

Butte Falls Club Tours Greenhouse; Officers Elected

Butte Falls — Fourteen members and friends enjoyed luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mattie Carson, Medford, before making a tour of the Hoppe greenhouse. Mr. Hoppe explained the care and growth of orchids. Blooms were a little scarce at this time because of the heavy demands for recent school activities.

At the business session the report of the nominating committee was accepted and officers elected. They are Mrs. Lee Sheppard, president; Mrs. Carson, vice-president; Mrs. William Edmondson, secretary; Mrs. Fred Kincaid, treasurer; Mrs. Clay Conley, historian.

Mrs. Sheppard and Mrs. Carson were elected delegates to attend the convention of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs at Coos Bay in June.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Bertha Hibbard, Medford and Mrs. William Bowen, Butte Falls.

Books for Brides At Public Library

Prospective brides can obtain information on all aspects of planning a wedding in Elizabeth S. Weston's new handbook, "Good Housekeeping's Complete Wedding Guide," which is available at the Medford Public library. The library also has material on entertaining, table setting, homemaking, cookery, budgeting, and other related subjects.

Are you planning a party? Books at the Medford library on entertaining can be extremely helpful.

Horizon Club Plans Luncheon And Style Show at Country Club

First major project since organization of Amici chapter of Horizon Girls will be a style show and luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday, June 1. Hours are 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from the Horizon girls or by calling Miss Linda Luman, SP 2-7388 in Medford; Miss Lana McGraw, HI 6-3714 in Eagle Point; or Miss Pat Thompson, KE 5-2206 in Talent.

Clothing will be furnished by Parker Woods Leon's store. Mrs. Frank Hopewell is directing the girls in planning the event, and Mrs. Keith Newton is Horizon advisor for Amici chapter.

Two piano accompanists will play during the style show, and the Cres-tions will present several calypso numbers. The group is composed of Paul Smith, Dave Mansfield, Jerry Flakus, Mike King and Ricky Cooper.

The Misses Sharon Roberts of Trail and Molly Gregg of Eagle Point will appear as calypso girls during the luncheon.

Miss Roberts and Miss Rosemary Tokar of Medford will act as commentators and models. Other girls modeling will be the Misses Oveta Walden, Linda Luman of Medford; Edna Gray, Lana McGraw, Martha Ansted of Eagle Point; Joan Huston of Trail; Gail Carter, Pat Thompson, Maria Suksdorf of Talent, Sheryl and Chris Gerety will model little girl clothing.

Horizon girls are new in the valley having been active since only February. The girls attended the first Southern Oregon Horizon Girls conference in Klamath Falls in March and have since been busy planning future programs for next year. They will officially charter their group some time during the summer.

Officers are president, Miss Luman; vice-president, Miss Roberts; secretary, Miss Gray; treasurer, Miss McGraw; scribe, Miss Tokar.

Amici chapter is made up of girls from Trail, Eagle Point, Medford and Talent. As the program grows, plans are under way to have chapters in all districts and they will then have a county wide cabinet which will be composed of representatives from each chapter. These girls will meet to evaluate program and help form new chapters and plan countywide activities with all chapters participating.

Horizon is the senior division of Camp Fire Girls, and members may or may not have been Camp Fire Girls. The program is made up of career planning and social experience including not only parties but learning to be a graceful person in all situations. Service to the community is one of the major accomplishments of most Horizon clubs.

Club Hears Talks By New Members

Four classification talks, which are given by all new members of Zonta club, were heard at the Medford club's luncheon meeting Thursday at the Jackson hotel. Zonta is a classified service club in which there can be only one representative of each business or profession and that representative must either hold an executive position in the business or department of it, be an owner or be representative of a profession.

The first speaker was Mrs. Evelyn Graham, traffic director of radio station KBOY. She said that in this capacity one of her jobs is to prepare the daily program log and also the monthly log. This includes placing spot announcements at the most effective times for best advertising.

Mrs. Nellie Laing, anaesthetist at Rogue Valley hospital said her job was "to put people to sleep." She told briefly of some of the procedures required of her in her profession. Mrs. Virginia Wilson, co-owner of the Lamp shop, described some of the unusual types of lamps made at the shop. Mrs. Ann Rice of City Appliance told of some of the marvels of cooking in an electronic oven.

Workshop

A workshop for flower arranging and corsage making will be held by the Howard Garden club Tuesday, May 28, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. James Wicker, 809 Adams lane. A luncheon will be served at noon followed by a business meeting.

Degree of Honor To Hold Meeting

Degree of Honor Protective association will meet Monday, May 27, at 8 p.m. in Redman hall. Mrs. Clyde Hillyer will be chairman for the evening.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that internal steam helps cook potatoes during baking. Piercing the skin lets that valuable steam escape. And the best test for doneness is to press to see whether the potato is soft, rather than jabbing it with a fork.
