's "Bolero," with its ever-popular rhythmic description of Spanish dancers, is a pre-intermission feature. The second half of the program will present one of the favorites among symphonies, Anton Dvorak's "New World" that contains the familiar folk-melody, "Going Home." Audiences have always particularly enjoyed Junior Symphony performances of this lovely work.

Jacob Avshalomov, conductor and also an alumnus of the orchestra, will open the evening's entertainment with a sparkling overture, that to the opera "Don Giovanni" by Mozart.

The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the Public auditorium. It will be the final program of the season's series for the 80-piece Junior Symphony.

On the morning of the same day the orchestra will present a "Music for Fun" program for children, beginning at 11 a.m. in the auditorium. Following the concert there will be a demonstration of instruments, when the children's audience may meet the orchestra in the South wing.

Medford Chapter Entertains Guests

Ten members of the Grants Pass chapter were guests of the Medford chapter of Oregon Blue Star Mothers at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Helen Watson. A potluck luncheon was served.

Delegates for the coming state convention were elected. Mrs. James Cech, president, was named delegate, and Mrs. Ora Sweet, alternate. The convention will be held at Rogue Valley Grange hall May 2 in Grants Pass.

The Medford chapter will sell Blue Star dresses on the streets of Medford May 17 and 18. This is the only money-making project of the chapter, and the funds are used to aid wheel chair patients at Camp White. Members of the club spend the fourth Friday of each month at the camp.

Hosts Announced For April Dance

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Webb will be host couples for the Lively Rogues dinner dance to be held Thursday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m. at Rogue Valley Country club.

This will be the last formal dance of the current season as the May dance will be the annual sports dance.

Harry Lawrence Leaves Medford For Puerto Rico

Harry Lawrence left Medford earlier this month to take a position in San Juan, Puerto Rico, as an instructor in flying for a private aviation firm. He will also engage in crop dusting for the firm.

Mr. Lawrence served in the air branch of the United States Navy from 1942 to 1946 and later was graduated from an aviation school in Kansas City.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, 1422 Euclid avenue, and Mrs. Lawrence accompanied her son as far south as San Francisco on the first part of his air journey to Puerto Rico. In the Bay city she visited her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Lawrence, and family. Mr. Lawrence, a technical sergeant in the United States Air Force, is now assigned to duty at Thule Air base in Greenland.

In Richmond, Calif., Mrs. Lawrence was a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Wallace Ludwig and their family. Later she visited a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Rose and family in Chico, Calif. Mr. Rose is with a television and radio station there.

Plan Play At College

Ashland — "Alladin and the Wonderful Lamp" a dramatization by James Norris of the famous tale from "The Arabian Nights," will be presented May 10 and 11 by the Southern Oregon College Players for the young, and the young in heart. This is the first full-length children's theatre play to be presented by the SOC players. During the past two summers two short children's dramas have been presented, "The Stolen Prince" and "The Lost Princess." A second presentation of the former was given during Children's Book week in the 1955 fall term.

The Norris dramatization is a delightful comedy as well as a play of mystery and enchantment. Included in the cast are: Alladin, Ruedi Vest, Ashland; Princess Badroulbadour (Adora for short), Miss Nancy Jennings, Medford; the African magician, Peter Lungreen, Klamath Falls; the sultan, father of the princess, Pat Conway, Sacramento; mother of Alladin, Miss Dorothy Richardson, Seattle; Kalissa, a neighbor, Miss LaRayne Weed, Klamath Falls; Noon, a nurse, JoAnn Norton Anderson, Coos Bay; a genie, Jim Johns, Lakeview; a guard, Don Floyd, Phoenix; a citizen, Miss Myrtle Converse, Ashland.

Members of Orchestis, SOC dance group, will play the roles of the slaves, and another genie and more citizens will round out the cast.

The SOC Players plan a colorful production under the direction of Miss Dorothy Stoll of the speech department. Miss Beverly Bennett, adviser of Orchestis, will direct the dances, and Otto Wilda of the art department is scenery consultant.

Mardikian Book On Club Program

Mrs. L. K. Doty and Mrs. Jack Swem gave the program for the Wednesday Study club at the last meeting.

Mrs. Doty reviewed the book, "Song of America," by George M. Mardikian. The book, an autobiography, is the account of a poor, persecuted Armenian who fled his native land, journeyed to America and became a good citizen and successful business man.

The author tells of his first job as bus boy at Coffee Dan's earning $12 per week, then to Compton's restaurant at $18, and finally to ownership of the famous Omar Khayyam's cafe in San Francisco.

A connoisseur of food, Mr. Mardikian returned to his native Armenia and searched Europe for recipes and other data in the preparation of quality food for his restaurant. Mr. Mardikian writes of having dined with 17 other well known restaurateurs in the White House as guests of President Eisenhower, with food as the natural topic of conversation.

Mrs. Swem discussed an article in the current May Coronet magazine, "Liver for Life," in which the author tells of the wonder meat, liver, being so richly endowed with food values from vitamin A to zinc.

Mrs. Donald R. Edwards was voted membership in the club.

Chorus, Orchestra To Present Concert

Ashland — Under the direction of W. B. Windt, the Ashland High school chorus and orchestra will present its annual spring concert Thursday, April 25, in the new gymnasium at 8 p.m.

The concert will feature secular, popular, folk, and classical selections by the chorus. Orchestral numbers range from "My Fair Lady" to the classical "Czardas" by V. Monti.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained from chorus and orchestra members or purchased at the door.

Social Age Test Given for Chapter

The last meeting of Beta Upsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Palmer, Charles lane. Mrs. Howard Blew presided.

The program was given by Mrs. Rae Bostwick on "Thought," one of the "tools for the art of living." A social age test was given to the members in order to determine if "I am old enough to be a parent."

Guests were Mrs. Gene McCallister and Mrs. James Judd. Mrs. Judd, who recently came here from Texas, will transfer to one of the Medford Beta Sigma Phi chapters.

It was voted to operate a booth at the Ladies' Mounted troop horse show to be held in July.

Mrs. Biew announced that Mrs. Scott Davis and Mrs. M. N. Hogan will continue as sponsor and director of the chapter for the coming year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Neal Curry.
