

Brooklyn Stops St. Louis To Sweep Series, Nears 2nd Place

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Those "nine old men" — the fellows who won it last year — are still in the National League pennant race.

That's the Brooklyn Dodgers' message today to the experts who were beginning to view the 1957 race as primarily a two-team struggle between the Milwaukee Braves and Cincinnati Redlegs. First the Braves reeled off 12 victories in their first 14 games and then the Redlegs mounted their 12-game winning streak.

All the while the Dodgers had failed to put together more than three victories in succession and there were whispers in N. L. dugouts that the old champs had "had it."

So tonight they invade Cincinnati riding the crest of a four-game winning streak—their longest of the season—and fresh from two smashing victories over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Dodgers walloped the Cardinals, 10-4, Monday night to sweep the two-game series they opened with Sunday's 10-3 rout.

Dodgers Move Up

As a result, the Dodgers moved to within only a half-game of the second-place Braves and trail the front-running Redlegs by two and one-half.

Duke Snider, Carl Furillo and Sandy Amoros walked homers in an 11-hit Dodger attack that also included doubles by Gil Hodges, Al Walker, Jim Gilliam and Furillo. Every member of the Brooklyn lineup hit safely except Don Zimmer and pitchers Don Drysdale and Clem Labine.

Drysdale went the first seven innings to win his third game without a loss. Labine, making his 13th relief appearance in 27 games, rushed in from the bullpen when the Cardinals rallied for two runs in the eighth and closed it out.

A couple of old fashioned pitching duels marked the only two other games played in the majors Monday, the Washington Senators beating the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, and the Baltimore Orioles scoring a 2-0 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Ramos Wins Third

Pedro Ramos, the 22-year-old right hander from Pinar, Cuba, out-pitched Frank Lary, a 21-game winner last season, as the Senators snapped their five-game losing streak and the Tigers' four-game winning skein. Ed Fitzgerald beat out an infield hit with the bases filled in the winning run after the two right handers hurled shutout ball from the second inning. The win was Ramos' third and the loss made Lary's record 2-5.

Connie Johnson turned in a two-hitter and stretched the Orioles pitcher's string of scoreless innings to 20 as he handed the A's their fourth shutout in their last seven games. Gus Triandos singled home Bob Neiman with Baltimore's first run and Tito Francona singled home the second.

ond. Ned Garver suffered his third loss against two wins while Johnson won his second game compared with four defeats.

OREGON WATER SKI TOURNEY SLATED FOR GARDENER LAKE

The first annual Oregon Water Ski championship, the first such event to be staged in Oregon, will be held June 29 and 30 at Gardener lake, 16 miles east of Medford on Yankee creek.

Announcement of the tournament was made yesterday by Lon Skinner, Oregon director and national judge of the American Water Ski association, at the noon luncheon of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce Roundtable at the Jackson hotel.

Open Tourney

Skinner said the event would be open to anybody, but that entrants would have to pay a registration fee. Gardener lake is a man-made private lake about one half-mile in diameter, he said. It is owned by the Victor Gardener family.

Events of the championship will be slalom, jumping and various water ski tricks, he noted. Those participating in the tournament will be divided into four classes: pee wees, 5-12 years old; boys, 12-17; men, 17-35; and veterans, 35 and up, according to Skinner.

The meet is to be sponsored by the Crater Lions club. Skinner described water skiing as a growing sport that has been neglected in Oregon.

There will be ski meet entrants from Washington and California as well as Oregon.

Pope, Davies Winners in 2-Ball Meet

Lloyd Pope and Mrs. Helen Davies with an 84 had low gross today at Medford Gun club.

Carl Schmidt and Mrs. Belle Schenck were second low with 85.

Bill Blackledge and Mrs. Bob Little tied with Jerry Olson and Mrs. Deane Lambert for low net. Each had 71.

The 73 card of Eddie Simmons and Mrs. Bill Wood took second low net. Mrs. James Dunlevy and Dutch Nulton were high net with 93 and Reese Alexander and Mrs. Roy DeLorme high gross with 123.

Play in the men's two-ball partnership tournament has now entered the third round with matches to be finished by next Sunday night. Last week's action produced three extra-hole tussles with Fred Johnson and Glen Fabric beating Bob Wells and Ted Harnberger in 19. C. E. Knight and Duane Lubbers edging Don Whalin and Jack Sanborn on the 20th and Ward Samuelson and Dick Henselman using 19 to get by Stan Stark.

Top Woman Stunt Driver Here With Jack Kochman Daredevils on Wednesday

The ladies have invaded the speed and thrill field and the top female exponent of this once purely male art will appear at the Jackson County Sheriff's posse grounds tomorrow night. She is Miss Patricia Jones.

This 25 year old powder puff daredevil hails from Hutchinson, Kan., and is now enjoying her fifth season with the Jack Kochman Daredevils.

Pat, in addition to the part she plays in precision driving events in her sleek 1957 convertible, takes part in the dangerous roll-over contests, in which she deliberately rolls automobiles end over end in a most un ladylike manner, and often surpasses her male counterparts.

Patricia was born in San Luis Potosi, Mexico, where her father was an oil engineer. Most of her years prior to 1948 were spent at the family home in Kansas.

In 1948 she entered competition in stock car racing, first against other female entrants and finally to challenge the top male drivers in the mid-west. Her success on race tracks soon brought her to the attention of Jack Kochman, who signed her as a regular member of the Auto Daredevils.

This strawberry blonde can be seen as she leads the stuntmen through the 28 death-defying events that make up the two-hour program set for tomorrow night only at the Posse grounds, starting at 8:30.

UCLA Back in Good Graces Of PCC Despite Oregon Vote

By RUSS NIELSEN
United Press Sports Writer

Spokane, Wash.—UCLA, by a 5 to 4 vote, was back in the good graces of the Pacific Coast Conference today along with three other schools told to "clean up or get out."

Still to be settled at the annual spring meeting of the conference was the knotty question of aid to athletes.

The vote Monday was on a decision of the conference in August of 1956 in Portland that any member on probation which failed to adapt its athletic program in accordance with the conference dictates would be expelled by next Aug. 1.

Probationary reports of Washington, Southern California, and California were approved by unanimous vote of the nine representatives.

Oregon, Washington State, Stanford, and Idaho voted to expel UCLA according to Dr. Glenn Seaborg, conference press spokesman from the University of California.

He said the negative votes were based on a belief UCLA had not "really and sincerely" tried to amend its program to put itself in line with the other members.

The ultimatum to clean up grew out of an illegal payment to athletes scandal which erupted last year. Southern Cal and Washington were placed on two years probation, California was given one year probation and UCLA three.

Seaborg said no school had threatened to withdraw from the conference because of the penalties "and in fact no such threat ever has been made before the conference."

At present, athletes are permitted to earn not more than $100 per month at each school. California members contend this is not enough because of the higher cost of living there.

Jaycee Links Tournament Here on Thursday, Friday

Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced that local qualifying for the 12th annual International Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament will be held at the Rogue Valley Country Club on Thursday and Friday May 23 and 24, with tee-off time at 3:30 p.m. each day.

Local tournament will consist of 36 holes of medal play, with trophies being awarded to the winner and runner-up, who will also have their expenses paid to the state tournament at Riverside Golf club in Portland on July 7, 8 and 9.

The tournament is open to all boys who will not have reached their 18th birthday by August 15, 1957. No entry fee is required from the contestants. Advance registrations are now being accepted at the Rogue Valley Country Club and at the Oak Knoll Golf course in Ashland. Additional entries will also be permitted up to tee-off time at 3:30 p.m. May 23.

The state tournament will feature, in addition to the selection of contestants to compete in the International tournament on August 19-24 at the Ohio State university course at Columbus Ohio, a golf clinic, movies, and awards banquet. Four low qualifiers from the Portland contest will be sent by the Oregon Jaycee organization to the International tournament. They will vie for nine trophies presented by the Coca-Cola Bottling company, co-sponsor of the event, and for $2500 in college scholarships.

Hanlon Tops PCL Hurlers

San Francisco — Pitcher Dick Hanlon of Los Angeles, with a perfect 4-0 record, leads the Pacific Coast League earned run averages with a 1.54, according to statistics released today and including Sunday's games.

Hanlon has appeared in five games, pitched 41 innings, struck out 12, walked 12.

Benny Daniels of Hollywood has the most wins—6 against no defeats, but his ERA is 2.38.

Frank Kellert of San Francisco is the top hitter in the league with a .359 mark—nine points up from last week. He also leads in total number of hits with 51. Joe Taylor of Seattle leads in homers, 10, and runs batted-in, 24.

The strikeout leader is Curt Raydon of Hollywood with 44.

MHS Running Third in Golf Tourney

Portland — The Black Tornado golf team was running third yesterday with a 308 at the half way point of the state high school golf tournament here at Glendoveer golf course.

Medford trails first place Milwaukee by five strokes and second place Central Catholic by one stroke going into today's final 18-hole round.

Tom Hamlin led Tornado linksmen yesterday with a 74. He was followed by Dick Copple, 76; Stewart Schroeder, 78; and Phil Mongrison, 80.

Portland — Milwaukie held a four-stroke lead over Central Catholic today at the half-way mark in the annual 36-hole Oregon High School golf championships.

Milwaukie shot a four-man total of 303, led by Tom Shaw's 73. Central Catholic had a 307, Medford a 308, Eugene and Lake Oswego 309, Beaver-ton 312, Marshfield 313, Seaside 314, Astoria 316, Ontario 317 and Grant 318. The rest of the field trailed far behind.

Individual honors for the day went to Astoria's Tom Wells with a 71.

Tom Hamlin led Medford with a 74.

Tony DeMarco, Walter Byars Vie On Wednesday

New York — Welterweight contenders Tony DeMarco and Walter Byars will square off at the Boston Garden next Saturday night in the week's best fight, without benefit of television.

Price-checker Eddie Borden says ex-world champion DeMarco of Boston is favored at 12-5 to beat Byars of Roxbury, Mass., despite Byars' impressive victory over Sugar Hart in March. DeMarco is still ranked No. 1 among contenders; Byars ninth.

Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., No. 2 lightweight contender, is favored at 17-5 to beat Toothpick Brown of Philadelphia. Brown is unrated among the top 10, but he is a dangerous puncher. Their 10-rounder will be televised and broadcast nationally by ABC.

Randy Sandy of Washington, D.C., and Virgil Akins of St. Louis, two unranked middleweights, meet in a TV-radio NBC 10-rounder at the Capital Arena in Washington Friday night. Sandy is favored at 8-5.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Wednesday: Detroit (Olympia) Kenny Lane vs. Toothpick Brown.
Thursday: Los Angeles: Lulu Perez vs. Julian Valasquez; Flint, Mich.: Mickey Crawford vs. Wallace (Bud) Smith; Spokane, Wash.: Jimmy Carter vs. Buddy McDonald; Revere, Mass.: Dick Hall vs. Andrea Gonzales; Vancouver, B.C.: Eddie Cotton vs. Al Hogan.
Friday: Washington (Capital) Arena Randy Sandy vs. Virgil Akins; St. Louis: Gil Cadillac vs. Bob Courchesne.

Killium Cops Heavy Climb

Bob Killium, Grants Pass, was first and Jack Haster, Grants Pass, was second last week end in the motorcycle climb on the 1,000-stretch on Applegate hill. Killium had the best time of :25.5.

Walt Sargent, Grants Pass, took first and Harry Elledge, Rogue River, second, in the middleweight competition. Don Foose was winner in the lightweight machine division.

Rogue Valley Riders Motorcycle club was sponsor. Don Sample was starter, Jack White announcer and referee and Ken Tucker flagman.

Portland — The University of Portland registered its 19th baseball win of the season with an easy 14-3 win over Portland State college Monday.

Bauer May Face Suit

New York — Outfielder Hank Bauer of the New York Yankees will go to bat in his own defense today at the district attorney's office.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Karl Grebow said Bauer will be asked to describe a brawl that took place last Thursday morning at the Copacabana night club, when Edward Jones, a delicatessen owner, was bopped in the nose.

Jones claims Bauer did the bopping, but the husky Yankee star has denied the charge.

Jones and his attorney, Anthony Zingales, also will be present at the district attorney's office. Zingales said his client, an admitted Yankee fan, is determined to press a charge of felonious assault against Bauer and to bring suit against the outfielder for $250,000.

The alleged attack took place while Bauer and four other members of the Yankees were honoring teammate Billy Martin at a birthday party at the night club. Yogi Berra, Mickey Mantle, Johnny Kucks and Whitey Ford were the other Yankees in attendance.

Jones first declined to "make a case of it," but was cautioned by his lawyer not to let his "love of the Yankees" prevent him from pressing charges against Bauer.

Promoter Hoping For Title Fight

New York — Promoter Emil Lence said today he hasn't given up hope of signing Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson for a title fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Lippe Breidbart, Jackson's manager, has demanded a $150,000 guarantee and $25,000 training expenses, Lence said. He added these demands were "so incredibly high for a challenger that he (Jackson) is either afraid to fight Patterson again or someone behind the scenes is holding him back."

Frank Ernaga

Chicago — The Chicago Cubs today purchased outfielder Frank Ernaga from the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league and released the much-travelled Bobby Del Greco to Monteral of the International league.

A club announcement said Ernaga was purchased primarily to "strengthen the bench," with the idea of using him in pinch-hitting roles against left handed Pitcher. Ernaga was with Tulsa of the western league last year, hit 18 home runs, batted in 97 runs, and had a .273 average.
