Rated Nation's Top

Hank Thompson to Play at Ballroom

Hank Thompson, folk songs singer of Capitol records, and his western swing band, the Brazos Valley Boys, will play for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Saturday, May 25, at Rogue Valley ballroom. His performance will be for one night.

Thompson, who is also a song writer, has been a band leader for about five years. For about four years the band has been voted the nation's top western band in polls conducted by several trade journals.

Since he sang "Humpty Dumpty Heart" in 1948, which sold more than million copies, Thompson has sold more than 18 million records. In the last eight years, he has had 27 of his records listed among the "top ten" played by juke boxes, disc jockeys and retail stores.

During World War II he enlisted in the Navy. He served in 16 states and overseas, where he helped introduce country music.

Petition Seeks Change In School Boundary

The Jackson county district boundary board will hold a hearing at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, May 29, to consider a petition from two Shady Cove residents for a change of boundary from the Elk-Trail school district to the Shady Cove district.

The petition stated that if the boundary were changed their children would not have to walk on a narrow highway as they now must do. The petition added the property involved in the request is closer to the Shady Cove school than to the Elk-Trail school.

The property includes several lots in the area known as Rogue Acres and one government lot adjacent to the Rogue Acres section.

Members of the boundary board are Alk B. Mekvold, county school superintendent, secretary of the board; Chester H. Wendt and Ralph James, county commissioners; and County Judge Rodney Keating, chairman of the board.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THIRTEEN

Sharon Plantz Said In Fair Condition

Sharon Plantz, 16, of 225 Lincoln rd., Grants Pass, was reported in "fair" condition but still unconscious at Rogue Valley hospital today.

Miss Plantz, driver of a vehicle which struck a cement truck May 17 on Highway 99 on Blackwell hill, is suffering serious head injuries. She and five other Grants Pass High school girls were hospitalized as a result of the accident. They were en route to Jackson Hot Springs for a senior class "skip day."

Three of the other accident victims are still hospitalized. Yvonne Erickson, 17, patient at Rogue Valley hospital, was reported in good condition, while Dixie Lee Turk, 17, and Charlene Palmer, 16, patients at Sacred Heart hospital, were reported in satisfactory condition today. All are of Grants Pass.

Two other passengers in the car, Virginia Splithof, 16, Grants Pass, and Jo Ann Wood, 17, Rogue River, have been released from Sacred Heart hospital.

Applications Asked For Bus Franchise

Portland—(U.P.)—Mayor Terry D. Schunk Thursday invited any person or firm to apply for a bus franchise here.

He said he wanted the city to enter into negotiations "as soon as possible" to provide an economical mass transportation system for Portland. Utilities Commissioner N. A. Boody said Tuesday a new traction company there may be formed in a "week."

Meanwhile, the Rose City Transit company, currently operating in Portland, offered to negotiate a new franchise.

Washougal, Wash.—(U.P.)—The city council today sought a new mayor to replace R. J. "Jack" Ross, who has resigned for "reasons of health" and imposition upon his working time. The resignation is effective June 3.

Forestry Clubs Plan Overnight Trip

Jackson county 4-H forestry club members will go on an overnight trip June 7 and 8 at Four Bit Ford forest station near Butte Falls.

They will visit Rock Point emergency lookout, the city of Medford reforestation area and will also participate in treasure hunts of forest specimens and pacing contests.

Leaders of the 4-H clubs and Glenn Klein and Miss Marjorie Hattan, county 4-H agents, will accompany the youths.

Program for the event was organized yesterday by club leaders, Klein and Douglas Finch, district assistant with the forestry service, who inspected possible sites Thursday. Leaders assisting with the program planning were Mrs. John Bohrer, Central Point; Mrs. A. A. Smith, Medford; Mrs. Ivan Skyrman, Central Point; and H. G. Davies, Butte Falls.

REAL HEP DENTIST

Davenport, Iowa—(U.P.)—Mrs. Opal Hurst of Bettendorf has filed suit against a dentist for fitting her with what she called "rock 'n' roll dentures." Mrs. Hurst, in seeking $130 damages and $5,000 for mental and physical pain, said the teeth not only rock 'n' roll but also "click and slip and slide."

Said 'Dawdling Along'

London—(U.P.)—The crew of the Mayflower II whistled for a wind today after reporting the replica of the Pilgrim Fathers' ship was "dawdling along" and had covered only 61 miles in the last 24 hours.

Capt. Alan Villiers radioed that the Mayflower was about 1,000 miles from the West Indies on its trip from Britain to the United States.

"Still dawdling along," Villiers messaged. "Trade winds poor, but all well."
