

Redlegs, Williams Continue Red Hot

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

That familiar fire engine color marked the "hottest" players in the majors today as the Cincinnati Redlegs ran their victory streak to eight games and Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox sent his batting average soaring to .453.

The Redlegs looked like the best of the season when they lost six straight games to the Milwaukee Braves. But now they're traveling like an Ohio river boat passing Cincinnati at floodtide and whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers Tuesday night.

Oregon State Nips Huskies

Corvallis—(U.P.)—Oregon State defeated the University of Washington here 4-3 Tuesday on a bases-loaded walk by Husky pitcher Monte Geiger in the 11th inning in Northern division college baseball.

Washington, at bat in the ninth inning, tied the score 3-3 when George Kristonis, Husky rightfielder, tripled and scored on Jack Brady's single.

Oregon State won in the 11th when Warren Harle scored after Geiger walked Twink Pederson with the bases loaded.

Syl Johnson went all the way for the Beavers. Geiger was the loser for Washington.

Oregon State now has a 5-2 record.

Each of PCL Tussles Decided by One Tally

The Pacific Coast league didn't do a very good job of getting the fans out to the parks Tuesday night, but came up with a near perfect way of keeping them there.

Only 8,740 fans turned out for the four contests but all of them should have been still there when the games were over. All four games were decided by a single run and in every case the outcome was in doubt until the final minute.

Sacramento and Hollywood kept them there the longest, playing 14 innings before the Stars could eke out a 5-4 decision. Vancouver gave away a big lead.

ANGRY—San Francisco's Harvie Ward, the nation's leading amateur golfer, reads newspaper account of his alleged violation of amateur status for accepting an expense check for $11,000 from his employer, Ed Lowery, wealthy auto dealer.

Ward, on arrival home in San Francisco from Colonial Open in Fort Worth, Tex., was "surprised and angry" and vehemently denied that he had accepted the under-the-table expense money.

The Phillies chased Spahn after four innings by hammering him for seven hits and five runs. Roberts won his second after losing three.

The Club-Pirate game lasted 4 hours and 17 minutes. It was the fourth consecutive time a night game went into extra innings at Forbes Field and Pittsburgh lost all of them. Long and Lee Walls, who were traded to the Cubs last week by the Pirates, were key figures in the Chicago triumph.

Catcher Ray Katt drove in three runs to provide the punch behind Worthington's relief pitching for the Giants against the Cardinals.

MOUNTIES WIN
La Grande—(U.P.)—Eastern Oregon college defeated Boise Junior college 7-6 in a 16-inning non-conference baseball game here yesterday.

to San Francisco and then fell just short of catching the Seals, losing 9-8.

League leading Los Angeles got past Portland 3-2 and San Diego edged Seattle by the same 3-2 count.

Winning Run Forced
Relief hurler Cal Greene walked Bill Causion with the bases loaded in the bottom of the 14th to force in the winning run for Hollywood. Hollywood had to come from behind to tie it in the sixth, when Ben Wade took over on the mound and held the Solons scoreless the rest of the way.

Al Heist had a home run for the Solons with none on.

Reliever Leo Kiely got the win for San Francisco over Vancouver. The Seals jumped off to a 6-0 lead and then saw the Mounties hack away at it. The Mounties never could quite catch up however and starter Mey Held got the loss. Joe Frazier, with a double, triple and home run, drove in five Mountie runs.

Willis Nipped a Steal
Mudcat Grant came to the relief of Pete Mesa of San Diego in the bottom of the ninth and saved it for him with one pitch. Ray Orteg had tripled and Maury Willis singled for one Seattle run. Grant made one pitch to Leo Righetti and catcher Al Jones fired to second base to nip Willis in an attempted steal for the third out.

Portland also threatened to take the game away from Los Angeles in the bottom of the ninth even though Dick Hanlon pitched a three-hitter. One of the hits was a two-run homer by Jack Littrell in the fifth and another was a double by Solly Drake in the ninth.

However, with Drake on second and one out, Louis Marquez lined out to shortstop Wally Lambers, who got Drake at second to end the contest.

Net result of the one-run victories was to boost the lead of Los Angeles to two full games over second place Hollywood.

DUCK BASEBALLERS Take To Road
Eugene—(U.P.)—Oregon's baseball team, with a firm grip on first place in the Northern division race, leaves here tonight for a six-game invasion of Idaho and Washington.

Oregon meets Washington State at Pullman Friday and Saturday and Idaho next Monday and Tuesday. The Ducks wind up the trip with a two-game series against Washington next Thursday and Friday.

KLU SILENT
Cincinnati—(U.P.)—Ted Kluszewski had no comment today about when doctors would operate to correct a crippling back ailment that may keep him out of the Cincinnati lineup for the rest of the season. The 237-pound slugger checked out of the hospital Tuesday, where he underwent a final series of tests to determine the cause and extent of his ailment.

KELL OUT SOON
Detroit—(U.P.)—Baltimore Orioles third baseman George Kell, who was struck on the head by a pitched ball Monday, is expected to leave the hospital within a couple of days. Kell, who was hit by a pitch thrown by Tigers' pitcher Steve Grosek, suffered a mild concussion and is expected to be sidelined for a short time.

LINFIELD VICTOR
Monmouth—(U.P.)—Linfield defeated Oregon college 6-1 in a non-conference baseball game Tuesday to snap the Wolves' winning streak at six straight. Don Schaeffer held OOI to six hits.

Lavagetto New Pilot Of Washington Club

Detroit—(U.P.)—Charley Dressen showed no bitterness as he watched his former lieutenant, Cookie Lavagetto, run his ball club—the Washington Senators.

Cookie didn't have any better luck than Dressen and the Nats lost, 5-3, to the Detroit Tigers Tuesday.

"It sure looks different from up here," Dressen said as he viewed Briggs stadium from the third deck press box.

Dressen talked quietly but showed a trace of mist in his eyes. His face is ruddy from years of standing on dugout steps—usually watching a more potent ball club than the punch-less Senators.

"I still don't know whether I'll take the front office job," Dressen said only a few hours after President Calvin Griffith had fired him as manager in an attempt to shake the club out of its eight-game losing streak.

Not So Chipper
"I thought we'd win more ball games this year," Charley said. But it wasn't the chipper Charley who watched his Brooklyn Dodgers tie for the National league pennant in 1952, and win it outright in 1953 and 1954.

Dressen got into the major league managerial ranks with the Cincinnati Reds in 1934. He took the last place Reds up to fifth place when he was relieved after the 1937 season. Two years later, the team Chuck built won the first of its two straight pennants.

Then he went to the Dodgers, Lavagetto's team, as a coach. Dressen went to the Yankees as a coach for Bucky Harris in 1947 and 1948. Then he went to Oakland of the Pacific Coast League and won a pennant with the Oaks in 1950 before returning as Dodger manager.

Chuck was replaced at Brooklyn by Walt Alston when he
