Thirteen Girl Scouts of Troop 156, St. Mary's neighborhood, were advanced to the rank of Senior Scouts in a unique capping ceremony held Monday night at St. Mary's school. Also unusual is the fact that the troop has been continuously led by one woman, Mrs. Al Carrara, ever since the girls were Brownies, and Mrs. Carrara plans to continue as leader in the new Senior Scout program of

Girl Scout Ceremonies Held Monday

St. Mary's neighborhood of Girl Scouts held an investiture and court of awards Monday evening. Brownie fly-ups and new leaders were invested in a ceremony held at the Sacred Heart church with the Rev. John Ilg officiating.

Girls of Troop 181 were invested into Intermediate Girl Scouts under the leadership of Mrs. George Gitzon and her assistants, Mrs. John Dougherty and Mrs. Byron Dibble. Invested Delcy Dibble, Susan Simpson, Krista Baker, Alice Doyle, Michele Ely, Sara Iverson, Mary Carol Leavens, Ursula Drysdale, Janet Marcisz, Lois Ann Goold, Ann Depner, Colleen Denman, Kathleen Dougherty, Tara Hill, Marilyn Hull, Joyce Jarmin, Ann Parsons, Kathy Reed, Jeanne Rossi, Lenore Shasky, Jill Whal-in, Judy Scott, Terese Taft, Kathleen Meeker and Kathy Malone.

A special fly-up ceremony was held April 23 at Hawthorne park, the program and games having been planned by Troop 153 of the fifth grade. Girl Scouts from other St. Mary's troops invested for the first time were Millicent O'Conner, Eileen Pullman, Beth Kerr, Kathy Mannely, Toni Kerr and Sandy Cook.

Adults working actively in Girl Scouts were invested. They were Mrs. John Raapke, neighborhood chairman-elect; Mrs. Charles Johnston, neighborhood troop organizer; Mrs. George Davy, Mrs. Elie Nougier and Mrs. Joseph Butler, Troop 40; Mrs. Paul Merfeld, Troop 86; Mrs. Byron Dibble, Troop 181; and Mrs. Thomas Eslinger, neighborhood chairman.

The annual court of awards was held at St. Mary's school immediately after the investiture.

Members of Troop 153 receiving the second class award and proficiency badges were Robbin Ashenbrenner, Annette Burich, Judy Dunlevy, Anna Maria Esquivel, Kathleen Piana, Faye Lewis, Dixie Duggan, Beth Kerr, Millicent O'Conner and Mary Walsh. The troop is led by Mrs. Wallace Piana as assistant.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Lewis and her assistants, Mrs. Joseph Barrett and Mrs. Byron Dibble, Troop No. 85, sixth grade, presented a play for the court of awards as part of their requirements toward their first class badge. Girls taking part in the play, "Hansel and Gretel," and earning badges were Laura Batzer, Ingrid Bergstrom, Patti Birmingham, Mary Ann Carnegie, Toni Dibble, Jane Evans, Kathy Hout, Barbara Lewis, Linda Lewis, Robbin Lewis, Marylee Lowry, Linda Metz, Helen Morrison, Kathy Newcomb, Eileen Pullman, Linda VanDyck, Emily Zwan, Sandy Cook, Tony Kerr, Helen Morrison and Eileen Pullman.

Girls in Troop No. 86, seventh grade, under the leadership of Mrs. Paul Merfeld, receiving first class awards and badges were Cheryl Dunn, Rita Dupray, Jennifer Espey, Pat Meeker, Paula Merfeld, Kerry O'Hara, Patricia O'Hara, Darlene Popow and Edith Betchart.

Girls in Troop 156, under the leadership of Mrs. Al Carrara, received the curved bar award and badges. They were Toni Adams, Mary Jo Batzer, Pat Calhoun, Diane DeLorme, Carol Doyle, Judy Kirkland, Virginia Krueger, Ann Manno, Mary Pat Naumes, Marilyn Schultz, Carol Valentine, Dorothy Rausch and Anne Bennett.

In a special capping ceremony, the above girls were promoted from the Intermediate program into the Senior Scout program, with the assistance of Miss Nancy Stevenson and Miss Karen Johnson, Senior Scouts from Troop 2. Virginia Rausch, also a member of the troop, received her first class award and proficiency badges.

Mrs. Carrara began as leader of these girls when they were Brownies and will continue as leader through the Senior Scout program.

Mrs. Thomas Lytle, president of the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council, was a special guest at the ceremonies and spoke to the girls and parents after the court of awards.
