St. Mary's high of Medford collected two first places, a fourth and two fifths Saturday night to claim third place in the Oregon State Class B track meet at Springfield.

The Crusaders totaled 28 points.

Wallowa was champion with 32 counters and Monroe was barely ahead of St. Mary's with 28. Cove with Jim Puckett scoring all the points was fourth with 26. Pilot Rock had 25 and Malin and Knappa each 24.

Jim Darland of St. Mary's was first in the high hurdles in 1:16.6 and the Crusader relay quartet of Dick Hayes, Terry Cooper, Dave Espey and Darland won that event in 1:38.4. Jerry Kerr was fourth in the half-mile for the Medford team. Darland was fifth in the broad jump and Espey fifth in the quarter-mile. Puckett's victories in both sprints and third spot in the broad jump and Derry Horn's broad jump of 23 feet 4 1/2 inches for Pilot Rock were meet highlights. The leap was better than the Class A state mark of 22-10.

The big infielder, who recently checked in from Detroit led the Seals to a sweep of their twin bill sweep over Los Angeles Sunday by identical scores of 4-3 which propelled them over idle Vancouver into second place.

His two-run homer won the first game. Then he doubled in the nightcap to put the winning run on second base and scored on Ken Aspromonte's single.

Los Angeles not only blew a three-run lead in both contests but also dropped into fourth spot which the Seals vacated.

In the meantime, Hollywood clung to first place by a game and a half after dividing with Seattle during a gloomy Sunday which saw the rest of the loop rained out. The Rainiers, riding

BILL BLUNT HAS NEAR PERFECT KEGLING TALLY

Bill Blunt, Phoenix, came within a single pin of rolling a perfect game at Medford Bowling lanes last night, as he and Francis Kirk took over first place in the doubles during the first week end of the Southern Oregon handicap tournament.

Blunt's tremendous 299 game is the highest which has been rolled on the present Medford lanes, which opened in 1934.

The kegler rolled 11 strikes in a row. On the try for the 12th, which would have given a perfect score, Blunt hesitated and the ball hit light. The

No. 10 pin was left standing. HIGHEST IN STATE

Blunt's score is believed to be the highest in Oregon this year. He will receive a choice of several American Bowling congress awards for his high total.

Blunt and Kirk had a 1335 with handicap in gaining doubles lead. The Phoenix man had games of 186-299-186 for 664 scratch and added 18 pins per game handicap for a 718 tally. In singles Blunt carded games of 232-226-161 for another sparkling score of 619. With the handicap he had a 673 total.

San Francisco Surges Into Second Place

Jack Phillips, who said he was irked to be shipped back to the minors, can stay that way as far as the San Francisco Seals are concerned — so long as his angry bat whips them higher up the ladder.

STANDINGS Redlegs, White Sox Take 2-Game Leads

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
The Cincinnati Redlegs and Chicago White Sox don't have much in common but it's an academic point today because they are showing only their heels to their chief pennant rivals.

Both opened two-game leads in the major league races Sunday, the Redlegs outslugging the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-7 and 5-4, and White Sox scoring a 6-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Tom Acker gained credit for both Cincinnati wins although he hurled a total of 2 1/3 innings in relief. He came in to retire one batter in the ninth inning of the opener and was returned the winner when George Crowe's fourth hit drove in Johnny Temple with the winning run in the bottom of the frame.

In the nightcap, he allowed one unearned run in the last two innings and picked up the victory when Wally Post snapped a 4-4 tie with his eighth-inning homer.

Bill Fischer won his second game for the White Sox although Paul LaPalme came on to hurl the last two innings. Larry Doby knocked in two runs with a double and a homer.

The New York Giants knocked the Milwaukee Braves two full games off the Redlegs' pace with a 6-3 victory and the Brooklyn Dodgers scored seven runs in the ninth to whip the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-3, in the other National league games. Philadelphia and Chicago were rained out of a double-header.

The Yankees moved into a second-place tie with the Indians when New York ended Cleveland's five-game winning streak, 6-3, and the Detroit Tigers took over fourth place in the American league with a 6-1 triumph. The Baltimore Orioles routed the over the Washington Senators, Kansas City A's, 10-2, and then played a 5 1/2-inning scoreless tie ended by rain.

Ray Katt singled with the bases filled in the eighth inning to break a 3-3 tie and enable the Giants' Johnny Antonelli to pick up his third win over his ex-Milwaukee teammates. Willie Mays tripled in the sixth to stretch his hitting streak to nine games.

Jim Gilliam hit two doubles and five other Brooklyn hits and a walk broke open the Dodgers' close game with the Cardinals. Don Newcombe, who hasn't lost to St. Louis in six years, went the distance for the Dodgers to score his third victory. Stan Musial and Mally Moon honored for St. Louis.

Kucks Rescues Shantz
Johnny Kucks rescued Bobby Shantz in the ninth as the Yankees took advantage of three Cleveland errors and a wind-blown double that started a rally. Shantz was aided to his third home run by Mickey Mantle's seventh home run. Rocky Colavito had three singles and a homer for the Indians. Duke Maas, who didn't win a game for Detroit last season, scored his sixth straight with a five-hitter that sent the Senators to their fifth loss in a row and their 16th in 19 games. Charley Maxwell led the Tiger's ninth-inning attack with three safeties including a homer. Chuck Stobbs lost his eighth straight decision of this year and his 13th in a row dating back to his last triumph in 1936.

Tito Francona walloped two homers and knocked in five runs to spark the Orioles' attack that gained Billy Loes his third win. The nightcap was halted by rain with Hal Brown and Rip Coleman involved in a scoreless duel.

Tough to Lose
Saturday's game was a tough one for OSC to lose. The Beavers scored seven runs in the first half of the seventh inning. Then a cloudburst came along in the bottom of the frame and the game was halted. The score reverted to the previous inning and the Beavers lost.

There were two out and two strikes on Idaho batter Gene Arnold when the rains came. With rain threatening, both teams put on stalling exhibitions, Oregon State in the fifth when it trailed 1-0 and rain might have made the game no contest, and Idaho in the seventh after OSC had its seven runs.

Pat O'Connor Fastest in Qualifying
Indianapolis — Twenty-four positions remained open today for the annual 500-mile Speedway auto race, promising a hectic final two days of qualification next week end.

Gauze Strip Of Help To Bold Ruler

Baltimore — Bold Ruler shaped up today as the horse to beat in next month's Belmont Stakes now that trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons has found a way to ease the pressure on the young colt's tender mouth.

Few persons in the crowd of 32,856 at Pimlico Saturday noticed a piece of cloth tied to the bit in Bold Ruler's mouth when the Wheatley Stable whiz galloped to a two-length victory in the Preakness Stakes. But this strip of gauze played an important role in Bold Ruler's triumph.

Because he cut his tongue as a yearling, the son of Nashrullah has been a tough horse to rate. As Fitzsimmons explained, "If you put too much pressure on his mouth, it hurts him."

So before the Preakness, Sunny Jim cut a narrow strip of cloth from a leg bandage and tied one end of it to the bit. The string circled Bold Ruler's mouth, holding his tongue in place, and was tied on the outside of the bit.

"It helped take the pressure off his mouth and put it on his jaw," the 82-year-old trainer said.

Title Nabbed By Harrison

White Sulphur Springs, W.Va. — E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, who has been a professional golfer since 1930, posted "one of the best rounds in my life" in his come-from-behind victory in the Sagn Snead Festival tournament.

The towering Harrison came through the final round Sunday with a near-record 62 — eight under par — to snatch victory by a two-stroke margin.

Deadlocked for second place at 268 were tournament host Sam Snead and the young man who, up to the final round, had threatened to take it all — Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass.

Husky Rowers Sweep Over Cal
Seattle — The University of Washington rowing armada looked southward today for its second rowing victim, still exuberant over the easy sweep of all three races with California here Saturday.

The Big Red of Stanford, unbeaten this year and with an earlier victory over Cal, will furnish the opposition for the Huskies, Saturday morning at Redwood City, Calif.

Sid Milligan Golf Winner

Eugene — Sid Milligan of Eugene won the Oregon Golf association's Champion of Champions title Sunday by defeating Bob Prall and Don Krieger in a "sudden death" playoff. All had tied with 142 for the 36 holes.

Oregon State Washed Out Of Victory
Seattle — Oregon State's hard luck baseball team, washed out of a potential victory against Idaho Saturday, takes on the Washington Huskies here today and Tuesday in an effort to keep its faint Northern division title hopes alive.

Idaho defeated the Beavers 1-0 in Saturday's game, giving the Beavers a 7-4 mark to 10-2 for Oregon. The Beavers have two games left with the Ducks after the Washington series.
