To Organize New PTSA

Plans for organization of a parent-teacher-student association in Medford High school were formulated in a recent meeting at the high school. Mrs. Richard Alley was elected chairman of the steering committee, and Mrs. Curtis Donahue was elected secretary.

A tentative set of bylaws was discussed and will be presented for consideration and adoption at the organizational meeting set for Tuesday, May 21 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Prime purpose of the PTSA will be to promote better understanding among the parents of the high school young people in the community.

Attending the planning meeting were David Frohnmayer, student body president-elect; Jim Corum, student representative; Lester Harris, principal; Miss Josephine Kirtley, vice-principal; Mrs. Grace Berg, dean of women; Alex McDonadi, dean of men; DeVere Taylor, class counselor; Mrs. Owen Kunkel, Mrs. John Benson, Mrs. Howard Boyd, Mrs. Donahue and Mrs. Alley, parents.

Madelon Adler Petroff

Concert Set By Pianist

Ashland — Madelon Adler Petroff, pianist, will appear Sunday, May 19, at 3 p.m. with the Southern Oregon College ensemble in Churchill hall auditorium. It was announced by Glenn T. Matthews, director.

Beginning her career at the age of five, Mrs. Petroff has since made numerous concert appearances on the west coast. She studied for a short time under Ernest Bloch whose compositions she will play Sunday. Besides her concert piano playing, Mrs. Petroff numbers among her accomplishments that of being a top-flight organist and teacher.

The artist is a graduate of the University of Oregon, attended the Juilliard School of music in New York, and received her master's degree at Lewis and Clark college in Portland. She is married to Dr. Eugene Petroff and has two small sons. The Petroffs now reside in Klamath Falls, but are moving to Portland soon where Dr. Petroff will further his medical career.

Miss Sheila Adler, one of the ensemble members, is a sister to Madelon Petroff, and is a sophomore majoring in elementary education at the college. Their parents are Dr. and Mrs. George H. Adler, formerly of Klamath Falls, now in residence at Camp White.

Donald Quick, also a member of the ensemble, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Quick, of

Fichtner to Speak At Patrol Banquet

Capt. Clyde Fichtner of the Medford police department will speak at the eighth annual school safety patrol banquet at 6:30 p.m. today at the Jackson hotel. Captain Fichtner will trace development of the school safety patrol program in Medford and show how the training gained by boys and girls in this program benefits them in later life.

The banquet will honor youths who comprise the safety patrols at Medford public schools and St. Mary's parochial school. Mayor John Snider will present the individual awards to safety patrol members on behalf of the Medford Safety Council.

Invocation will be given by the Rev. John Ilg of Sacred Heart church. Russ-Jamison will be master of ceremonies and Caesar Muzzioli's accordion group will provide entertainment.

Aubrey Loper, president of the safety council, expressed appreciation to the Medford service clubs who are helping to defray expenses of the banquet.

Souvenir White Cane Sale Set Saturday

The Jackson Council of the Blind will hold its annual souvenir white cane sale Saturday, May 18, on the streets of Medford.

Proceeds from sales of the small white plastic canes will be used in rehabilitation of the blind. The funds help provide vocational training, medical and social research to assist blind people. They are also used to promote such legislation as the White Cane Traffic Law.

White Cane week, which started Wednesday, May 15, will end Tuesday, May 21.
