Posters Offer $50 Reward for Poisoners

A number of posters offering a $50 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of dog poisoners were to be posted in an east Medford neighborhood this week.

The posters, obtained from Dog World magazine which makes the reward offer, were received by Mrs. Edward Sickles, 2608 East Jackson dr., owner of one of four dogs which were poisoned last month in a one-block radius in the vicinity of Jackson st. and Eastover dr.

Police are still working on leads in connection with the poisoning. Penalties for the crime of animal poisoning range up to three years in the state penitentiary, or a fine of up to $1,000, or both. The poster states that the $50 reward will be paid promptly on presentation of satisfactory proof that the claimant was the first and instrumental in securing arrest and conviction of the poisoner.

Obituaries

LLOYD IRA STIMSON
Ashland—Lloyd Ira Stimson, 60, of 106 Walker ave., Ashland, died at his home May 7 after a brief illness.

Mr. Stimson was born Jan. 12, 1897, on the old Stimson homestead seven miles east of Medford. He married the former Miss Ethel Rummel in Medford in 1921 and later that year moved to Ashland. They made their home here until 1927 when they returned to Medford. They moved back to Ashland in 1941.

He was employed by the Southern Pacific railroad as a car inspector where he worked up to a few hours prior to his death.

He is a member of Trinity Episcopal church in Ashland and the Masonic lodge of Central Point.

Mr. Simpson is survived by his wife, two daughters, Yvonna Stimson and Mrs. Virginia Jones, both of Ashland; four sisters, Mrs. Lucy Grissom, Mrs. Julia Grissom, both of Central Point, Mrs. Myrtle Nelson, of Medford, and Mrs. Minnie Grissom, of Fairfield, Idaho. Two brothers, Steve and Fred Stimson, preceded him in death. Funeral services will be held Friday, May 10, at 3 p.m. in Litwiler's Mountain View chapel in Ashland with the Central Point Masonic lodge in charge of the service. The Rev. John Thompson of the Trinity Episcopal church will officiate. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

ARCHIE A. BUTLER
Archie A. Butler, 60, of Camp White, died this morning at the VA Domiciliary, Conger-Morris Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

MRS. IMOGENE S. BAKER
Funeral services for Mrs. Imogene Baker, 59, formerly of Medford, who died Monday at her home in LaCanada, Calif., will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Lamb Funeral home in Pasadena, Calif. Interment will be in North Hollywood.

Mrs. Baker was born Nov. 7, 1897, in Arabela, Mo. She was married to Warren Baker in 1952. She lived in Medford several years and moved about five years ago. Survivors include her husband, Clarence L. Smith, Medford, and Eugene Smith, San Diego, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Evelyn Reid, Grants Pass, and one granddaughter.

Funeral Services Will Be Thursday For Mr. Preston

Funeral services for Lafayette Preston, 100, of Butte Falls, will be held at Per Funeral home at 1 p.m. Thursday. The Rev. John H. Fuiten of Butte Falls will officiate. Interment will be at the Mt. View cemetery, Ashland.

Mr. Preston was born in Three Rivers, Mich., May 30, 1856. His parents were Fidelia Daley and Jackson Monroe Preston. When he was eight years old, the family moved to Butler county, Nebraska, where he lived for nine years.

At the age of 17 he returned to Michigan, where he remained for three years. At that time he returned to Nebraska, and four years later, homesteaded a place in Brown county, Nebraska. He farmed the land and after 12 years, he married Lydia Burgett in 1892. The couple had five children, one of whom died at the age of two.

In 1900 the Preston family moved to Cottonwood, Shasta county, Calif., where he farmed for seven years.

In 1907 the family moved to Weston, Ore. They lived there for two years, then moved to LaGrande, Ore. The family moved from LaGrande to Baker county in 1915, where they lived until Mrs. Preston's death in 1928.

Since then, Mr. Preston has divided his time among his children. He has spent several of his recent years with his daughter, Mrs. Mina Wright, in Butte Falls. Other survivors include one son, Benjamin Preston, of Geber, Calif., and two other daughters, Mrs. Martha Jensen, Enumac, Wash., and Mrs. Ida Tyrell, Stockton, Calif., 17 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren. Pall-bearers will be Frank Edmundson, Albert Hoffmann, Robert McCabe, Ed Wolf, Emmett Gott, and Elmer Letherman.
