Home Rites Wed Couple

Central Point — Miss Marlene Fay Burelson became the bride of Ray Walleres Dahl in a ceremony held April 17 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Burelson, 45 South Fifth street. The Rev. Norman K. Tully of Central Point Presbyterian church officiated. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Dahl, Barnett road, Medford.

The bride's gown was of Chantilly lace and net, ballerina length, with bodice and front panel of lace and a bouffant net skirt over taffeta and nylon chiffon. It was designed by her mother. She carried peony tulips.

Miss Maria Abbott, honor attendant, wore a frock of pink net over pink taffeta and carried pink tulips and hyacinths. The candlelighters, Miss Sherri Lynn Burelson, sister of the bride, and Miss Tari Lee Martin, a cousin, also wore frocks of pink.

Mr. Burelson gave his daughter in marriage, and David Dahl was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Gordon Mekvold played the wedding music and Larry and Gary Smith sang.

Serving and assisting with the reception were Mrs. Gordon Tidwell, Mrs. Larry South and Mrs. C. W. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Dahl traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a blue suit with red and white candy-striped blouse and cummerbund and red and blue accessories.

The bride attended Crater High school and the bridegroom Phoenix High school. He is now serving with the United States Air Force.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Burelson, grandparents of the bride from Minneapolis, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Falkenhagen, grandparents of the bridegroom from North Dakota.
