Miss Jane Barker Is Queen Of 1957 Junior Prom Saturday

Miss Jane Barker, senior, was crowned queen of Medford High school's 1957 Junior Prom held Saturday, May 11, in the school gymnasium. Miss Barker is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barker, 2430 Hillcrest road.

Her attending princesses were Miss Lois Elkins, Miss Denise Bruning and Miss Sally Ross, seniors; Miss Myda McCabe, Miss Patricia Rushton, Miss Winnie Gott and Miss Susan Hubbard, juniors.

Queen Jane received her crown from Bruce West, president of the student body. She wore a frock of pink cotton dotted Swiss with pink necklace. She was escorted into the gymnasium and to her throne by Bruce West, and her escort for the evening was Kent Ballard.

Class officers and student body officers served as escorts for the princesses. Robert Gee, president of the junior class, escorted Miss Rushton; David Frohmayer escorted Miss Hubbard; Mike Russell, vice president of the junior class, escorted Miss Elkins and Neil Plumley was Miss Ross' escort.

Richard McLoughlin served as escort for Miss Bruning, Tom Hamlin escorted Miss Gott, and Gordon Owsley was Miss Me-

Cabe's escort.

Robert Gee was general chairman for the Prom, and other committee chairmen were Jonny Jones, Miss Myrna Calloway, David Frohmayer, Dee Clark, Miss Sandra Buxton, Miss Jackie Bates, Jim Corum, Tony Brauner and Ronald Fields.

"Fantasia" was the theme for decorations. A false ceiling represented a blue sky with stars, and pixies, gnomes, butterflies and other creatures of fantasy land decorated the walls and made up a border which divided the dance area from tables. Girls dressed as pixies served refreshments.

Mrs. Delphie Cox and Ryder Berg are advisors for the class. Other class officers are Miss Sharon Walsh, secretary; Miss Linda Smith, treasurer and Tom Morris, representative.

Faculty members and parents served as chaperones for the event.

Medford Student In Piano Recital

Douglas Cummings, Medford High school senior, was presented in a piano recital given Thursday night at Sacred Heart academy in Klamath Falls. Miss Judith Brauner, Klamath Falls, also appeared on the program.

The two are pupils of Sister Cecilia Frances of the academy. The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cummings, 1900 Cherry heights, Medford.

Pictures for the memory book are part of the Junior Prom fun, and this year the efficient committee set aside a corner for photo snapping, complete with little white wrought iron bench and a romantic flower banked pool. Posing here are Miss Meredith Huggins, wearing a printed frock and flowers in her hair, and her date for the dance, Bruce Thompson. The annual dance, social highlight of the year, was held Saturday, May 11, at the school. (Brainerd photo)

Officers Elected For Oldest Club At Last Meeting

Mrs. L. K. Doty was elected president of Wednesday Study club at a luncheon meeting held May 15 in the Church of the Brethren. Mrs. Minnie G. Ball, retiring president, conducted the business meeting.

Also elected to office were Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin, vice-president; Mrs. L. V. Watkins, secretary and Mrs. Geraldine Mitchell, treasurer.

This was the last meeting of the season, with the next meeting set for October when the club will begin its 49th year. It is the oldest of the women's organizations in the valley.

Sisters Here

Mr. and Mrs. George Cosbie, Lake Tahoe, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schoonover, Portland, are spending the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Eldridge, 333 South Holly street, and Mrs. Harold Burk, 9 King street. The four women are sisters, and nieces of Mrs. C. W. Palm, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge.

Talent—Mrs. Henrietta Prueter of Westmont, Ill., is visiting her brother, William Kamberg of Walden lane, Talent.

This is the first time Mrs. Prueter has seen her brother in 50 years. Mrs. Prueter, who arrived April 14, will return to Illinois late next week.
