

Ike Makes Gains in Budget Battle With Support From House Leaders

Washington—President Eisenhower today made some gains in the battle of the budget but he still had a long way to go.

The President's principal gain came in the House where GOP leaders lined up strong support behind moves to restore $323 million to the pared-down defense budget.

But that is only 25 per cent of the money Eisenhower has said must be restored in order not to gamble with the nation's security. And GOP leaders said Eisenhower has been told there is no chance of getting that much restored.

Ike, GOP Leaders Confer

Republican congressional leaders headed for the White House this morning for their weekly strategy meeting with the President. They were certain to report to him that.

Economy minded senators are backing the Eisenhower $875 million housing bill in preference to the Democrats' $2,850,000,000 bill. One influential senator said the Eisenhower bill has a good chance of Senate approval. The House already has approved a $2,475,000,000 housing bill.

Senate-House conferees restored $6 million to the battered budget of the U.S. Information Agency. The compromise $36,200,000 budget—$47,800,000 less than Eisenhower requested—was sent back to the House and Senate for final approval.

Religious leaders began an extraordinary three-day appeal to Congress to spare economic aid for foreign nations. Protestant, Catholic and Jewish spokesmen planned to appear at a special hearing of the House Foreign Affairs committee.

Senator Harry Byrd of the Senate Finance committee contended the "defense appropri-tions can be reduced by a substantial amount by just eliminating waste."

"I don't intend to vote to injure the essentials of national defense," the economy-bloc leader declared.

St. Mary's Seniors Receive Awards

Awards to seniors of St. Mary's high school were made at a graduation breakfast for seniors last Sunday.

Carol Moldovan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moldovan, 1107 Brookdale rd., received the Christ the King award.

Best boy-best girl award for service, citizenship and school spirit went to Ronald Pruitt and Marcia Beeler; Rotary club scholarship of $200, Barbara Lickess; honorary scholarship to Loyola university, John Laden Jr.; University of Oregon school of journalism scholastic press awards for yearbook service, Ronald Pruitt and Marcia Beeler.

University of Oregon school of journalism scholastic press award for newspaper service, Miss Muldovan; Quill and Scroll awards, Pruitt and Miss Beeler; certificate for proficiency in typewriting, Lynda Sechler; and bookkeeping contest awards, Alson Geren and Jack Daley.

Other members of the graduating class include John Birming, Jeryl Callahan, David Crevier, James Darland, Dennis Dibble, Mary Kathryn Dugan, David Espey, Mary Ann Fredenburg, David Goodwin, James Miller, Jack Mitchell, Sandra Montgomery, Francis Murphy, Sharon Sakraida, Patrick Sullivan, Andrew Walker and Josephine Whitman.

Byrd made the statement in commenting on Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks' warning Monday to fellow-businessmen not to join the "budget butchers" in a drive to smash the Eisenhower peace-and-prosperity program.

"Think twice before any of you join those who want to tear the heart out of national defense and mutual security," Weeks said.

Singer Settles Auto Crash Suit

Los Angeles—Singer Gordon MacRae has settled a $10,000 damage suit resulting from a traffic accident in December, 1955, but faces litigation on a $125,000 action brought by a woman involved in the crash. The settlement of a $10,000 suit, filed by Leonard Miller, 39, of Van Nuys, Calif., was announced Monday in Superior Court. The singer was reported to have agreed to pay Miller $2,325.

Another case brought by Mrs. Marion Dunn, 38, was scheduled for trial Sept. 12.

Miller charged MacRae with crashing into the back of his car, forcing it into an automobile driven by Mrs. Dunn.
