

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

New York—Vice Adm. Charles R. Brown, commander of the U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean, on why his naval force was ordered to the troubled Mid-eastern area:

"My job is to be prepared for war—any kind of war, but the primary mission is to help preserve the peace. The 6th Fleet is a visible symbol of power, reassuring friends, dissuading enemies."

Washington—Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets committee, on the committee's probe of Teamsters' President Dave Beck's alleged misappropriation of $320,000 of union funds: "I think without question we could prove that Mr. Beck stole the $320,000."

South Bend, Ind.—Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) on the proposed $73 billion budget: "It is a luxury budget on a global basis. It embraces practically every country in the world excepting Russia."

Washington—Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-N.Y.) vice chairman of the Senate Rackets committee, on proposed legislation to protect union members from racketeers: "In the end, though, the responsibility rests with the rank and file union man or woman."

Washington—James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, on House-approved cuts in the State Department appropriation for next year:

"The President and Secretary of State (John Foster Dulles) believe that the cuts made by the House are harmful to the United States and to the conduct of foreign affairs."

GOLD HILL Arrangements Discussed

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—A demonstration on the arrangement of spring flowers was given at the April meeting of the Gold Hill Garden club at the home of Mrs. J. G. Kofahl on Pacific Highway 99, North. Mrs. Roy Cameron furnished flowers and arrangements were made by Mrs. Kofahl, Mrs. H. C. Burnett and Mrs. George Dorman.

The business session was opened by the chaplain, Mrs. Kofahl, who presented a reading on the "Easter Story." Following the reading, the president, Mrs. William Fields, conducted the meeting at which time donations were made to the Cancer fund and the Easter Seal Sale for the benefit of crippled children. Mrs. Burnett became a member of the club at the meeting.

All members present participated in the quiz under the direction of the program chairman, Mrs. E. Gregory and the co-chairman, Mrs. Cameron. Mrs. Loyd Dusenberry won first place in the quiz contest. Mrs. Dorman, second and Mrs. Hannah Routh and Mrs. Fields, third. Pansies were given to the first two winners, and the consolation prize was flower seeds.

A dessert luncheon was served prior to the meeting to 10 members and one visitor, Mrs. Millie Walker, by the hostess, Mrs. Kofahl and cohostess, Mrs. Fields.

The next meeting of the Garden club will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Cameron with Mrs. George Dorman as cohostess.

A meeting of the Alderbrook extension unit will be held on May 2 from 9 a.m. until noon at the home of Mrs. Sidney Anderson on Sardine creek. Mrs. Anderson and the chairman, Mrs. Billy Jerolamon, will be in charge of the braided rug demonstration. The group was organized recently for the ladies of Sardine creek.
