Paulsen-Burns Rites Held In Yreka Methodist Church

Hornbrook—Baskets of white stock and flowering peach-blossoms decorated the altar of the Methodist church in Yreka Saturday afternoon, April 20, when Miss Jo Ann Alice Burns became the bride of William David Paulsen. The two o'clock rites were performed by the Rev. Lewis Manning of the Hornbrook Methodist church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns of Hornbrook and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Paulsen, formerly of Central Point, Ore. Mr. Burns gave his daughter in marriage.

About 100 guests attended. The gown worn by the bride was her traditional "something borrowed." Worn previously by her cousin, Mrs. Leland Stickney of Medford, at her wedding in December 1955, the gown was fashioned with a lace bodice over satin, long sleeves and a full net skirt over satin. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a Juliet cap embroidered with mother of pearl, and her bouquet was of red and white roses.

The honor attendant was Miss Marilyn Cummins, Yreka, a friend of the bride since grammar school days. Her dress was a pastel green sheath with matching nylon net overskirt. Bridesmaids were her sisters, the Misses Arlene and Barbara Burns. Their dresses were styled similar to the maid of honor's, and were pastel yellow and orchid. All three attendants carried bouquets of carnations dyed to match their frocks.

Carl Pickard was best man for Mr. Paulsen, and ushers were Robert Burns, Dunsmuir, Calif., the bride's brother, and Donald Burns, Belmont, Calif., a cousin.

Preceding the ceremony the wedding music and marches were played by Miss Judy Moore of Grenada, Calif., who also played the accompaniment for a duet sung by Mrs. L. C. Walsh and Mrs. Henley Clawson.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Leland Stickney took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Floyd Burns, an aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Al King presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Richard Campbell of Chico, Calif., served coffee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Burns chose a bottle green changeable taffeta dress with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue with white accessories, and both mothers wore corsages of pink camellias. The newlyweds had a short honeymoon and then drove to San Leandro, Calif., where they are living at 143 Avenue. For traveling the bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories.

Both young people graduated from the Hornbrook grammar school and Yreka high school. Mr. Paulsen served three years in the Army in Japan and Korea, receiving his discharge in January of this year, and has since been employed as a repair man for the Western Electric company in San Leandro. The new Mrs. Paulsen attend the Samuel Merritt Schools of Nursing in Oakland, Calif., and later was employed in a clinic in San Mateo. For the past few months she has been on the office staff of the Fruit Growers Supply company in Hills, Calif.

Here for the wedding were Mrs. William Gunkel, San Bernardino, Calif., a cousin of the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spearin and sons Mike and Les, Anderson, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burns and son Scotty, of Belmont, Calif.; Mrs. Leland Stickney, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell, Chico, Calif.; Bill Jeter, Glen Shinar, and the Misses Marilyn and Merna Cummins, all students at Chico State college, and the bridegroom's parents and

Greb-Moore Marriage Rites Held at Presbyterian Church

Gold Hill—Among the largest of early spring weddings, was that of Miss Nadra Lynn Moore and Darrel Greb, held Friday, April 26, at First Presbyterian church, Medford. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Moore, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Greb, Eagle Point.

The Rev. John Reynolds, assistant pastor of First Presbyterian church, Medford read the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening. The reception was held in the church parlor, with about 200 guests attending.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh was at the organ, and soloist was Mrs. Norman C. Gall, Gold Hill. Baskets of white stock, fern, and Easter lilies decorated the church. Large white candelabra held tapers, and satin bows with fern decorated the pews.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported French hand-clipped Chantilly lace over white satin designed by her mother. The scalloped neckline was accented with white seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt was fashioned with a chapel length train with rows of lace and pleated tulle. The finger-tip veil fell from a crown of white seed pearls and sequins on illusion net, and she carried a white orchid with stephanotis on a white Bible.

The bride wore an heirloom pearl necklace belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Bert Stephenson, Grants Pass. They have been worn by every bride in the last generation of the family.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore wore a champagne lace dress over pink taffeta with matching hat and accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice blue lace dress over taffeta with white hat and accessories, and a pink rosebud corsage.

Harold Holloway, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Derwin Mapel, brother-in-law of the bride, Ronald Greb, brother of the bridegroom, and John Greb, cousin of the bridegroom.

Arrangements of lavender lilies and snapdragons decorated the church parlor for the reception. White tulle with carnations and fern encircled the wedding cake, cut by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Bert Albert, Chiloquin, Ore. Miss Rose Drake and Miss Grace Gail, both of Gold Hill, served punch. Miss Marla Abbott, Central Point, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book, and Miss Joanne Ritter, Gold Hill, caught the bridal bouquet.

For traveling the bride wore an ice blue linen sheath and duster with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon touring Oregon and are making their home at 717½ West 14th street, Medford. The bride, a graduate of Crater High school in Central Point, attended Southern Oregon college and is now a secretary for William L. White, public accountant, in Medford. The bridegroom attended Medford High school, and was graduated from Eagle Point High school before attending Southern Oregon college. He is now an employee of First National Bank of Portland, Medford Branch.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Bert Stephenson, grandmother of the bride, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ep-

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Derwin C. Mapel, was matron-of-honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of coral taffeta with a coral lace picture hat and gloves and matching slippers. She carried a cascade of coral carnations interlaced with white tulle and ribbon.

Bridesmaids and matrons were Mrs. Harold Holloway, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Fred Fletcher, cousin of the bride, and Miss Joanne Ritter. Their ballerina length dresses were of Nile green taffeta and were worn with Nile green lace picture hats and gloves. They carried bouquets of shattered carnations with tulle and satin ribbon which matched the dresses.

The flowergirl, Dimpy Greb, cousin of the bridegroom, wore a ballerina length frock of coral taffeta with matching lace and tulle hat, designed like the bridesmaid's dresses. She scattered petals from a white lace basket.

Bobby and Becky Byers were ring-bearers. Becky wore a Nile green net and taffeta dress with matching bonnet and slippers, and a wristlet of coral carnations.

Candlelighters were Susan Rosecrans, Gold Hill, and Steve Mapel, nephew of the bride. Susan's Nile green taffeta dress was fashioned like the bridesmaid dresses, and was worn with matching slippers and a coral carnation wristlet.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore wore a champagne lace dress over pink taffeta with matching hat and accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice blue lace dress over taffeta with white hat and accessories, and a pink rosebud corsage.

Drive Set By League

About 20 members of the Medford League of Women Voters will take part in the group's annual finance drive Monday, according to Mrs. Robert Hiatt, outgoing president.

Solicitors will contact approximately 80 persons who have indicated interest in league activity and in good government.

The one-day drive also is used as a means of discussing League of Women Voters' purpose and accomplishments with the public and to determine views of non-members concerning the group's work, she said.

The $500 goal of the drive will supplement the income from membership dues and member contributions to carry out the league's work for better government and political responsibility.

Leagues throughout the nation seek such support from men and women outside the membership who can be brought to appreciate the group's purpose and current value, Mrs. Hiatt added.

To Elect

Officers will be elected at the Wednesday, May 8, meeting of the Roxy Ann Gardners at the home of Mrs. Chandler Drew of 3528 Delta Waters road at 1 p.m. Mrs. Burle Griffin will assist the hostess.
