Ezio Pinza Funeral Services Saturday

New York — (U.P.) — A funeral service will be held here Saturday for Ezio Pinza, operatic and musical comedy star, who died Thursday at the age of 64.
 Canon Edward N. West will officiate at the service at 11 a.m. (EST) at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Eleanor Steber, a Metropolitan Opera Co. soprano and personal friend of Pinza, will sing "Ave Maria" from Verdi's "Otello," one of the famed basso's favorite selections. The Episcopal cathedral's full choir of 40 boys and 27 men also will participate in the service. Burial will be in Putnam cemetery in Greenwich, Conn.

"The foundation is privileged to salute on this occasion the Army's recognition of the fact when evaluating this marvel of human engineering that, in the final analysis, nothing can replace a well cared for pair of feet."

Chiropodists Honor Infantryman's Feet

Washington — (U.P.) — Eight thousand chiropodists today honored the U.S. infantryman's tired aching feet.
 Officials of the American Foot Health Foundation called at the Pentagon to present the Army with the foundation's annual foot health award — a winged bronze foot.
 Embellished across the almost life-size foot were the words: "Honoring the American infantryman for distinguishing the human foot as man's most indispensable form of locomotion."

An evangelistic mission to New York City by the Rev. Billy Graham is imminent. Of course, New York, which has a higher percentage of regular churchgoers than any other city in the country, is in no great need for reforming. This is especially true of the Borough of Brooklyn which was known for years as "The City of Churches" and is the only major community in the United States that has an annual Sunday School Parade. However, the Rev. Graham is a picturesque personality and his visit to the Big Town should be interesting. The most spectacular evangelistic mission to New York was that of Alexander Dowie, over 50 years ago. Dowie and 3,000 of his followers from Zion City, Ill., arrived on eight special trains. Dowie took over Madison Square Garden. His mission was exciting but not successful from an evangelistic viewpoint. Among the exciting incidents was when Carry Nation, the fiery feminine reformer, invaded Madison Square Garden uninvited and challenged Dowie to a debate. Dowie ordered that Carry be thrown out. And she was.

How clever is your wife as a culinary artist? How is she on desserts? Can she make a Houston Pecan Whisky Pie? If not, tell her the recipe is in a cook book titled "A Taste of Texas" ... Over 2,000 years ago in 310 B.C., Menander said, "A chaste woman ought not to dye her hair yellow." Just shows how long people have been picking on the synthetic blondes, poor girls.

Horses and Women
 Women are most intensely affectionate between the ages of 31 and 40. So says a contemporary expert on the subject of love. Is that news? Benjamin Franklin made a similar statement over a 100 years ago in a letter of advice written to a young man.

Romance
 What is your selection for the most romantic day of the year on which to be married? How about the most romantic place? And what about the honeymoon? My choice is for a wedding on St. Valentine's Day at the Little Church Around the Corner, Manhattan, with the honeymoon in Paris.
