

Herb Score Suffers Severe Injury to Eye

Cleveland—(U.P.)—Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' "million dollar" pitcher, was "resting comfortably" in Lakeside hospital today with a severe eye injury that doctors fear may have damaged his sight.

The brilliant, 23-year-old southpaw was struck in the right eye by a line drive off the bat of Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees in the first inning of a game Tuesday night at Municipal stadium. The blow also fractured Score's nose.

A 20-game winner with the Indians last season and the leading strikeout artist in the major leagues for the past two years, Score was reported in "satisfactory" condition early this morning.

"There has been severe hemorrhaging of the eye, but the exact nature of the injury will not be determined for a few days," said Dr. C. W. Thomas, a Cleveland eye specialist, who was called in to examine Score by Dr. Don Kelly, the Indians' team physician.

Kelly said Score "had some light perception" when he examined the tall left-hander and admitted, "that's encouraging."

After being struck, Score fell heavily to the ground with his hands clasped over his face. Blood streamed from his nose and mouth, but he did not lose consciousness. He was removed from the field on a stretcher and later was taken to the hospital.

Red Raiders Gain Fourth Triumph Over Oregon Tech

Ashland — Southern Oregon college Red Raiders made it four victories this season over the Oregon Technical institute baseball nine with a 6 to 3 verdict here yesterday.

The Raiders have taken three league games from the Owls in their clean sweep.

The Ashland collegians opened the Tuesday action with a bang, getting three markers in the first inning. Ted Landers got on base on an error and Ron Owings followed with a screaming home run. Jim McAbee made it to second base on an OTI overthrow and a single by Willie Jones got him home.

Two SOC runs crossed the plate in the fourth inning. Allan Kimuri, who had reached first on a fielder's option, tallied on a sizzling triple by Ted Landers. Ned Landers singled sharply to drive his brother home. Raiders run making was wrapped up in the eighth panel when Owings singled and made it to the platter on an OTI miscue.

Owls Threaten
The Owls from OTI threatened only twice in the ball game although they whacked the ball at a much sharper clip than in previous games. In the second inning Bob Keppinger came up with two down to smash a solo home run into right field. The boys from Ore-Tech threatened to make it tough again in the seventh. They drew a walk and backed it up with four safeties to score twice.

Dave D'Olive started on the mound for the Red Raiders and struck out three, while giving up four hits and one walk. Ray Theiss took over the hurling duties in the fifth inning, and allowed six hits, four walks, and fanned three. The SOC mittmen backed their pitchers with some sharp defensive play including a double play in the first inning.

Chuck Tykenson went the distance for the Owls, giving up six hits and three walks while striking eight. Bob Goodell was behind the plate for the Owls.

Owings Leads
Owings led the Red Raiders at the plate with two for four including the run rour tripper. Jones also had two for four and Ted and Ned Landers split the other two SOC hits.

OTI picked up three hits in four times up from Jack Fingers. Stan Phelps had three for five and Bill Lekberg had two. Coach Ted Schopf and his Red Raiders from Southern Oregon college will travel to La Grande Friday to complete the 1957 season with a three game series against the Mountaineers of Eastern Oregon college. Wins for the Red Raiders at Eastern Oregon will cinch second place in the Oregon Collegiate conference.

Carmen Basilio Managers Irked By Sugar Ray

Portland — (U.P.) — Carmen Basilio's managers said today Sugar Ray Robinson had better stop being coy about a July fight between the two world champions or what could be one of the biggest box office attractions in the years might never come off.

The welterweight champion and his co-managers, Joe Netro and John DeJohn, in Oregon for a series of exhibitions, were irked by statements in Chicago papers that Sugar Ray would name his own date for meeting Basilio for Robinson's middleweight crown.

Want July Bout

"We want to fight Robinson in July and Jim Norris of the International Boxing club wants to promote it then in Yankee stadium," Netro said.

He waved a newspaper clipping which quoted one of Robinson's managers as saying a September fight would be a bigger draw.

"We're not going to be dominated by Robinson," said Netro. "We don't need Robinson; he needs us."

Oregon Open Golf Headed By Congdon

Portland—(U.P.)—Chuck Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., held a two-stroke lead today as 60 low qualifiers teed off for a marathon 36-hole final round of the Oregon Open golf tournament.

Congdon, a familiar name among Northwest golf tournament champions, shot a 69 Tuesday for a 36-hole total of 139, two strokes better than Rocky Eliason, another Tacoma, and Bob Duden, ex-Portland, now living in Redondo Beach, Calif. Duden and Eliason had 71s Tuesday.

Bill Mawhinny of Vancouver, B.C., who led after the first day of play with a 68, shot a 74 Tuesday, good enough for fourth place at 142.

Sid Harmon, Yakima, Wash., was fifth with 143 while two amateurs, Bob Prall of Salem and Joe Mance of Seattle were one stroke back of Harmon at 144.

It took a score of 155 or better to qualify for the final round.

Jacksonville Nips Eagles

Jacksonville — Jacksonville high pitcher Clyde Smith hammered a three-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning here yesterday to win his own game against the Eagle Point baseball crew. Final score was 8 to 6.

Smith allowed the Eagles 11 hits and the Jacksonville cause was hurt somewhat by errors but the hurler and John Winingham kept the Redskins in the scrap with their heavy blasting. Slapping a single, a triple and homer in five times up, Smith drove in five runs. Winingham hit a double and triple in four batting turns.

Errol Tresham who homered, Dennis Boren who knocked a double and three baser, and Larry Clement who rapped three singles, were the big batting guns for EP. Clement hit three for five and Tresham and Boren two for five.

Smith's game winning blast followed bases on balls to Dennis Caird and Gary Silva. Eagle Point had gone ahead 6 to 5 in the top of the ninth frame on Tresham's single and two errors.

The Eagles scored three markers in the opening stanza and headed 5 to 1 after 5½ innings. Jacksonville caught up in the bottom of the fifth. The game had been scheduled for seven innings.

Kiwanis Club To Help at Track Meet

Members of Medford Kiwanis club will assist local school officials with the running of the District 6 A-1 track meet on Saturday.

The event will be held at the senior high stadium here. Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Ashland, Crater and Medford athletes will be rivals. Those who gain the first two places in each event will earn berths in the state meet at Corvallis.

Preliminaries in the dashes and hurdles and prelims and finals for shotput, broad jump, and javelin are billed for morning and the pole vault, high jump and race finals will be afternoon events.

The morning action opens at 10 o'clock and the afternoon contests at 1:30 o'clock.

Nino Valdez, Holman Mix

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — A couple of "old pros" of the fight game, Nino Valdez and Johnny Holman, collide here tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder and it may be the cross-roads for them both.

Valdez, installed as a 16-5 favorite, is 32 years old and is ranked ninth nationally. But he has been boxing for 15 years and he needs this win to keep his place among the challengers for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight crown.

The bulky Cuban has won six in a row now, including four straight knock-outs in Europe. But the last time he was on a national TV show he was knocked out by Eddie Machen, the No. 2 ranking heavyweight—but he was impressive in his last outing here when he defeated the South African giant, Ewart Potgieter.

Talent Bills Boxing Card

Talent Youth center will present another boxing show, on Saturday evening, May 11, in the new Talent High school gym. A 15-bout fight card is slated with boys of the Talent club again opposing boxers from the Medford Police Athletic league coached by Jim Zack.

Don Cain, state police officer, and Ed Benkowski, coaching the Talent boys, say they are pleased with the progress of their boys since the last show. They hope to see them cop most of the matches this time.

This may be the last amateur show of this season held in this area.

The aim of these clubs is to revive and stimulate interest in amateur boxing in Southern Oregon. Any profits that might be derived from the promotion of boxing matches will go into the purchasing of additional and newer equipment and in the expansion of the club's programs. It will also provide a recreational center available without charge to interested boys and young men.

Casualties Still Plague Giants

New York — (U.P.) — The New York Giants, beset by injuries since the start of spring training, today were confronted with two more casualties.

Center fielder Willie Mays, bothered by a persistent virus attack, was taken to a hospital Tuesday for a complete check-up, while right fielder Don Mueller was sidelined with a groin injury.

Mueller was expected to return to the lineup for today's game against the St. Louis Cardinals, but Mays probably will have to remain in the hospital at least until the week end series against the Dodgers.

Most of Leading Hardtop Drivers Return For 1957

At least nine of the 10 top drivers of last season are expected to contend for 1957 honors in hardtop auto racing at Valley View speedway near Ashland.

Opening program of the campaign is set for this Saturday night, May 11, with time trials at 7 p.m. and the first race at 8 p.m.

Heading the list of the 1955 top racers who are slated to return is, of course, Crockett Hunter, who was the track champion with 409 points.

The other leading drivers were Wayne Lemley 336, Bob Wilcox 289, Bob Jenkins 280, Johnny Jones 250, Rusty Phillips 236, Lou Kurz 202, Fred Arnberg 190, Allen Bousman 189, Wayman Core 171, Neil Woodbridge 168 and Bernie Miller 151. It is anticipated that all but Core will be on hand this season.

The foregoing racers may be using their same numbers this summer since that privilege is reserved to the top 10.

Colley Starter
Track Manager Phil Bryant has reported that J. D. (Jack) Colley will be starter this season. Gerald Pettit will be timer and Ralph McGuire scorer. Announcer will be Gregg MacDougall.

There'll be a new look about

Grants Pass JV Defeats Chiefs

Rogue River — Grants Pass high junior varsity tipped Rogue River varsity 10 to 7 in an extra-inning baseball game here yesterday. The Cavemen got three runs on two hits, a walk and an error in the ninth canto. Score was knotted at 7-all after the seven regulation stanzas.

PIONEERS BEAT PSC
Portland — (U.P.) — Lewis and Clark made 10 hits pay off for 15 runs Tuesday as the Pioneers defeated Portland State 15-7 in a non-conference baseball game.

BOWLING
