EAGLE POINT Jaycee Officers Installed

By MRS. THOMAS SMITH

Eagle Point—Two boys from Eagle Point High school who qualified from this district for the state track meet held at Ore. State college surprised many by winning the state A-2 track and field championship. This division includes all high schools in Oregon with enrollments between 150 and 500 students. Jack Greb and Wayne Christian scored 40 points for Eagle Point in winning the first place trophy. The boys accompanied by their coach, Stan Smith, will journey to Portland this coming week end where on Saturday they will compete in the Oregon AAU Track and Field championship meet.

Eagle Point Jaycee officers were installed Saturday May 18 at their Charter Banquet by Dick Stratton, district 10 vice-president from Central Point. Members of the chapter were installed by Dale Bartley of Central Point and the newly elected charter president, Bart Simmons, was installed by Ron James, national director of Jaycees from Medford.

John Smock, Central Point chapter, presented pins to all members. Keynote speaker of the evening Monte Montgomery, past state president, who spoke on the importance of the Jaycee organization and awarded the charter to the new chapter. Other speakers were Jake Olsen, Eagle Point city councilman, who welcomed the new organization on behalf of the city; Ron James, national director, and Bert Simmons, Eagle Point charter president.

Homer Billups of Central Point was toastmaster. Larry Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer, was awarded the Teen Age Road-e-o plaque which was presented by member Chuck Martin.

Among guests were Jack Greb, Wayne Christian, Norm Hooper, David Huffman and Coach Stan Smith who had just returned from the state track meet at Corvallis.

Dane (Butchie) Smith was released from the Josephine General hospital in Grants Pass on Saturday, May 18, and has been receiving visitors at his home. He will be permitted to attend school the last day.

John Munshaw, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Munshaw, is expecting to return to school the latter part of the week after being out of school for more than three weeks with the measles and complications from the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark W. Hoefft moved into their new home at 29 West Fifth st. recently. The home was purchased from Don Kimmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nelson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Waddell at dinner Sunday, May 12.

The Community Bible Church Vacation Bible school will start Monday, June 3, at 9 a.m. ending June 14 with a program in the evening. The sessions each week day are from 9 to 11:30 a.m. for children four through high school age.

Mrs. Maude Morrow from Orting, Wash., has been visiting her brother, W. L. Hurst, and two nieces, Josephine Overdick and Lucille Edgerton, in Eagle Point recently. Mrs. Morrow left for her home in Washington Wednesday.

Donna Hoefft celebrated her 10th birthday with a party in her new home. Invited guests were Barbara Hopper, Susan Hayes, Dee Dee Sweet, Sharon Short, Lynn Stewart, J. D. Sweet, Billy Keaton, Billy and Tommy Hoefft, Ricky Chamberlain, and Larry Hickman. Cake and ice cream were served and various games played.

The same evening Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ruozzi and children, Patty and Sherry, arrived from Medford with Mrs. Ethel Hoefft and Mrs. Maude Lockwood to visit. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Pokey Smith Jr., formerly of Eagle Point, now living on Klamath river.

The Eagle Point Elementary PTA will hold the last meeting of the school year on their regular date, Tuesday, May 28, in the school gymnasium. The meeting will feature installation of officers and action on a motion tabled at the last regular meeting. The school chorus will present their spring concert under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Berryman, music instructor.

Ellen Callaghan and Shirley Hanson reached the semi-finals in the state tennis tournament at Corvallis last week end. The girls were defeated by McMinnville who went on to win the state doubles championship.

Millie Haynie won fourth in the state in the Knights of Pythias speaking contest at Portland Saturday, May 18. Millie was entered as the speech champion from southern Oregon.

Award night at the Eagle Point High school will be held Monday, May 27, at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium. Awards will be made for achievements during the year scholastically and in sports. The public has been invited and no admission being charged. The Industrial Art shop will be open before and after the program for viewing projects.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday, May 26, at 8 p.m. The Rev. Kirkland D. West of Medford will speak. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw, Community Bible church, will give the invocation, and the Rev. Gerald Smith of the Reese Creek church the benediction. The class flower is the rose and class colors are pink and silver.

Buddy Poppy Sale Scheduled May 31

Veterans of Foreign Wars will conduct their annual Buddy Poppy sale throughout the nation Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25.

The annual sale started in 1922. The poppies are assembled by disabled veterans in government hospitals. One cent of each contribution is given for support of the VFW national home for widows and orphans and 1½ cent is given to state rehabilitation service. More than $6,000,000 of the poppy sale funds have been used in carrying out assistance to veterans by national and department service officers.

More than half of all money received from the sale of Buddy Poppies remains with the local posts and auxiliaries for welfare aid they dispense in their own areas.

STRANGE EQUIPMENT

Cincinnati — William Stokes, 57, bishop of the Spiritual Church of God charged with carrying a blackjack, told police it was for the "protection of myself and my congregation." He said the bottle of gin he was carrying was for "sacred purposes."

Nickel Exploration Work Being Surveyed

Cave Junction—John White, president of Chemical and Metallurgical Enterprises, Inc., of Salt Lake City, arrived Monday to survey nickel exploration work being done on Woodcock Mountain.

The Salt Lake City company, together with the New Delhi Mining company of Toronto, Canada, have formed the Nickel Corporation of America, which is conducting the extensive core drilling and laboratory work necessary before a refining plant can be planned in this area.

According to reports, findings, so far have either equaled or exceeded expectations on amount and grade of the nickel ore on Woodcock. Work on Eight Dollar mountain has not yet been started except for preliminary road surveys and clearing.

Cottage Grove Man Named GOP Chairman

Salem — Loran L. Stewart, Cottage Grove lumberman, has been appointed Republican state finance chairman by J. F. Short, Salem, GOP state chairman.

Stewart, who takes office immediately, replaces Stanley Goddell, Portland, who resigned recently. He served three terms in the state legislature as a representative from Lane county. In the 1955 session he was chairman of the House taxation committee, after previously heading the House Forestry and Mining committee.

Bird Builds Nest; RAF Truck Stays Put

Laarbrueck, Germany — American photo crews arriving here for reconnaissance exercise "Royal Flush" were startled by British refusal to move a RAF photo laboratory truck blocking the entrance to a parking area.

"The truck stays there, guv'nor," a RAF sergeant told them. "This area is strictly for the birds."

A chaffinch had built its nest on the truck's hood.
