

Southern Cal Takes PCC Track Championship, Webfoots 2nd

By HOWARD APPLIGATE
United Press Sports Writer
Eugene, Ore. — Southern California's talented Trojans waltzed off with the Pacific Coast conference track and field championships Saturday on rain-soaked Hayward field as four meet records were cracked and Oregon finished a surprising second ahead of defending NCAA and PCC champion UCLA.

In the top race of the day, California's Don Bowden came within 2 of a second of the world's 880-yard run record. Ron Morris of Southern Cal pole vaulted 15 ft., 3/4 in. to break the previous meet record set in 1927 of 14 ft., 11 in. by Earle Meadows and Earl Sef-ton, both of Southern Cal.

Trojan Beats Teammate
Two-mile Max Truex, the American collegiate record-holder from Southern Cal at 8:55, ran off with his favorite event in 8:57.5, for one meet record. The Trojans' Doug Majjala tossed the javelin 236 ft., 7/8 in. for another new mark as he defeated favored teammate Bob Volles, the American college record holder with 249 ft., 6 in.

Southern California piled up an impressive 67 points to 39 1/2 for Oregon and 38 for UCLA. The Trojans grabbed six first places. Other scores were Stanford 29, California 22, Washington 16, Idaho 7, Oregon State 3 1/2 and Washington State 3.

Oregon failed to win one first place, but the Webfoots scored in 12 of the 15 events.

Bowden, California's brilliant distance runner, raced the 880 in 1:47.8 to lead one of the fastest fields in this event in college track. His mark was just short of the world record of 1:47.5 set by another Californian, Len Spurrer. So fast was this event that the fifth place finisher, Dick Boyce of Idaho, tied the former PCC meet record of 1:51.6 set in 1951 by UCLA's Hugh Mitchell.

Seaman Disqualified
UCLA, which last season ended a long Southern Cal reign as PCC champion, suffered a blow early in the meet when mile favorite Bob Seaman was disqualified for jockeying Southern Cal's Sid Wing, the winner, near the finish.

Bowden, who has another year left at California, defeated a strong field in the 880 which included Oregon's Jim Bailey. Bailey who ran the mile in 3:58.6 last year, had a fine second time of 1:49.4 in the 880, but didn't enter the mile because of a bad foot.

There were two double winners. Bob Lawson, the fine Trojan hurdler, won both the high and the low. California's Leonard King took the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Southern Cal also had firsts with Morris in the pole vault and Rink Babka in the discus. UCLA had only two first places, Don Vick in the shot put and the mile relay.

A crowd of about 7500 braved intermittent showers to witness the annual classic.

PCC Heads To Consider Athletic Aid

Sopkane, Wash. — Pacific Coast conference faculty representatives once again will tackle the thorny problem of aid to athletes at the annual spring meeting here next week.

The issue threw conference rulers for a loss at the Portland meeting earlier this year, but PCC President Dr. Emmett Moore of Washington State college said he was "hopeful" something can be done here.

Representatives of the far-flung nine-member loop will try to find a formula for aid based upon cost of living at the various schools. This idea was discussed at Portland but struck a snag when representatives sought an actual dollars-and-cents differential to be paid to athletes attending school at, for example, densely populated Los Angeles and thinly populated Pullman, Wash., and neighboring Moscow, Idaho.

At the moment, athletes are permitted to earn $100 per month on campus jobs. Some schools complained that $100 is enough in some living areas, but "nothing" in others.

Bans Lifted On 3 Schools

Portland, Ore. — The NAIA district two office Saturday declared that a ban on three Northwest conference schools last night was made in error.

The schools — Willamette, Linfield and Pacific — were charged with using ineligible players during the regular playing seasons. They were banned from competing in NAIA district and National Springs sports championships.

A check of the school records revealed that there were no ineligible players participating in any of the school events of all three colleges.

Pacific university earlier admitted it had used an ineligible player during the basketball season.

Gross Hurls Redleg Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
Southpaw Don Gross spent part of last season with Havana of the International league but his future in Cincinnati seems assured if he keeps pitching the way he did Friday night in beating the New York Giants, 11-1, with a fine five-hit effort.

The 25-year-old Gross now has hurled three complete-game victories and has yet to be defeated. He is just one more good reason why the Redlegs have won 15 of their last 16 games.

Friday night, Frank Robinson blasted a pair of homers, his fifth and sixth of the season, to drive in four runs, while Gus Bell drove in the same number with a homer and two singles. Robinson, Bell and Crowe each collected three hits in the Redlegs' 16-hit attack. Gross blanketed the Giants until Ducky Rhodes homered in the eighth.

All that fine hitting and pitching stretched Cincinnati's lead to a game and a half.

Yanks May Trade Martin to Solons

New York — Chuck Dressen, an assistant to the president of the Washington Senators, arrived at Yankee Stadium Saturday for trade talks with the world champion New York Yankees.

The Senators are hoping to obtain infielder Billy Martin in a deal which presumably would include seven or eight players. A Yankee shakeup is possible as a result of the now-famous night-club brawl in which Martin and five teammates became involved this week.

Dressen refused to reveal exactly what he would discuss but Yankee Manager Casey Stengel commented, "If I were him, I'd be foolish not to come here and talk."

Swim Lessons Planned for Tots At Medford Y

A course of swimming instruction for youngsters six to eight years of age will be offered by the Medford YMCA this summer.

Two sessions will be taught—one beginning in June and the other in the latter part of July. Classes will start Monday, June 10. Family members who are just beginning to get accustomed to the water will swim on Mondays and Thursdays at 9 a.m. Those who can swim 25 feet will have classes at 1 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, or on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Non-Member Classes
Non-member tot classes for beginners will be at 9 a.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays or on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Tots who advance quickly in their skill will be moved into an advanced class at 9:45 a.m. on the same morning that their beginning section is on.

In the past years there has been a great demand by parents in the Medford Area for this instruction, and it appears that the demand will be just as great this summer, Y officials said. As a result, registration will be limited to 20 in each class. Since there will be eight sections, 160 can register for each session.

Those desiring instruction for their youngsters should register at once for either July session. A fee will be charged. Further details are available at the YMCA.

Red Raiders Conference Golf Champs

Salem — Southern Oregon College won the Oregon Collegiate Conference golf championship here Friday, posting a total score of 635.

The Red Raiders score was 12 strokes better than the 647 scored by Oregon College of Education. Eastern Oregon College of Education was third with 670. Defending champion Portland state did not compete this year, nor did Oregon Tech.

Grid Change Involves PIL

Corvallis — The Oregon School Activities Association voted Friday to limit the Portland Interscholastic league to one entry in the Class A-1 football playoffs, beginning next fall.

It will be the first time since the playoffs were started that Portland will not have two teams in the quarterfinals.

The OSAA, meeting here before start of the Class A-1 and A-2 track and field meet, said with opening of James Madison High school next fall the Portland league will have 10 teams, necessitating a longer schedule. The final round of PIL play will be Nov. 15, same date as the Class A-1 quarterfinals.

The Portland entry in state championship play, thus will skip the quarterfinals and begin the playoffs in the semifinals. The semifinals were set for Nov. 22 with the championship game at Portland's Multnomah stadium Nov. 30.

In other action, the OSAA set March 18-22 as dates for the Class A-1 basketball tournament at Eugene and March 17-19 for the A-2 hoop tourney at Salem, and named Pendleton as site for the Class B tournament March 13-15.

The new Clackamas High school in Milwaukie was assigned to District 3, the Metropolitan league.

System Rates Art Wall Tops

Kansas City, Mo. — Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa., has taken over the lead in the Professional Golfers association top 10 player ratings, the PGA touring bureau announced Saturday.

Field Secretary Jim Gaquin, in Kansas City preceding the Kansas City Open next week, said Wall, winner of the 1957 Pensacola Open, has massed 492 1/2 points. He leads Doug Ford and Bill Casper Jr., by 6 1/2 points. Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., was fourth with 453.

Under the newly-devised rating system, the first 45 professionals in each PGA co-sponsored tournament get points. A 10-point premium is given for entering a tournament at least two weeks ahead of time. The winner of each tournament gets a bonus of 20 points. Players also earn points by finishing in the money.

Gasquin said the system was devised to encourage leading players to participate in more tournaments.

Mounties Get OK For Sunday Tilts

Vancouver, B.C. — The Vancouver Mounties drew a virtual clear green light on their Sunday baseball games Saturday. City Prosecutor Stewart McMoran's announcement that he doubts the Pacific Coast league club will ever be prosecuted for violation of Canada's Federal Lord's Day Act.

McMoran told United Press he had "nothing to add to what has already been said on the subject," other than to state that there was "doubt" that he would launch legal proceedings against the team. He said he hoped to be able to add to the statement "within a few days," because the public and the press were entitled to the details.

Promoter Named For Title Fight

New York — The New York State Athletic Commission took the second step toward the next heavyweight title bout Friday by granting a promoter's license to Emil Lence, wealthy New York dress manufacturer.

Gus D'Amato, manager of heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, took the first step Wednesday when he announced Patterson's first defense would be under Lence's promotion.

At that time, Lence didn't have a license to promote and D'Amato hasn't yet lined up an opponent for Patterson.

Derby Victor Loses Race

Baltimore, Md. — Bold Ruler, the beaten Kentucky Derby favorite, smashed back from that defeat with a powerful rush through the stretch at Pimlico Saturday to win the $113,800 Preakness Stakes and shatter the triple crown chances of Iron Liege.

Bold Ruler swept across the finish line two full lengths ahead of Calumet Farm's Iron Liege, who scored a surprise victory in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago and was favored Saturday to move another notch closer to triple crown immortality. But Iron Liege just couldn't stay with the powerful Bold Ruler in this mile and three-sixteenths classic and just about managed to beat the surprising Inaugural Tract by a neck for second place.

With Jockey Eddie Arcaro, first whipping with his left hand and then strapping the big son of Nasrullah with his left, Bold Ruler gave his jockey a sixth triumph in the run for the Black-eyed Susans and trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons a fourth victory in this classic.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-5, and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-5, in the other National league games. Brooklyn at Chicago was rained out. In American league daylight games, the Detroit Tigers shamed the New York Yankees, 2-1, the Cleveland Indians routed the Washington Senators, 8-1, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-5.

Gomez Yields Crowe Homer
The Redlegs tagged Gomez for a pair of runs in the second inning to lead 2-1 but two singles and a forceout produced the tying run for New York in the fourth and Willie then unloaded his homer. Gomez yielded only a seventh-inning homer to George Crowe thereafter as he raised his season record to 6-1. He won his sixth game of the 1956 season on Aug. 1.

Hank Aaron whacked two home runs and drove in four runs as the Braves whipped the Pirates in 40-degree weather. Aaron also had a single to raise his batting average to .378 and his two homers gave him the major league lead with 11. Lew Burdette, who relieved Warren Spahn in the third inning, received credit for his fifth win.

Granny Hamner knocked in three runs and Stan Lopata drove in two as the Phillies increased their lead over the Cardinals to 2 1/2 games in the battle for fourth place. Curt Simmons yielded 11 hits but went the distance to record his third victory. Vinegar Bend Mizell was routed in the first inning but Lloyd Merritt was saddled with the defeat.

Larsen Loses First
Second-string catcher Red Wilson, who replaced injured starter Frank House in the seventh inning, singled home the winning run in the ninth inning and handed Don Larsen his first defeat. Al Kaline opened the inning with a single and took second on Yogi Berra's passed ball. Al Aber won his second game for Detroit.

The Indians scored their ninth victory in the last 10 games with a 13-hit attack in which Chico Carrasquel and Ken Kuhn drove in the two runs each and Jim Busby homered. Cal McLish, who took over in the third inning when Mike Garcia aggravated a leg injury, pitched shut-out ball the rest of the way to pick up his second triumph. The Senators' first inning run was the first the Senators scored in two years off Garcia, who shut them out four straight times last year.

Gus Zernial blasted a run-producing double in the first inning and a three-run homer in the fifth to pave the way for Kansas City's decision over the Red Sox. Wally Burnette gained credit for his third win although 38-year-old Virgil Trucks pitched the last 2 2/3 innings.

The Chicago White Sox and Orioles agreed to a 10:20 p.m. curfew for their night game at Baltimore and wound up in a 4-4 tie when Dick Williams hit a homer for the home team just as the clock hand reached the curfew time. The game will be replayed later. The curfew was set up to permit the White Sox to take a train to Boston for a Sunday game.
