

Know what it means to feel

FREE!

Goodness only knows what's been holding you back from discovering that marvelous sense of freedom that comes from using Tampax. Once you try Tampax, you'll wonder how you ever did without it.

You feel so sure of yourself on "those days"...so comfortable, relaxed, truly poised...secure in the knowledge that with Tampax® internal sanitary protection, nothing can show and no one can know. There's not a chance in the world of odor forming. There's nothing to chafe and bind. You feel so flower-fresh and free—why, you aren't even aware you're wearing it! And, disposal's no problem with Tampax, either.

Ask any Tampax user what it was like the first time she tried it. She'll tell you—it's like stepping out of darkness into the light! You owe it to yourself to give Tampax a trial. Millions of women have already tried it—and they love it. You'll love it, too. Ask for it wherever drug products are sold. Your choice of 3 absorbencies: Regular, Super, Junior. Tampax Incorporated, Palmer, Mass.

FASHIONS

Graduation Glamour in Nylon

by Allyn Rice

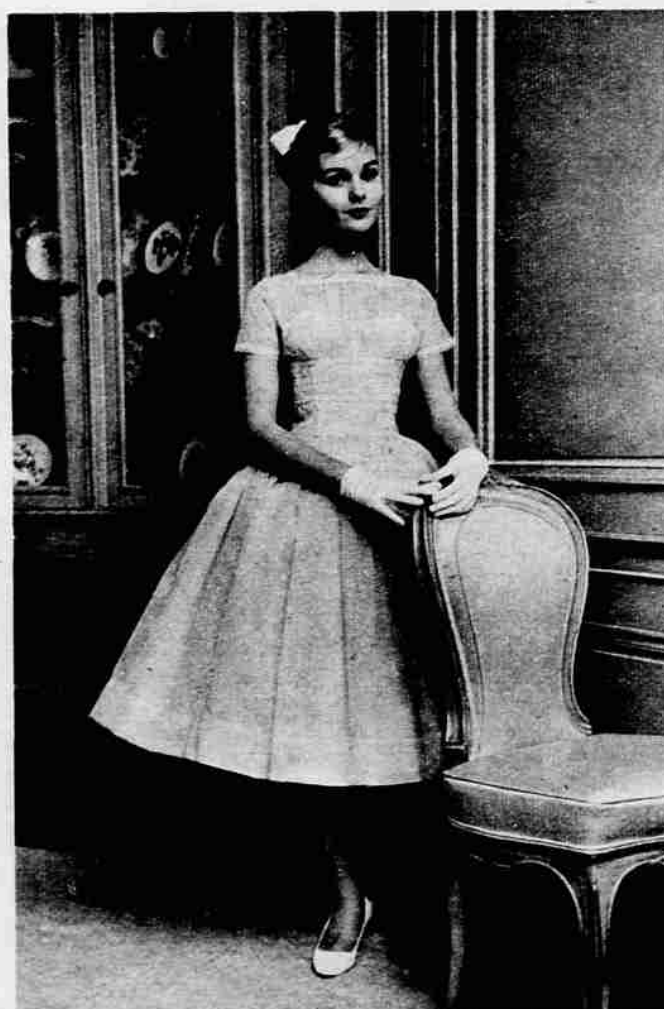

NYLON is a big hit with the graduating miss. She's especially taken with simply styled organdy sheers and filmy chiffons that stay fresh and crisp all through G-day, and afterward adapt to her dating calendar. These charming frocks are most likely to be seen in white, but also appear in pastels to bring soft contrast to the graduation scene.

Interiors: Leona Kahn
Shoes: Pappagallo

Photographed for Family Weekly
by Henri Janson.

The grade-schooler graduates in a lovely nylon dress by Gail Berk. Subteen sizes 6 to 14; about $30.

Striking a demure pose, the sweet girl graduate presents a pretty picture in her dotted nylon sheer with Empire lines and a lacy midriff. This Semiteen creation has a matching nylon-taffeta petticoat. Subteen sizes 6 to 14; about $13.

High school loses a beauty when this vision in nylon chiffon wins her diploma. The formal-length David Morris gown has a "flowing sash" effect in back, and a very full skirt that floats out over hoops. Junior sizes 7-15; about $40.