Miss Lena Mae Tibbits Bride of Gerald Symens

Eagle Point—Miss Lena Mae Tibbits, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Tibbits of Eagle Point, became the bride of Gerald Lee Symens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickenson of Shady Cove in a ceremony held Thursday May 9 at the Eagle Point Community Bible church.

The Rev. Joseph J. Munshaw officiated at the double ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening and attended by 150 relatives and friends.

For her wedding the bride wore a white lace and tulle floor length dress fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and Stephanotis.

Miss Lois Farlow was honor attendant. Other attendants were Mrs. Glen Cave of Medford, and Miss Linda Mallory. They wore dresses of pink and lavender net and carried white carnation corsages with ribbon and lace that matched their dresses. Candelighters were Miss Barbara Tibbits of Grants Pass and Miss Maxine Abbott of Roseburg, cousins of the bride. Their dresses were of yellow net and their wrist bouquets were of lavender flowers.

White lilies and spirea decorated the church for the ceremony. The decorations were arranged by Mrs. Mattie Brown. Mrs. Ray Chamberlain played the traditional organ wedding music, and Mrs. John Millard was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tibbits chose a turquoise print silk dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Dickenson wore a pink and avocado colored dress with avocado duster and white accessories. Her flowers were white gardenias.

Following the wedding a reception was held. Mrs. Edward Chamberlain and Mrs. John Noble cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Dixie Dixon and Mrs. Don Kimmel poured while Miss Barbara Brugger was in charge of the guest book. Miss Jean Mitchell was at the gift table.

Grants Pass — Miss Caroline Gertrude Faust of Grants Pass and Charles Edward White of Rogue River were married Sunday afternoon, May 19, in the Fireside room of First Presbyterian church, Chowchilla, Calif. The Rev. Walter M. Sutherland officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The room was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, stock, and greenery at either side of the fireplace, and a low arrangement of white daisies and fern graced the mantle before which the couple said their vows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Wesley L. Faust. Her gown was fashioned of blue lace and net over taffeta, with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a Bible given to her mother by her parents, and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Upton was the bride's only attendant. Her dress was of white eyelet embroidery over pink taffeta made princess style, with a large pink bow forming a bustle. She carried a colonial bouquet fashioned of pink rosebuds.

George W. Kidston, Ephrata, Wash., a college roommate of the bridegroom, served as best man. Before the exchange of vows John L. Fry sang.

The bride's mother wore a dress of dusty rose lace, and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue-grey suit. Both wore rosebud corsages.

For her going away costume the bride chose a light blue suit with pink blouse and accessories.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley L. Faust of Chowchilla. She was graduated from Chowchilla Union High school with the class of 1950 and received her bachelor of science degree from Oregon State college in 1954. She is presently employed as a county extension agent in Josephine county.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. White of Rogue River. He is a graduate of Medford Senior High school and Oregon State College School of Engineering. He is associated with his father in farming at Rogue River.

The newlyweds will be at home at Apartment 4, 861 Northeast Ninth street, Grants Pass, after their honeymoon.

Methodist Church Rites Wed Miss Beene, Joseph Kathrein

Garden flowers decorated First Methodist church Sunday, May 12, for the wedding of Miss Marie Beene and Joseph Kathrein. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated at the three o'clock afternoon wedding attended by 80 friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Beene of 3723 South Pacific highway, Medford. She has been employed as a secretary at First Methodist church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McAlpine of Bates, Ore.

For her wedding the bride wore a white lace and tulle frock over satin fashioned with full skirt and lace flounce and fitted lace bodice. Her veil was elbow length and she carried a bouquet of baby rosebuds and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Jack Boettcher was honor attendant and Mrs. Earl Barnes and Mrs. James Wells, all sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length frocks of nylon net in pastel shades and carried bouquets of pink carnations made by Mrs. McAlpine. Flower girls were Judith Boettcher and Christine Barnes, nieces of the bride. Candelighters were Miss Sharon Boettcher and Miss Carolyn Beene, also nieces of the bride. Their dresses were of nylon in shades of blue, green, and pink.

Jack Boettcher served as best man and James Wells, Earl Barnes, Harvey Beene, and Lyle Beene Jr., seated the guests. Kenneth Boettcher was ring bearer.

Mrs. Jerry Sherman played the traditional organ wedding music and Herbert Daniels was the vocal soloist. The flowers that decorated the church and the rooms where the reception was held were from the garden of Guy Lunceford, Ashland, uncle of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Beene chose a navy blue with white dot dress with white accessories. Mrs. McAlpine wore a rose dress with white accessories.

Out of town guest was Mrs. Nettie Miller, grandmother of the bride from Elko, Nev.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wesley hall of the church.

The newlyweds took a wedding trip to Lyons, Ore., where they will make their home. For her traveling attire the bride wore a white and navy polka dot dress with navy faille duster and ice blue and white accessories.

The bride attended schools in Nevada and Oregon. The bridegroom attended school in California and Oregon and has been making his home in Bates, Ore. He is employed by the Simpson Plywood Mill in Lyons.
