Memorial Poppies Made by Veterans For Annual Event

Memorial poppies which will be worn here on Poppy Days, May 24 and 25, have been made by disabled veterans of three wars at the Camp White Domiciliary, Mrs. Clark Walker, poppy chairman of Medford unit of the American Legion auxiliary, announced today as the auxiliary completed arrangements for the annual observance of Poppy Day here.

Making poppies to be worn in honor of their fallen comrades has given the hospitalized veterans interesting and beneficial employment during the winter and spring. Mrs. Walker points out. The little red flowers of remembrance have been made for the auxiliary in veterans hospitals throughout the country, and in poppy workrooms maintained by the auxiliary to give employment to disabled veterans outside the hospitals.

"Poppy making helps brighten the dreary hospital hours and for many veterans contributes to recovery by providing an interesting occupation," said Mrs. Walker. "The veterans are paid by the auxiliary for the poppies they make and this gives them the encouraging experience of earning money once more — of being able to send money home to their families. More poppies worn on Poppy Day means more employment for disabled veterans during the coming year."

Mrs. Ted Flury Hostess for Club

Eagle Point — Officers for Eagle Point Garden club were elected Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ted Flury. Mrs. Charles Cushman assisted Mrs. Flury.

Following the business meeting the afternoon was spent in hunting driftwood along the Rogue River.

The June meeting will be held in Hawthorne park in Medford.

In Chelan
Bren H. Starcher returned to his home on South Stage road last week after spending several days with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle B. Starcher, in Chelan. Last Sunday he attended the first annual Apple Cup motorboat races, held on Lake Chelan.

The event, attended by a crowd estimated at 85,000 persons, was televised by three different Washington stations.

Wedding gowns of bygone days were modeled for the annual mother-daughter banquet of First Methodist church, held Tuesday evening at the church. About 225 attended the event. Three of the models (pictured above, left to right) were Miss Carolyn Kent, daughter of the John Kents, wearing a 65-year-old gown belonging to Mrs. Frank Greaser; Miss Susan Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garner, wearing the gown in which her mother married in 1936, and Mrs. Roy Gilbertson, wearing a wedding dress made by her grandmother and worn by Mrs. Gilbertson's mother and then by Mrs. Gilbertson herself. Also modeling were (below, left to right) little Gay Dierdorff, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff, wearing a "wedding gown" made for her fifth birthday anniversary by Mrs. Clara Ziegler, and Miss Joan Fretwell who is modeling Mrs. Raymond Balcomb's wedding dress.

Mothers' Day Program Presented for Union

The Rev. Raymond Balcomb, pastor of First Methodist church, gave the devotional at the last meeting of Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Mrs. Robert Taylor was chairman for a Mother's day program and Mrs. J. A. McDougal sang accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Schuchard. Mrs. Minnie Bryant gave a report of the workshop and state WCTU convention held recently in Portland which she attended.

The group decided to send a vote of thanks to Radio Station KBOY for their stand on not accepting liquor or cigarette advertising.

Refreshments were served at the meeting by Mrs. Mable Houck and Mrs. Marian Bossler.

Stuffing for Pork
New York — (U.P.) — When serving a crown roast of fresh pork, fill the center with apple stuffing. Combine cubed eating apples with chopped cooked prunes, seasoned with brown sugar and a little cinnamon. Another good stuffing for a roast of pork is cooked rice, mixed with cubed raw apple, cubed orange, and currants or raisins.
