

Tranquilizers Taken with Alcohol Could Produce Delayed Effect

San Francisco—What happens to a person who mixes popular tranquilizing drugs with social drinking?

—There can be a delayed effect. A person using a tranquilizer could take a drink and notice no change. Yet he could be "hit" some time later—while driving a car, for example. Any of the current tests for drunkenness might show the alcoholic content of his blood to be below the .15 per cent stage. But, according to the scientists, the person might actually be "dead drunk."

Dr. Thomas M. Burbridge and Dr. Violette E. Sutherland, both pharmacologists, carried out their study at the University of California Medical Research Center under the supervision of Dr. Alexander Simon, clinic superintendent of the California Department of Mental Hygiene and medical director of the Langley Porter Neuropsychiatric clinic.

Their findings were contained in the first report of the State Alcoholic Rehabilitation Commission on research and treatment of alcoholism in California.

Burbridge told United Press, "The tranquilizer apparently facilitates the uptake by the brain of alcohol. But the brain chemistry of the effect is something we plan on researching further. There is no doubt in our minds, however, of the observable effects, clinically and experimentally, of using the two tranquilizers and alcohol together."

"The experiments with the alcoholics and the students was most marked," Burbridge said. "We have a group of 19 alcoholics to work with. The first week we gave them alcohol alone, the next week the tranquilizer—in this case chlorpromazine—and alcohol together."

"The behavior pattern was far different in all but one case. They simply got drunk quicker and there was a change in their overt behavior."

Effect Was Bizarre

The students who participated in the tests were given .8 of a gram of bourbon whiskey per kilogram (2.2 lbs.) of body weight. Roughly translated this is about four jiggers for a man weighing 160 pounds.

"The effect, when given with a tranquilizer or its chemical equivalent, was bizarre to say the least," Burbridge said. "They not only got gay, but many of them tried to put each other in showers and things like that. Most were quite stable with alcohol alone."

Burbridge added, "All of these experiments were under controlled conditions. That's why we can be so certain of our findings on such a small number of persons observed clinically."

On the basis of the tests, Burbridge is worried about the "possibly grave effects" on society of combining tranquilizers and social drinking.

"When you consider that the use of these drugs is by mentally troubled persons, many of them potential alcoholics, the problem becomes dangerous," he said. "For many of these persons, drinking as such is not socially acceptable, but the effect upon them can be the same. Then, if coupled with only mild social drinking, it can become positively dangerous."

Mr. and Mrs. William McCart are enlarging their lawn space by putting a lawn on the back part of their lot.

Everyone in the community is reminded of the school picnic Friday. A basket type family group lunch is planned for this year because of the growth of the community and the convenience of serving.

Parents unable to attend should send a sack lunch with their children. Coffee, punch, and ice cream will be served by the PTA and the school. Those attending are asked to bring their table service and coffee cups. Buses will run as usual that morning and at 1:30 when school will be dismissed for the day.

The Rev. and Mrs. Martin Brown were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knight, after church on Mothers' day. They returned in the afternoon to their home at Bridgeview near Cave Junction for the evening services.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knight and, Gerald, went to Klamath Falls

Shrimp Boat Sent for 4 Marooned Persons

Miami—The Civil Aeronautics Administration dispatched a shrimp boat to tiny Swan Island 600 miles southwest of here today to pick up four persons marooned after their schooner cracked up.

Edgar Hamper, a ham radio operator in Hialeah, Fla., reported Wednesday night that he had contacted the island and notified the CAA.

Hamper said they identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. Shep Bingham of Silver Springs, Md., and two American sailors.

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

IF YOU'RE NOT TRADING AT THE GROCETERIA YOU'RE PAYING TOO MUCH!

EXTRA FANCY No. 1—PLUMP MEATY FRESH—NOT FROZEN

FRYING CHICKENS

Yes, GROWN in Southern Oregon PROCESSED in Southern Oregon SOLD for folks in Southern Oregon

WHOLE DRAWN— PAN READY

43^c lb.

Meat Prices In This Ad Good Through Saturday, May 25

TENDER—LEAN SHOULDER

Pork Roast 37^c lb.

U.S. GRADED CHOICE

PRIME RIB Roast AGED TO PERFECTION 69^c lb.

LEAN

Pork Steaks FROM YOUNG, TENDER PORK 49^c lb.

SWIFTS PREMIUM Sliced Bacon 59^c lb.

Free! LADIES PLASTIC RAIN HAT (Retail value 39c)

1-lb. Morrell's Pride SKINLESS FRANKS 92c Value

Both For 53^c

DELICIOUS SLICED Table Ready MEATS

Swift Premium Brand 25 VARIETIES

Sliced Table Ready Meats to Choose From A Choice for All for All Meals Taste before you buy. Demonstration Friday and Saturday

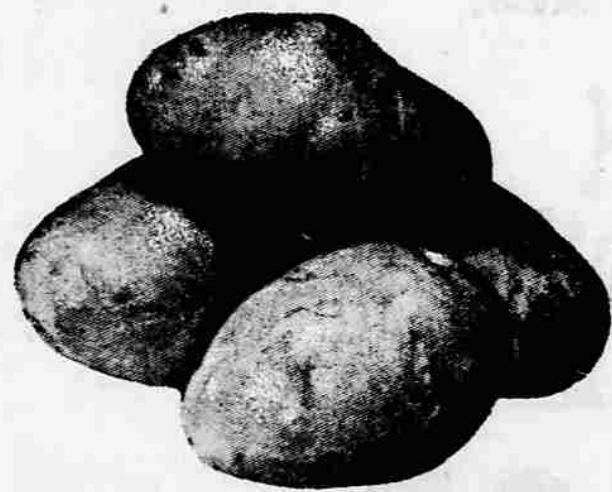

Bologna—Head Cheese—Lunch Tongue—Pickle and Pimiento—Macaroni and Cheese—Olive Loaf and Savoy Loaf

25^c ea. 6-oz. Pkg.

Groceteria FRESH PRODUCE

CALIFORNIA NEW RED ...

No. 1 POTATOES 10 lbs. 35^c

FULL OF ENERGY AND KIND TO YOUR BUDGET

SWEET ONIONS—California Red For Salads and Creaming 3 lbs. 29^c

SLICING CUCUMBERS BLENDS WITH ANY SALAD 2 lbs. 25^c

CRISP—CRUNCHY

ZUCCHINI SQUASH 2 lbs. 25^c TENDER YOUNG DELICATE FLAVOR

BELL PEPPERS SMALL SIZE 29^c lb.

CARROTS FANCY PKG. 2 pkgs. 25^c

FREE!! BUNCH OF PARSLEY With Any Purchase of Produce

GRANDVIEW-LONE PINE Roxy Gardeners Attend Show

By LILLIAN KNIGHT

Grandview-Lone Pine—Roxy Gardeners met at the home of Mrs. H. Chetler Drew May 8. They then went to Central Point where a flower show was held by the various garden clubs of the county in the Grange hall. The theme of the show was Treasure Chest. Several of the Roxy Gardeners brought home ribbons for their displays.

Sunday where they visited Mrs. Eloise Hayden and her son, John Alan, and Mrs. Haydens' grandmother who is visiting her there from Pennsylvania.

The parents of Mrs. Howard Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Gosselin, returned to their home in Port Angeles, Wash., May 13 after spending two weeks vacationing and visiting at the Huffman home.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCart are enlarging their lawn space by putting a lawn on the back part of their lot.

Everyone in the community is reminded of the school picnic Friday. A basket type family group lunch is planned for this year because of the growth of the community and the convenience of serving.

Parents unable to attend should send a sack lunch with their children. Coffee, punch, and ice cream will be served by the PTA and the school. Those attending are asked to bring their table service and coffee cups. Buses will run as usual that morning and at 1:30 when school will be dismissed for the day.

The Rev. and Mrs. Martin Brown were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knight, after church on Mothers' day. They returned in the afternoon to their home at Bridgeview near Cave Junction for the evening services.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knight and, Gerald, went to Klamath Falls

Shrimp Boat Sent for 4 Marooned Persons

Miami—The Civil Aeronautics Administration dispatched a shrimp boat to tiny Swan Island 600 miles southwest of here today to pick up four persons marooned after their schooner cracked up.

Edgar Hamper, a ham radio operator in Hialeah, Fla., reported Wednesday night that he had contacted the island and notified the CAA.

Hamper said they identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. Shep Bingham of Silver Springs, Md., and two American sailors.

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange

The annual memorial service was given for the departed members of the Central Point Grange at the meeting on May 17.

The two members honored this year were Ruth Sparrow and Henry Maurey.

A floral spray was placed on the altar during a candlelight March led by the chaplain, followed by Flora and the secretary who read the names. A tableau was then presented on the stage, depicting "faith," which was portrayed by Mrs. Win Arnold, Mrs. O. T. Wilson and Mrs. Harold Gebhard. The quartet, composed of Mrs. Delmer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Chester Wendt, sang "My Faith Looks up to Thee," "In the Garden" and "Abide With Me." Mrs. Effie Kurz sang "Give Us This Day".

Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer had charge of the tableau and also gave a reading. A rose and peony spray was displayed by Mrs. Charles Jantzer, who demonstrated to the members how one can make their own memorial sprays.

Reports were heard from all standing committees, Delmer Smith was elected as alternate delegate to attend the State Grange and Chuck Taylor was elected as insurance delegate. Ballots were cast in favor of new members Edith Lillian Arnell and Kenneth Russell Arnell.

Delmer Smith reported that two trucks were available, for a small fee, to conservation members. Mr. Warren offered to give the Grange a lawn mower if someone would pick it up.

Mr. Chester Wendt brought a letter she had received from a family in Germany after they had been sent a package by the Grange through CARE. Julius Dobrot, who speaks German, read the letter.

Roscoe Roberts, state Grange steward and Mrs. Roberts were present. Mrs. Roberts, HEC chairman for Pomona, advised all who are planning to enter the sewing contest to have material at the Pomona meeting May 25.

After refreshments, gifts were presented to two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Walters, and Mr. and Mrs. I. Cutberth. For this occasion Mrs. Kurtz sang "I Love You Truly." Congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt upon their 34th wedding anniversary.

The lunch committee was Mr. and Mrs. Ben Darris, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jeffries and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Edwards.

Grassland available for grazing in the U. S. has decreased by about 131 million acres or 16 per cent from 1900-1950.

Grange Notes

Central Point Grange