Billy Graham Sees Americans Lacking In Moral Strength

New York — Revivalist Billy Graham Monday night depicted modern Americans as slaves to "materialism, worldliness, greed and lust" and the United States as a "nation of moral cripples."

"We don't live by the golden rule, the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount," Graham said, "and as a result we have no moral strength, we are helpless."

Like a stern, modern Moses, Graham warned an audience of 16,000 in Madison Square Garden that man is destined for doom and destruction unless he is "willing to receive Jesus Christ and let him make man whole again."

Following Graham's sixth sermon in his New York Crusade, an estimated 370 of his listeners came forward to make "decisions for Christ." So far, nearly 4,000 persons have made decisions and 100,000 have attended Graham's Madison Square Garden sermons.

Beginning June 1, Graham's Saturday night sermons in the Garden will be televised in competition with Perry Como and Jackie Gleason on other channels.

Dallas Girl Found Pinned Beneath Log

Dallas — Judy Meissner, 15, was recovering today from leg bruises and exposure after she was pinned underneath a log for several hours out of shouting distance of help.

The girl said she was wild-flower picking Sunday evening and that while returning home she fell from a log. Another log rolled on her and pinned her legs to the ground. She was about a mile and a half from home and her shouts went unheeded.

A search party found her about 4:30 a.m. Monday.

Her home is in the Lincoln community about six miles north of West Salem.

HELPING HANDS

Frankfort, Me. — An old-fashioned raising bee put poultry farmer Lawrence Hussey back in business five days after his chicken houses were destroyed in a $20,000 fire. Every able-bodied man in town showed up at the Hussey farm the Sunday after the blaze. They built a 150x24-foot poultry house for Hussey in a few hours.
