

Smith-Guiley Ceremony Held At St. Mark's Church Here

A ceremony held at St. Mark's Episcopal church on Saturday, May 18, wedded Miss Kathleen Anne Guiley to Lt. Justin Meredith Smith. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Guiley, 605 Park street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Justin Bailey Smith, 21 Geneva street, this city.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's church, read the double-ring marriage service at two o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Guiley gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Kathy Barr, cousin of the bridegroom, was soloist for the ceremony.

For the wedding the bride wore a gown of embroidered net designed with fitted bodice and ballerina length skirt made in tiers and a long-sleeved bolero jacket.

She carried a white prayer book with a spray of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses and her chapel length veil was held by a pearl coronet. The pearl necklace she wore is an heirloom in the bridegroom's family and was his gift to his bride.

Miss Dorothy McGraw was the bride's only attendant. Her pastel blue frock was of eyelet nylon fashioned ballerina length and was worn with a tiara of blue tulle with brief veil. Her flowers were a nosegay of pink carnations.

Nicholas D. Smith, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was his best man. Seating the guests were Philip Bennett, cousin of the bride from Dixon, Calif., Shannon Oldham and Fred Bell, Eugene, both fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, and Robert Rasmussen.

White iris and pink snapdragons filled the altar vases and the May baskets which decorated the church.

Mrs. Guiley wore a dress of periwinkle blue lace with matching hat and pink camellia corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath frock of champagne lace with flowered hat and pink camellia corsage.

The reception which followed the wedding was held at Mon Desir inn. Pouring were Mrs.

Warren G. Moody, Fresno, Calif., aunt of the bride and Mrs. M. D. Field, formerly of Medford, Mrs. Burt Kloster, Davis, Calif., and Mrs. Max Guiley, relatives of the bride, cut the bride's cake, and Mrs. Cecil C. Clemens, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the bridegroom's cake. Also assisting with the reception were the Misses Judy Finegan and Marcia Mills, Mrs. Duane Gleaves, Mrs. Ed Peer and Mrs. Norton Smith. Miss Alexa Hibbard took charge of the guest book.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Burt Kloster, Davis, Miss Minerva Kloster, San Francisco, and Mrs. Warren G. Moody, Fresno, Mrs. Kloster and Mrs. Moody being aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ketner, Eugene, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Guiley, Roseburg, cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knox, Brookings, friends of the bridegroom's family, Miss Marcia Mills and Miss Nancy Castle of the University of Oregon.

Following the rehearsal Friday evening the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a buffet dinner at their home. Members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests attended.

Lieutenant Smith and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco and Carmel, Calif., the bride wearing for traveling a navy blue suit with white accessories. The bride was graduated from Medford High school and is completing her second year at the University of Oregon. Lieutenant Smith is a graduate of Medford High school and the University of Oregon, and is a member of the university chapter of Phi Kappa Psi. He will report soon at Fairbanks, Alaska, for duty with the United States Air Force and Mrs. Smith will join him about July 1.

Lt. and Mrs. Justin Meredith Smith are shown leaving St. Mark's Episcopal church after their wedding May 18. The bride is the former Kathleen Anne Guiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Guiley, 605 Park street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Justin Bailey Smith, 21 Geneva street, Medford. The newlyweds are pictured below in their travel clothes just before leaving for a honeymoon in San Francisco and Carmel, Calif. (Landis-Shangle photos)

Student Chosen By Honor Society

Dean Earhart, student at the University of Oregon Dental school in Portland, has been made a member of Omicron Kappa Upsilon, honor society for dentistry students. The student is a son of Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Earhart, 11 North Peach street. The young man will be graduated from the school June 13 in Portland, and his parents plan to attend the ceremonies. He already holds a degree in pharmacy from Oregon State college, and took his pre-dental studies at the University of Oregon.

Society Initiates Carolyn Clogston

Eugene—Miss Carolyn Clogston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Clogston, 2138 West Main street, Medford, was initiated into Pi Delta Phi, French honor society, here May 15, at an initiation dinner. Miss Clogston is a sophomore in education.

A 2.75 grade point average with a 3.0 average in French is required for selection to the honorary.

Newlywed Couple Lives in Eugene

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. John Danielson, whose wedding took place March 24 in Rose-light chapel, Eugene, are living at 467½ West Tenth street, Eugene. The bride is the former Gwenn Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie B. Moore, Route 1, Box 588, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Danielson, Seaside, Ore.

Mr. Danielson is studying at the University of Oregon for his doctor's degree in education, and will be graduated June 9. He has accepted a teaching position at Myrtle Point, Ore., and the couple will move to that town in August.

The bride, member of a well known Jackson county family, was graduated from Crater high school and attended the University of Oregon. While in school here she was active in 4-H club work. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anlo Penwell, who have lived in Medford for 50 years.

Tour of Homes Planned To Raise Kindergarten Funds

Seeking "something new" as a means of earning money, members of Junior Service league in Medford is offering a tour of five valley homes on Tuesday, June 4. This method of earning money for worthy causes is popular in many communities and cities, but has not been used in Jackson county for many years.

Five homes which offer wide variety of architecture, decorations, furnishings and grounds, were selected by the league. Open for the tour will be the homes of Mrs. Floyd Hart, Grant road; Mr. and Mrs. John C.

Boyle, Ross lane, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Old Stage road; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Skinner and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graff, both on Hillside drive. League members point out that those making the tour will find it entertaining and profitable from a number of viewpoints. Those seeking ideas for construction, equipment or furnishings will find these in abundance, those wishing merely to enjoy beautiful rooms furnished tastefully in a variety of periods and with valuable and interesting art objects will also be able to satisfy their wishes.

Mrs. Hart's home is colonial in nature, with white painted exterior, long entrance hall with twin stairways at either side and with living room and dining room at opposite sides of the house. For many years Mrs. Hart and her husband, business and civic leader in the valley at the time of his death, collected English and American antiques and these provide interest for visitors.

Golden Wedding To Be Observed

An open house will be held Sunday, June 2, honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchins of 870 Garfield street, Medford, on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The open house will be held from 2 until 5 p.m. and will be given by two of the Hutchins' sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hutchins and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hutchins.

The Hutchins were married June 1, 1907 in Falls City, Ore., and lived many years in the Willamette valley. They have lived in Phoenix and Medford since 1945 having moved here from Trinidad, Calif.

The Hutchins have two other sons, Gerald Hutchins of Renton, Wash., and Harry Hutchins of Madera, Calif.

Friends of the couple are invited to attend the open house.

Duplicate Club Has New Director

Riverside Bridge club announces that in the future meetings will be held each Wednesday afternoon at 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatton, 819 Minnesota avenue. Mrs. Hatton has taken over the direction of the bridge club from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, it was announced.

Mrs. Hatton, one of the original directors of the bridge club, turned it over to the Pruitts when the Hattons left for South Dakota. As Medford is now their permanent home, Mrs. Hatton will again direct the Duplicate club.

All people interested in playing duplicate bridge on Wednesday afternoons are invited to call Mrs. Hatton for details.

The Boyle home is of recent construction and combines natives stone and wood construction in a pleasing manner. The architecture and decor are combinations of English and American western ideas which are particularly suitable for Oregon climate and style of living and entertaining. Mrs. Boyle enjoys gardening, and has achieved a harmonious effect with lawns, trees, shrubs and flowering plants.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, Topsides, is located in an orchard on the hill above the Old Stage road and is one of the largest and most formally furnished of homes in the Rogue valley. The Carpenters furnished their home with rugs and hangings brought from many parts of the world and visitors interested in art objects will find much to interest them in this home. The setting of the home, with terraces, swimming pool and outdoor recreation areas, is also noteworthy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Skinner's home on Hillside drive is the newest of the five, having been finished only late last summer. The house and grounds combine the traditional and contemporary in an interesting and livable manner. In addition to the traditional living room, dining room, kitchen and bedrooms, the home has one of the newer "family rooms." It is heated and cooled with the latest type of equipment. The grounds, yet in the process of being landscaped, have a swimming pool, fish pond

Leaves

F. R. Alley left Friday morning for his home in Pacific Palisades, Calif., after spending the past two weeks in Medford. He flew south with his son, Richard, in the latter's plane.

The elder Mr. Alley divides his time between his home in California and one at 128 Greenway circle next door to the residence of his son and daughter-in-law.

and terraces, and the whole commands a sweeping view of the Rogue valley and surrounding hills.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graff, who have six sons, was chosen because it is a family residence. The Graff home, added to and rearranged many times to make room for the growing family, intrigues the Graff's friends and visitors. It could be considered typically western American, with architecture and furnishings chosen primarily because they are what the family needs and enjoys at work or play.

Guests making the tour may visit any of the homes at any time between two and five o'clock, and tea will be served at one of the homes. League members will serve as hostesses, and will pour for the tea.

Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. Floyd Baker, SP 2-7680, or Mrs. Gilbert Tummy, SP 2-7400. These will be limited to 300 persons. Proceeds will go for operation of the league kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.
