Rossellini, India Woman Say Story Of Love 'Nonsense'

Bombay, India, May 20—Italian Film Director Roberto Rossellini and a young married Indian beauty today denied as "absolute nonsense" and "humbug" reports that they are in love and that he will divorce Ingrid Bergman.

Miss Bergman, in Paris, echoed their statements. She said she doubted there was "much truth" to the reports linking Rossellini and 27-year-old Mrs. Sonali Das-Gupta, the fair-skinned wife of an Indian director. She has been working with Rossellini on an Indian documentary film.

Both Rossellini and Mrs. Das-Gupta, mother of two young children, denied in statements from their adjoining rooms at the swank Taj Mahal hotel here that their relationship was anything but professional.

"Absolute nonsense," Rossellini told the United Press. "This is simply and utterly an invasion on someone's part."

"It's not the first time some newspaperman has indulged in fantasy. About all I can do is deny it. I deny this report too. It's fantasy. What more can I say?"

In a separate statement, Mrs. Das-Gupta said she was working with Mr. Rossellini. That is all.

Asked about reports that she is expecting another child, she replied: "Oh, goodness. I refuse to talk about it. It's all humbug."

Norblad Opposes Unlimited Spending

Washington—Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) said today "I am with the president on the real issues, but I am against him on unlimited federal spending, and that's the way I voted."

Norblad made the statement here to explain his record of only 27 per cent support of President Eisenhower's legislative program, compared to a record of 84 per cent support by Reps. Charles Porter and Al Ullman and 64 per cent by Rep. Edith Green. Porter, Ullman and Mrs. Green are Democrats.

Norblad, the only Republican member of the Oregon congressional delegation, said he agreed with his constituents that there must be economy in government. The record comparison was made by the non-partisan Congressional Quarterly on the basis of 31 roll call votes during the current session in which President Eisenhower's position was known prior to the vote.

Stocks Meet Support After Brief Decline

New York—Stocks declined during the first half of the session today and then met support.

Railroad issues again were the laggards. Their average had the widest percentage decline and they failed to recover to any extent from their lows.

Utilities managed to rise slightly to a new high since 1930. In the industrial section, some of the oils made progress on the upside, notably Amerada which at its best was up more than two points at a new top. Lukens and Universal Cyplores were wide gainers in the steels.
