Junior-Senior Banquet Planned Saturday Night

The second annual junior-senior banquet high school students who do not attend proms is being sponsored by several of the Medford churches. It will be held May 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Jackson hotel.

Dinner will be followed by an evening of entertainment.

Theme for the banquet will be kept secret, as is the Medford high school prom each year. The banquet is held each year by the juniors from the sponsoring churches who do not ordinarily go to the proms or whose religious preference prevent them from doing so. It is not in competition with the prom.

For further information and tickets call Jerry Kime at NO 4-2642 or Terry Hughes at SP 2-2292.

Sinfonietta To Be Here

The St. Louis Sinfonietta will present the next program for the Jackson county Civic Music association Friday, May 17, at 8 p.m. at the High school auditorium. This will be the last concert of the 1956-57 season.

Paul Schreiber, founder and musical director of the Sinfonietta, is a violinist. Christine Stavrache is harpist with the group and Kenneth Gordon is concertmaster.

The group was started in 1937 by Mr. Schreiber to bring symphonic music to a wider group of audiences. Miss Stavrache was first harpist with Bucharest Opera House orchestra and was solo harpist of the New York Little Orchestra Society during the past winter season. This is her third year with the Sinfonietta.

Mr. Gordon first played with the NBC Symphony Orchestra conducted by Leopold Stokowski in Carnegie hall. He studied in both the United States and Europe and during his Army service gave more than 210 concerts for UN troops, including a concert before President and Mrs. Synghman Rhee and the entire Korean cabinet. This is his fifth spring tour as concert-master and soloist with the St. Louis Sinfonietta.

Society Plans Pops Concert Here May 26

The Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon will present a "pops" concert, Sunday, May 26, at 3 p.m. at the Medford High school auditorium.

Following the same pattern as the Boston and Portland Pops orchestra concerts, a program of light music of a popular nature will be played.

There will be two intermissions with coffee and soft drinks being served.

R. D. Werner, musical director, has prepared a portion of the program which he calls "Popsorama." It will consist of five well known, short selections. On the program there will be five blank spaces for the titles and composers of these musical selections which will be a quiz for students in the audience.

Students will be asked to fill in the spaces and during the second intermission will drop their programs in a box in the lobby. No programs will be accepted after that time. The programs, to qualify, should be signed by the contestant including address.

Winners will receive a prize which will be announced by the board of directors. It is suggested that students bring pencils to the concert.
