Owings Sparks Red Raiders To Decision Over Techmen

Ashland — Ron Owings smashed a bases loaded home run, hit four times in five times up and drove in six runs yesterday to pace Southern Oregon college to its first 1957 victory in Oregon Collegiate conference baseball. The Raiders defeated Oregon Tech by a decisive 22 to 4 at Klamath Falls. Owings homer came in the fifth inning when the Raiders got eight runs. LeRoy King and Phil Sword doubled in the in-

Raiders Tip Shastans in Track Meet

Ashland — Southern Oregon college track and field men won first places in just five of the 14 events but piled up enough second and third places to nick Shasta Junior college 61½ to 60½ in a dual meet here yesterday. Southern Oregon took 11 seconds and seven third spots. Raiders swept the shot and discus. They gained a first and second and tie for third in the high jump.

Donn Taucher, ex-Klamath union high, was the big winner for Shasta. He won the 100-yard sprint in :10.3, the 220 in :23.5 and the broad jump with 21 feet 8 inches. Saunders won the hurdles for Shasta with :16.7 in the highs and :28.2 in the lows. Gustafson Wins

Dick Gustafson was the Raiders twin victor with 4:54.6 in the mile and 11:26.4 in the two mile. Other SOC first were Bill Hollingsworth with 6 ft. in the high jump, Bill Stewart with 40-9½ in the shot put and Dave Lockhart with 128-2½ in the discus. Shasta winners included Jones with :55.6 in the 440, Thomas with 2:14 in the 80, Bob Coffman with 12-5¼ in the pole vault and the relay quartet.

Lockhart set a school record in the discus and Coffman a Full-field mark in the pole vault. Millard Marsh of Southern Oregon established a new school mark of 21-1½ in taking second in the broad jump.

Medford School Records Tumble

Two Medford elementary school records were set yesterday as Washington outscored Jackson 149½ to 50½ in a dual meet.

Frank Van Pelt of Jackson set an A class standard of 37 feet 9½ inch in the shot put. Horton also of Jackson set a new mark of 7-3 in the C division pole vault.

No separate score for the three classes was kept. Washington thinclads were winners in eight A events and seven B contests. They won five C events. Washington won the medley relay.

Ranger, Foremanship Schools Held in CJ

Cave Junction — A ranger school and fire foremanship training session drew permanent U.S. Forest Service personnel from all parts of the Siskiyou National forest to the Illinois Valley Aerial Project last Thursday.

Instructors at the foremanship school were Elwin Frye and George Morey, district assistants from Powers and Gold Beach, respectively; and J. R. Philbrick of the timber management staff, forest supervisor's office, Grants Pass.

During the fire school, Frye and Morey gave courses in general leadership and described the organization procedure for large conflagrations. The use of tools, construction of a fire line and safety practices were taught.

At the ranger school, Dick Tubman of the fire control staff, supervisor's office, described a ranger district organization for two-sector fires, requiring several crews. Both Hendricks, an engineer from the supervisor's office, told duties of a fire boss and stressed the importance of pre-suppression work of look-outs and guard station personnel.

Retaliation Planned If Mays Dusted

Brooklyn, N.Y. —(U.P.)— Bill Rigney is no student of foreign affairs but he warned today that there'll be "massive retaliation" if Sal Maglie, an old friend, tries to "dust off" the New York Giants.

"The first time that old bird throws one at Willie Mays and that's it," said the Giant manager before his team met the Brooklyn Dodgers for the first time this season tonight. "Just one at Willie and down go all the Dodgers—one, two, three, four and on down the line."

Rigney has assigned Max Surkon, a tough old cookie in his own right, the job of facing the National League champions tonight and one reason is that he knows the veteran right-hander won't hesitate to "dust off" the Dodgers once the manager gives the word.

Idaho Raps Washington

Moscow Idaho —(U.P.)— Idaho capitalized on Washington's second-inning errors to take a 9-5 northern division baseball decision here Tuesday and split its opening conference series with the Huskies.

Washington edged the Vandals Monday 2-1.

The Huskies committed three errors in the second as Idaho brought home six runs topped with a bases-loaded double by shortstop Newt Westergren which started a 20-minute rubarb. Westergren's hit went down the left field line and brought Huskie coach Dale Parker and the entire team to home plate to argue with umpire Bill Bowerman.

Tower Ready to Train FS Smokejumpers

Cave Junction — Erected and ready for practice jumps is the 46 foot all-steel tower which replaces the old wooden smokejumpers' stand at the Siskiyou Aerial project on the Redwood highway.

The tower was hauled from Glendale recently, where it had been used as a Civil Aeronautics beacon. The job of reassembling it took nearly two weeks.

Smokejumpers will start training here the first week in June. Project Supervisor James Allen said. The tower, which is 12 feet higher than the old structure, is used to acclimate men to the opening shock received from the parachute.
