Women golfers from southern Oregon and northern California cities attended a guest day tournament and luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club Thursday. Among the northern California guests were (left to right at top) Mrs. Everett Hunt, Arcata; Mrs. Earl Cook, Mrs. W. A. Sparber, Mrs. Edward Kovacovich and Mrs. James Cunningham, Eureka, and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Arcata. The women, who played in alternate rain and sunshine, had changed from golfing shoes when the picture was taken. Pictured at the score table are (left to right) Mrs. R. B. Knight, president of Women's Golf association of the club, Mrs. Henry R. Welch, Crescent City, Mrs. Fred Conrad and Mrs. Robert Lockwood, tournament chairmen.

Carlile-Ryn Marriage Rites Held at First Church of God

An Easter wedding was held April 21 for Miss Doris Marie Ryn and Darrell Lee Carlile at the First Church of God in Medford. The Rev. Darold H. Jones officiated at the three o'clock afternoon double-ring ceremony attended by 130 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert P. Ryn of 912 Narregan avenue. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Carlile of Chino, Calif. For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length dress of white net and lace fashioned with sweetheart neckline and matching bolero. Her fingertip length veil was held by a lace headband and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her grandfather, Clarence Applegate of Denver, Colo.

Miss Betty Hershiser was honor attendant with Miss Sharon Fox, a cousin of the bride from Denver, and Miss Sandra Maxon as bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns of blue net and carried bouquets of lilies of the valley and bleeding hearts. Little Sherri Kimmel of Eagle Point was flower girl and Otto Ryn, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Don Guyer served as best man while David and Paul Ryn, brothers of the bride, seated the guests. Miss Leola Miller played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Darold Jones, soloist.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church. Miss Jean Simpson cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Leola McCullough and Miss Beverly Sheffer poured the punch. Miss Barbara McCormick was in charge of the guest book. Robert Martin and Marvin Guyer seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ryn chose a blue and white nylon print dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of lilies of the valley and bleeding hearts. For her traveling attire the bride wore a green knit dress. The newlyweds took a wedding trip to Portland.

The bride is a student at Medford High school and will make her home with her parents until June. The bridegroom attended

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Lee Carlile were married April 21 at First Church of God, Medford. The bride is the former Doris Marie Ryn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert P. Ryn, 912 Narregan avenue.

Elks to Hold Inaugural Ball

The annual Elks Inaugural ball will be held Saturday, May 11, at the Medford Elks temple starting at 10 p.m. and continuing until 2 a.m. Music will be by the Starlighters of Klamath Falls.

Informal dress will be suitable for the dance. Dancing will be in the lodge hall, and a buffet supper will be served at midnight in the party lounge.

New officers of the lodge will be introduced at the dance. They include: Galen R. Knox, exalted ruler; Donald D. Davis, esteemed leading knight; Budd W. Gail, esteemed loyal knight; Joe Hosick, esteemed lecturing knight; Ernest L. Scott, secretary; Allan F. Perry, treasurer; William Ruck, esquire; Jack Six, assistant esquire; George W. Howard, tiler; Murray Dumas, chaplain; Richard G. Phair, inner guard; Rampton T. Barlow, organist; and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, chairman Lady Elks.

Trustees of the local lodge include F. H. Van Pelt, Claude Holmes, Morris B. Leonard, L. G. Miles, V. W. Kengla, and Dick Woodcock, alternate delegate.

Townsend Club Council Session Held Here Today

Delegates representing all Oregon Townsend club councils will meet at Carpenters Hall, 123 1/2 West Main st., today at 10 a.m.

Ed Cofer is chairman of the fourth district councils. After the business session, a potluck luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m.

Among clubs to be represented are Portland, Lebanon, Corvallis, Springfield, Cottage Grove, North Bend, Coos Bay and Salem.

Finis L. Snodgrass, state club representative, will speak after luncheon and a question and answer period will be held. The session will be open to the public.

At last Wednesday's auxiliary meeting, Mrs. Enos Naffziger presided. Thirty-two club members and four visitors were present.

Comments were made on provisions of the new "pay as you go" national insurance bill. The closing program featured the educated dancing Pomeranian canine named "Laurie," owned by Mrs. Adeline Wheldin. The dog, dressed in costume and bonnet, kept time with a tune from a small Swiss music box. Kneeling before small lighted candles, the dog bowed its head in silent prayer.

Son Here

Harold G. Wilson is the house guest of his mother, Mrs. Helen A. Wilson, 621 South Holly street. Mr. Wilson is en route to attend a conference in Los Angeles as a representative of the engineering department of Shell Oil company. He resides with his wife and four children in Anacortes, Wash.

Book Review Group Plans Last Session

The last monthly meeting of the season for the Afternoon Book Review group of the American Association of University Women will be held Wednesday, May 8, at the home of Mrs. Neil Davidson of 1703 Lenora drive. Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore will present the program for the afternoon with Mrs. Orrin Brown assisting Mrs. Davidson.

Happy Memories is Theme Of Mother-Daughter Banquet

The annual mother and daughter banquet, to be held in the First Methodist church Tuesday, May 7, at 6:30 p.m., will portray the theme "Happy Memories" through a display of wedding pictures and a fashion show of wedding gowns.

Mrs. Carol Adams, in charge of the wedding picture display, has two groups covering three generations. The picture of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram L. Baker, married in 1868, will be shown with that of her daughter, Mrs. John A. Bloomfield, married in 1913, and her granddaughter, Mrs. S. R. Bailey, married in 1945.

Mrs. George Lawless will bring the wedding picture of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Fisher, married in 1910, and their 50th wedding anniversary picture. Mrs. Lawless will also show pictures taken at the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Igo.

On display will be the wedding pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Brood, married in 1912, and that of their daughter, Mrs. William Wilson, married in 1952. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, married in 1893, will present the picture of their wedding and that of their daughter, Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Gold Hill, who was married in 1933. The picture of the Wilson's 60th wedding anniversary will be shown.

Mrs. Roy Gilbertson will model the cotton lawn wedding gown made by her grandmother for her mother's wedding in 1905 in LaSueur, Minn. Mrs. Gilbertson wore the same gown for her own wedding in the same town in 1940. The gown now belongs to the oldest granddaughter, Gretchen Merten. Mrs. Gilbertson will wear jewels which belonged to her grandmother.

Mrs. John Kent will model the 65-year-old wedding gown belonging to Mrs. K. A. Hayes, and Mrs. Ben Greaser will show the 56-year-old gown worn by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank A. Greaser, at her wedding.

Background music for the evening will be presented by Miss Nancy Walstead, violinist, accompanied by Miss Karen Paschke at the piano. Special music will be given by the girls trio, Miss Rosemary Doolen, Miss Sue Donna Doolen and Miss Karen Sloniger.

Those desiring reservations for the banquet are asked to call the office of the First Methodist church Monday.
