Ceremony At Church Weds Couple

Jacksonville—Baskets of white stock and blue delphinium decorated the First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville Saturday April 20, for the wedding of Mrs. Donna Doranne Taylor and William Wesley Johnson. The Rev. Ernest R. Volkman of the Presbyterian church in Phoenix officiated at the double ring ceremony held at seven thirty o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Davies of Jacksonville. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Johnson of route 2, box 463, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length pink chiffon frock over net styled with full skirt. Her short veil was held by a small pink flowered hat and her satin shoes and gloves were pink. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations, pink roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. James O. Cabler attended her sister. She wore a blue dress with matching hat and blue satin slippers and gloves. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations and blue delphinium.

Alvy S. Kendall of Central Point served as best man for his brother-in-law.

Seven year old Dale Cabler was candle lighter. She wore a white and yellow frock with white and yellow flowers in her hair.

Mrs. C. L. Robinson played the traditional wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Jacksonville. White carnations, pink sweetpeas, and white tapers decorated the rooms. The bride's table was covered with a pink lace cloth.

Mrs. A. E. Reinking cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Jerry Montgomery presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Kenneth Norris poured the coffee. Miss Vicki Tweedy was in charge of the guest book and at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Davies chose a lilac colored raw silk sheath dress with purple accessories. Mrs. Johnson wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. They both wore orchid corsages.

For her traveling attire the bride chose a white and yellow flowered sheer with yellow jacket and matching accessories. Her corsage was a brown and yellow orchid. Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the newlyweds will make their home in Ashland.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. Anne Davies of Medford, paternal grandmother of the bride; and Mrs. Bonnie Large of Williams, Ore.

The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville schools. The bridegroom attended Jacksonville schools and Southern Oregon college. He is employed by the First National Bank of Portland, Ashland branch.

Chapter Honors 50-Year Members; Pins Presented

Charter and fifty-year members were honored by Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star at a meeting Thursday evening at Medford Masonic temple. Three new 50-year members were presented pins by the worthy matron, Mrs. Morris Boughner. They were Mrs. H. R. Burke, Mrs. Melvin D. Overby and Mrs. Esther Coleman.

Other honored members of the evening were Mrs. W. R. Duffie, Mrs. J. W. Watkins, Mrs. Orris Stoddard and Mrs. Enola Hamilton, all members of the Order of Eastern Star for more than 50 years. Mrs. Hamilton is now living in San Francisco, but made the trip to Medford especially for the occasion.

Other fifty-year members, but unable to be present, are Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, Mrs. R. G. Fowler, Mrs. E. D. Elwood, Mrs. Mattie Pickel, Mrs. Ella Mae Lance, Mrs. Mamie Riddle and Mrs. Lillian Waddell, who was represented by her daughter, Mrs. Curtis Jester and Mrs. H. U. Lumsden, who is also a charter member of Reames chapter. Refreshments were served in the dining room, and included a special "birthday" cake for the honored members.

Crater Auxiliary Plans Initiation

Initiation will be held by Crater Lions auxiliary at the monthly meeting Wednesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Floyd Eastwood 940 Shafter lane. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. Eastwood, Mrs. Dan Dwyer and Mrs. Warren Brenner.

Mrs. George Potucek, initiation chairman, will conduct the ceremonies for Mrs. Howard Lage and Mrs. Hugh Friel.

The auxiliary has been asked to arrange entertainment and decorations for a "fun breakfast" for the state Lions' convention which will be held in Medford June 20 to 22. Final plans are to be announced by the committee. Election of officers for the coming year will also be held.

Annual Meeting and Drive Planned by Voters' League

Medford League of Women Voters will hold the annual meeting at 12 o'clock Saturday, May 4, in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

Dr. Charles P. Schleicher, professor of political science at the University of Oregon will be the guest speaker. Officers for the coming year will be elected during a brief business meeting following luncheon, according to Mrs. Robert Hiatt, president.

Dr. Schleicher, who also will take part in the annual convention of Oregon United Nations associations next week end, recently returned from a year's stay in India where he was a Fulbright professor at Allahabad university. He was one of the organizers of the Oregon High School International Relations, a college text book.

All persons interested are invited to attend the meeting. Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. Homer Marx, Medford SP 2-6845, or Mrs. Hiatt, SP 3-3118.

The annual finance drive of the Medford League of Women Voters has been set for Monday, May 6, according to Mrs. Robert Hiatt, outgoing president.

The one-day drive will provide an opportunity to discuss the league's effectiveness and purpose in the community, as well as to provide an opportunity for busy citizens to help financially with league work.

A goal of $500 has been set for the campaign, with dues and contributions from league members making up the rest of the group's budget.

In line with the policy of leagues throughout the country, the Medford group solicits contributions from a relatively small number of interested individuals, Mrs. Hiatt said. To insure its non-partisan study and action concerning government, the government, the group does not solicit contributions from firms or fractional organizations, she explained.

About 20 league members are expected to take part in the May 6 finance drive.
