

"HOPPING MAD"—Actress Maureen O'Hara and pianist Liberace wait to testify before Los Angeles Grand Jury in a criminal investigation of Confidential Magazine. The California attorney general is attempting to obtain criminal indictments against the publication. Miss O'Hara said the magazine had "printed an article about me which was a complete lie" and felt "it is my civic duty to co-operate in this investigation." Liberace, appearing much thinner, filed a 25-million-dollar libel suit against the magazine over an article about him.

11 Individuals, Five Companies Accused of Libel

Hollywood — Eleven individuals and five companies, including Confidential magazine and its publisher, Robert Harrison, were reportedly accused of criminal libel and other charges today in a secret county Grand Jury indictment.

The indictment was returned late Wednesday at the conclusion of a two-day Grand Jury probe into the controversial scandal magazine. It was termed "secret" until returned before a judge because Harrison and the others involved were out of the state.

The indictment reportedly listed charges of conspiracy to publish criminal libel, publish and distribute lewd and obscene material, disseminate illegal information about abortions, and disseminate information about male rejuvenation.

Source Identified

Among those reportedly indicted also was Francesca de Scaffa, beautiful former wife of Bruce Cabot. She was identified Tuesday by former Confidential editor Howard Rushmore as one of the chief sources of Hollywood "material" for the magazine.

The others listed by jury sources as named in the indictments were Mrs. Marjorie Meade, Harrison's niece and president of Hollywood Research, Inc., West Coast research agent for the magazine; her husband, Fred S. Meade; Mrs. Edith Tobias, Harrison's sister and his executive assistant; her husband, Michael Tobias, vice president of Hollywood Research, Inc.; Mrs. Helen Studin, sister and personal secretary of Harrison; her husband, Dan Studin, circulation manager for Confidential; Robert Kable, president of Kable Publishing Co.; Richard Cox, head of Publishers Distributing Co., and A. P. Govoni, identified as editor of Confidential.

The five companies were reported as Confidential Magazine, Inc.; Kable Publishing Co. of Illinois; Publishers Distributing Corp. of New York; Whisper, Inc., another Harrison enterprise, and the Hollywood Research firm.

Atomic Power In 10 Years Seen

San Francisco — Atomic-generated power is economically possible within the next 10 years, according to Norman R. Sutherland, president of Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

Such power could come "as a combined result of technological development and changing fuel and other cost relationships with conventional plants," Sutherland said Wednesday during a panel discussion at the Pacific Coast Electrical Association convention.

"The cost trend of atomic fuel is believed to be down," he said, "while the long-range trend in the cost of conventional fuels would seem to be upward."

Sutherland and seven other chief executives of electric utility companies participated in a panel discussion on the "Challenge of Growth," the theme of the convention.

Other speakers included Harold Quinton, president of Southern California Edison Co. and Frank A. Trace, president of the Sierra Pacific Power Company, Reno, Nev.

Quinton said financing may well be the main challenge facing the nation's electrical utilities during the next decade.

Tracy urged the federal government to sell all its businesses which operate in competition with private enterprises. Such a move, he said, would increase tax revenues.

Elvis Presley Has Tooth Cap Removed

Hollywood — Teen-age "rock n' roll" idol Elvis Presley was expected to be released from Cedars of Lebanon hospital today following removal of a porcelain tooth cap from his right lung.

Doctors said the tooth cap was removed from the lung successfully by bronchoscopy which is the insertion of a narrow tubular instrument down into the throat. No surgical incision was made.

Presley was taken to the hospital Wednesday after he swallowed the cap during a dance number for the film, "Jailhouse Rock."

Doctors said the cap apparently slipped down Presley's windpipe and lodged in the lung. They said the singer should be able to return to work in a few days.
