

JACKSONVILLE 90th Birthday Observed

By MRS. C. S. HOSKINS

Jacksonville — The Women's Council of the Assembly of God church in Jacksonville honored "Grandma" Lola McIntire with a birthday party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Sawyer, on May 6. It was Mrs. McIntire's 90th birthday.

Guests present were Mesdames J. M. Patterson, W. C. Kimbal, St. Johnson, Earl Chester, Harry Belau, Harold Stagg, Lee Maddox, Milton James, Lora Young, Minnie Eva Whitney, Jim Hicks, the Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Turnbull, Mrs. Rawls of Central Point. "Grandma" has lived in this vicinity for over 60 years. Refreshments of cake, jello, whipped cream and coffee were served.

Other relatives arriving over the weekend to greet her on her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wells and son, Gordon of Salem, Ore.

Vacation Bible school will begin at the Assembly of God church on Monday June 3, and will continue through June 14. Commencement will be held on the night of June 14. Children from the ages of 4 to 14 are invited to attend. The theme of the course for this year is "The Christian Way of Life."

Evangelist Don Gossett and family held special meetings at the Assembly church beginning last Tuesday and ending Sunday. The Rev. Gossett has held many meetings throughout the state of Oregon recently.

Last weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Arnold of Jacksonville Seed and Feed were Mrs. Arnold's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harrington of Topeka, Kan., and Mrs. Arnold's sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingersole of Watsonville, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bernard of Bend, Ore., were visited 10 days at the home of Mrs. Bernard's sister Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wall recently. While here, the Bernards visited other friends and relatives in the valley, having been former residents in this area. After leaving here they were going to Tygh Valley, Ore., to attend an annual family reunion on Mother's Day.

While the Bernards were here Mr. and Mrs. Wall entertained them with a family dinner. Also present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Lionel (Tom) Wall, a 1933 graduate of Jacksonville High school. Wall is now out of the service and was married on March 2. He and his wife are making their home in Medford. He is the son of Edwin Wall.

Emil (Dad) Rosenau, after being hospitalized several months in Medford, is now in Jacksonville again at the Mitchell Sanitarium and is anxious to see all his old friends.

Mark Smith of Medford recently recovered from a heart attack, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Pearl Whitney.

Miss Thelma Wall and Edna Welch were co-hostesses for a household shower given on April 25 for their classmate, Pat Moore, a senior at Jacksonville High school. Pat was married in April to Ron Lucier of Talent, Ore.

The shower was given in the home economics room at the high school. Guests present were 40 junior and senior girls, the women's faculty of the high school and Mesdames Carl Totman and Leroy Mauroni. Refreshments were served and the gifts presented to the bride. After graduation the couple will reside in Happy Camp, Calif.

Mrs. Mellissa Davis, long-time resident of the Sterling and Jacksonville district died Thursday night at the Millidge Convalescent home in Medford. Funeral services are pending.

Frank Carter, Jacksonville Police Chief, has announced that an adult 9-week Red Cross first aid course will begin here on Tuesday evenings, starting May 28 from 8 p.m. until 10 p.m. A Red Cross instructor will conduct the classes. The place to meet has not yet been determined, but will be announced soon. Anyone interested in taking the course, which is free, sign up by contacting Frank Carter.

Grange Notes

Upper Rogue Grange

Upper Rogue Grange met Thursday evening, May 2, with the Glee club from Prospect high school. The glee club is directed by Mrs. Kenneth Vannice, and they were accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Ann Hubbard. A solo was given by Susan Roger and by Beth Cummins. A quartet consisting of Janet Bard, Beth Cummins, Don Vannice and Dale Chapman sang and a bass solo was sung by Donad Vannice.

After the program the Grange was called to order by Master Caroline Harding. The master of Shady Cove grange, Cecil Kee, was escorted to the master's station and sister Ola Huston and Thelma Reining, also of Shady Cove Grange, were introduced. Meetings will now take up at 8:30 p.m. until the first meeting in October. Master Caroline Harding was elected as delegate to State Grange convention at Bend in June.

Brother Work resigned as a member on the executive board and brother Tockstein was elected to fill the chair. Sister Work resigned as pomona and sister Tockstein was elected to succeed her.

Standing committees gave their reports and Brother Kee gave a short talk as well as all the other visitors gave a short talk.

Refreshments were served by sister and brother Grieve and sister Thelma Clark.

RETIRED BUT BUSY
