

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cunningham Jr.

Cunningham-Arnold Rites Held at Adventist Church

Valley View Seventh-day Adventist church was the setting Sunday, April 7, for the wedding of Miss Ruby Fae Arnold and James H. Cunningham Jr. Elder Floyd F. Breese officiated at the seven o'clock evening ceremony attended by 200 friends and relatives.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben J. Arnold of 1490 Thomas road, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cunningham, of 2355 Sunset drive, Medford.

The bride wore a gown of brocade taffeta with train and her finger tip length veil was held by a band of tuffed nylon. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Mr. Arnold gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Carol Helm was maid of honor and Miss Avis Rose Bisseger was bridesmaid. They wore frocks of pink taffeta and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Little Irene Rholf was flower girl and wore a blue frock and carried a basket of snapdragons. Terry Breese served as ring bearer.

David D. Mathias served as best man while Kenneth Wilbur, Don Campbell, and James Browning acted as groomsmen.

Pink and white snapdragons decorated the church where the ceremony was held. Joe Hoyt was soloist and Mrs. Hoyt played the traditional wedding music.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Rogue River Academy chapel by Mrs. Amelia Chamberlin. About 150 guests attended.

Candlelighters were Miss Muriel Wilbur and Ronald Archer. Miss Wilbur was dressed in pink and wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Arnold chose a print jersey dress with black accessories. Mrs. Cunningham wore a pink dress with navy blue coat and pink accessories. They both wore pink and white carnation corsages.

The bride attended Rogue River Academy. The bridegroom attended Oakland High school in Oakland, Ore. and is employed by OK Market in Medford. They are making their home at 1446 1/2 Thomas road, Medford.

Royal Neighbors District Session Set for Tuesday

Jacksonville — The 26th annual meeting of the Oregon district, Royal Neighbors of America, will be held Tuesday, April 30, at the Community hall in Jacksonville. The Central Point and Jacksonville camps will be hostesses for the session.

Here for the convention will be Mrs. Mae E. Logan, Portland, state supervisor and three district deputies, Mrs. Jessie Steel, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Golden Gibbs, Lakeview; and Mrs. Clayton Walker, Medford.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. A banquet will be served at 6 p.m. in the IOOF hall. About 200 are expected to attend.

The public is invited to attend a program to be given at 8:30 p.m.

Contest Winners Honored Guests At Lodge Dinner

Jackson county winners of the 12th annual high school student's public speaking contest sponsored by Talisman lodge, Knights of Pythias, were honored at a no-host dinner at the Jackson hotel Thursday evening.

Miss Millie Haynie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Haynie of Shady Cove, first place winner and winner in the bi-county contest was presented an engraved pen and pencil set. Bill Frake, Medford high school student who placed second, and Miss Sandra Sawyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sawyers of Trail, third place winner, were presented collegiate dictionaries.

Miss Haynie and Miss Sawyers attend Eagle Point high school and are speech students of Bert Simmons. Mr. Frake is a student of Devere Taylor.

Master of ceremonies was Don Lacy, chairman of the local Knights of Pythias lodge contest.

Miss Haynie will compete with other state district winners at Portland Saturday, May 18. Winner of the section contest will be eligible to attend the final contest in August in Memphis, Tenn. Topic for this year's contest is "Youth Looks at the Future."

Parents, friends, teachers, and lodge members and their wives attended the dinner.

District Director Speaks for Session Of Rose Society

Mrs. Nat Schoen, Pacific Northwest district director of the American Rose society from Vancouver, Wash., spoke on "Grooming Roses for the Show" at the last meeting of the Medford Rose society April 22 at the courthouse auditorium. She demonstrated with roses that had been sent from San Diego by Mrs. Joseph Kennealy.

Mrs. Carl Norris and Mrs. William Peabody reported on the Northwest district convention and rose show to be held in Medford June 7 and 8 in which members from Montana, Washington, Idaho, and California will participate.

Guests attending the meeting included Mrs. R. O. Stevenson, Mrs. L. P. Wilson, Mrs. John Berbert, Mrs. G. Roach, and Ernest Vehrs, all of Grants Pass.

The next meeting of the Rose society will be held Saturday, May 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Medford High school cafeteria. Final plans for the rose show will be made.

Members in charge of refreshments at the last meeting were Miss Florence Bain, Miss Ruth Sutherland and Mrs. George Stuhr.

Annual Tea at Hillcrest Benefits Cancer Society

The combination of a well planned tea, displays of antiques and a good cause prove irresistible to women, and this drew scores of visitors to Hillcrest orchards Wednesday afternoon for the annual event to benefit the American Cancer society. Started a few years ago by the Medford chapter of ACS, headed by Mrs. John S. Day, the yearly event is now well established on the calendar of benefit events.

Pouring Wednesday were Mrs. Vincent Bevis, Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. Kenneth Denman, Mrs. Lucian Harbert, Mrs. Malcolm Byers, Mrs. Shelby Tuttle, Mrs. Chester Guch, Mrs. Henry Padgham, Mrs. Walter Inch and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich.

Interest is added by competitions such as table setting and flower arranging in which valley groups cooperate. This year's theme was Babies of Yesteryear, and interested persons contributed christening robes, interesting clothing worn by children in days gone by, dolls, children's toys and furniture. A flower arranging contest was also a part of the program.

First Prize
Mrs. F. Wilson Watt won first prize for Chapter BE of the PEO sisterhood with a display of five dolls, two small chairs and a child's silver cup. The collection included one large to two very small dolls, one of the latter being a French "walking" doll and one a German doll. The bodies are of bisque and the heads china with real hair.

Second went to Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority for an entry arrangement by Mrs. Jonathon Middleton and Mrs. Robert McIntyre. The three dolls ranged from 50 to 75 years in age and the display also included an old photograph album, a pair of tiny galoshes about 50 years old and a child's 70-year-old cup.

First prize in flower arrangements went to the Philharmonic Society guild. Using blossoms provided by Mrs. Milo Kubalek, guild president, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth arranged wistaria, lilac, Roman hyacinth and two white colored blossoms from a tree peony in a silver container with base of three figurines.

Chapter AA of the PEO sisterhood was voted second place for an arrangement of white tulips, snowdrops and mock orange combined with slender iris spears and driftwood in a flat silver container. Mrs. Myers Jones, who made the arrangement, used a silver and white ceramic pigeon from the California studio of Kay Finch as an accessory.

Judging was by popular vote. Many Enter

Other groups entering flower arrangements were Kappa Alpha Theta, Chapter CP, PEO; Talent Garden club; Central Point Garden club; the Floral Art club; Jacksonville Garden club; Rogue Valley Memorial Hospital guild; Kiwanian Dames; American Association of University Women; Medford Garden club; Women of Rotary; Roxy Ann Garden club and Jackson County Medical auxiliary.

Guests found the heirloom clothing entry of Mrs. F. K. Deuel of considerable interest. It was a boy's suit dress, red with black trim, about 100 years old. The entry of Medford Junior Service league was handsome 150-year-old cradle belonging to Allan Hunt. Mrs. E. M. Sicks exhibited a christening dress worn by three generations of babies in Dr. Sicks's family, and Mrs. Lee Mellich loaned three dresses and three heirloom baby shoes.

Several articles of baby clothing, including a carriage robe, and an old story book, silver cup, two napkin rings and two sets of baby silver were loaned by Mrs. Gordon Warner. Mrs. Theodore M. Garhart loaned a christening dress and slip made in England and used by five generations. A doll dating back to Civil War days was loaned by Mrs. Clinton Spencer, and Mrs. Fred Scheffel of the Jacksonville Antique shop exhibited a cradle and chair made by an uncle while he was home on furlough after fighting in the Civil War. Old Robes Loaned

Mrs. Lawrence Ellis loaned a christening dress, Miss Elizabeth Burr loaned baby shirts and two of the garments known as "gertrudes" as well as other articles, and Miss Claire Hanley sent to the tea a 75-year-old christening dress and a child's dress more than 100 years old.

Mrs. Bosworth exhibited an album with pictures of several children in the family wearing the same christening dress and coat now 90 years old, and Mrs. Charles W. Lemery's exhibit was a child's tiny sewing machine about 70 years old.

Loaned by Mrs. Burdette Dodge were a toy buggy and dolls, a 65-year-old christening dress and a lace dress and silk coat more than 60 years old and designed for wear by a boy. Mrs. Russell G. Barnes exhibited clothing, including a boy's sailor suit, Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer loaned a child's dress and Mrs. Grace Collins' loan included a dress, pantalettes and shirt.

Mrs. Walter Garner exhibited a christening dress and coat, with pictures, Mrs. Frank Farrell loaned a baby crib and blanket and Mrs. Ned Schuler a cradle about 90 years old. Mrs. R. R. Smith exhibited a 90-year-old doll from the House of the Seven Gables in Salem, Mass., and Mrs. Gerald Von Ting exhibited an old doll for Medford Garden club.

Tea table and house decorations for the tea are always outstanding, and this year arrangements were largely the work of Mrs. Berthold Barnum, assisted by committee members.

Mrs. Ida Wharton, cateress, donates time and food preparation for the tea each year, and Mrs. Lesta Stockton also donated time for this year's event.

Guest Night Held by Bridge Club

Orin Schenck and Mrs. Al Gilhousen, 126, second; Mrs. Maud Codding and Mrs. Dolph Phipps, 118, third; and Mrs. William Hendry and Mrs. Josephine Clark, 109 1/2, fourth. In the east-west position were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Milestone, 126, second; Mrs. Harold Fyle and Mrs. Berg Marten, 122 1/2, third; and Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer and Asa Kimball 114 1/2, fourth.

Players and points in section B north-south position were Mrs. Jack Love and Mrs. Howard Boyd, 94, second; Mrs. F. G. Bunch and Al Gilhousen, 91, third; and Mrs. Edward Hedden and Howard Boyd, 88 1/2, fourth. East-west position players were Mrs. Ernest Pearson and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, 104 1/2, second; Richard Henselman and Mrs. Elliott Harlow, 96 1/2, third, and Mrs. O. L. Williams and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, 94 1/2, fourth.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Howard Boyd.

Meeting Announced For Adare Chapter

Jacksonville—Adare chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet Thursday, May 2, at 8 p.m. in the Jacksonville Masonic temple. Visitors will be welcome according to Mrs. Gertrude Winningham, worthy matron.

Mrs. A. W. Turnquist, one of the models for the style show and luncheon given Thursday in Central Point by Nevita Social club, is pictured here wearing a brown and white checked street frock. Her wide hat and other accessories are of palest beige.

The first Bible published in the United States was issued from the press of the Harvard college in 1683.

Hostesses Serve Herb Luncheon

Saffron buns, green salad with herb dressing, herb tea and herb cookies were served by Mrs. William Perry and Mrs. Melchior Heckenberger both of Eagle Point and Mrs. Edgar Vanderlip of Shady Cove at the last meeting of the Rogue Valley Herb society.

The meeting was held at the Perry home in Eagle Point. Mrs. Vanderlip spoke on saffron sativa and illustrated various species of saffrons on the blackboard. She told of the uses of saffrons and gave the description of the different varieties.

A plant sale followed the meeting. The society arranged for a specimen table exhibit to be sent to the Eagle Point Garden club show that was held in Eagle Point last Wednesday.

The society has given the books "Brooklyn Botanic Garden Herb" and "The Years in my Herb Garden" to the Medford Public library. The second book was placed in the library in honor of the 1956 society officers.

Visitors at the last meeting were Mrs. A. O. Floyd of Medford and Mrs. Effie Burner Especially good for travelers are the many colognes and toilet waters now available in aerosol containers which are unbreakable and easy to use.
