Two Injured in Medford Accidents

A Phoenix man and a Yreka woman were injured in two accidents reported in Medford Monday and this morning, according to city police.

Roland Lawrence Renfro, 27, Phoenix, suffered a fractured leg early this morning when the car in which he was riding struck a parked car registered to Othell Green, 217 South Riverside ave., Medford, in front of Green's residence, according to city police.

Renfro was taken to Rogue Valley hospital where hospital attendants said his condition late this morning was "good."

Operator of the car was Robert Arthur Wilcox, 2335 Stewart ave., Medford, officers said. He was arrested on charges of being drunk in public, police reported.

Wilcox pleaded innocent to the charges today in municipal court and was released on $100 bail. He will appear in court Wednesday.

Mrs. Susan Marie Hansen, 49, Yreka, suffered scalp wounds and other bruises Monday when the car she was operating collided with another car while she was attempting to drive into the parking area at the Crater Inn Motel, 841 South Riverside ave., Medford, according to city police.

Mrs. Hansen was taken to Rogue Valley hospital by Medford ambulance service. Hospital attendants said she was treated and released Monday evening.

Operator of the other vehicle was Nancy Lou Arant, 3687 Table Rock rd., Medford, police said.

Seeley Apparent Low Bidder on Clinic

Ashland—Dwight L. Seeley, 3222 Hillcrest rd., Medford, was apparent low bidder for construction of a $51,168 clinic in Ashland.

Bids for the clinic, for Drs. R. W. Bradshaw and R. M. Turner, were opened Monday afternoon and reported by Balzhiser and Seder, Eugene, architects for the structure.

Seeley asked an additional $426 for alternate one and $2,800 for alternate two. Other bids were submitted by Wiley company, Ashland, $51,490; Harold W. Saller, Rogue River, $55,700; Myers Jones, Medford, $56,975; and H. G. Carl Construction company, Salem, $57,000.

Included in the wood frame clinic will be three separate buildings connected by covered walks; two doctor's suites, each containing 1,024 square feet; and a 572-square foot laboratory building.

Bohlen Nomination Apparently Approved

Washington—(U.P.)—The Senate Foreign Relations committee today approved the nomination of Charles E. Bohlen as ambassador to the Philippines, according to Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.).

Wiley, who left the closed door session early, said there was no opposition. Bohlen, recently returned as ambassador to Russia, was questioned for about a half hour.

The committee then began questioning Scott McLeod, State Department security chief who was nominated as ambassador to Ireland. Some members said they did not expect a vote today.

The group temporarily suspended its questioning of McLeod to hear Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), endorse a third nominee, radio commentator Henry J. Taylor as ambassador to Switzerland.

Utilities Edge Higher On Irregular Market

New York — (U.P.)—Utilities edged higher to a new average spot since March 20, 1931, in an irregular, quieter stock market today.

All of the major groups moved narrowly with prices irregularly lower. Gains of two points or better appeared in Lukens in the steels, Bath Iron Works in the shipbuilders, Skelly in the oils, and Pittston in the coals.

Losses of two or more were set by Addressograph in the office equipments, Du Pont in the chemicals, and National Lead in the paints.

Sinclair Oil made a new gain on favorable earnings. Gulf gained more than a point in the international oils.

Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 494.36, up 0.41; 20 railroads 145.84, off 0.54; 15 utilities 73.01, up 0.05; and 65 stocks 173.14, off 0.04.

Sales today were about 2,200,000 shares compared with 2,250,000 shares Monday.

Portland Girl Tells Of Abduction by Men

Portland — (U.P.) — A young woman told police today she was abducted off a street late Monday and robbed by two men who forced her into their car.

It was the third such incident reported here within a week. Donna L. McClellan, 20, Vancouver, Wash., told officers she had left the home of friends to go to the bus depot about 11:15 p.m. She said a late model convertible pulled up beside her and that a young man got out, grabbed her and carried her to the car.

She said they drove northwest of here while she struggled constantly and screamed whenever she could. She said she was slapped several times. She said they stopped the car at a lonely location and said they were going to assault her. She told police she struggled free and ran into some brush and hid. She said the men, who had robbed her of $15, made no attempt to find her but drove away.

East German Students Flee to West Berlin

Berlin—(U.P.)—An entire class of 12 teen-age East German students fled to West Berlin with their teacher to escape Communist persecution, West Berlin officials said today.

Officials said the youths fled from a school at Rostock last week end after the Communists threatened to discharge them from school for criticizing Soviet interference in Hungary.
