

Society

Marilyn Says Her Husband Is The Boss

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Correspondent
New York — Her proportions are the same, but her perspective has changed.
This is the Marilyn Monroe of today, one day before she observes her 31st birthday and one month before she and her husband, playwright Arthur Miller, observe their first wedding anniversary.
The blonde actress with the horizontal walk discussed in an interview the changes her third marriage has made in her life, her future as a housewife, and her future as an actress.
"He's the boss of this household," confided Miss M in that breathless type of talk she's made into a national institution. "I don't think the marriage versus career thing ever would come up with us. But if it ever did, our life together comes first."
Has this been a happy year? "Oh yes," she said, "so far as being with the person you want to spend the rest of your life with, I'm mad about the man."
She expressed some concern because of Miller's troubles with a congressional committee and contempt of Congress charges but said "I'm confident that in the end he will win his case."
She and Miller, living at present in an unpretentious but comfortable apartment on Manhattan's East Side, are shopping for "a lot of acreage" somewhere in Connecticut.
"We both love the outdoors," sighed Miss Monroe. "I'm a hick at heart."
"I never felt before that I had roots... that I had a home life. Fine discovery to make at my age!"
Miss Monroe has reached the point of discussing her choice in behavior, decoration, if and when she and Miller find the acreage and build.
"I'd like sort of a contemporary house," said the actress. "Maybe some modern furniture and some old. I think modern can be cozy. But I don't believe in set ideas, like saying that to be chic it has to be French provincial."
The search for a "permanent place" in Connecticut does not mean the actress plans eventually to quit the movies. Matter of fact, she said, "I'm sort of looking forward to the day I can do character parts... when you aren't the star you don't work such long hours. I do want to be a good actress."
Miss Monroe has a commitment for three more pictures at 20th-Century Fox and her new movie, filmed in England, is to be released next month. It is "The Prince and The Showgirl," co-starring Sir Laurence Olivier.
Is there an addition to the family in the Miller's immediate future?
The rumors persist, but Miss Monroe refused comment other than to say "We feel this is a personal thing... When the time comes to say anything we will. Of course, I would like to have children."
At any rate, she said the Monroe chassis still measured the same—37½, 23 and 36.
I noticed that the actress wore a sunburn... another change for the girl who once told a columnist she didn't like to tan "because I like to feel blonde all over."
Layered Meat Loaf
For a change from your usual meat loaf add a center layer of savory stuffing. One of the good packaged stuffings will speed up the preparation if you're in a hurry. Before baking, moisten the finished product with tomato sauce.

Mr. and Mrs. Tod Tibbutt (at left) 2215 East Main street, and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Eitrein, 917 South Ivy street, have returned home after attending the eleventh annual conference of the Western section, National Association of Clinic Managers, held at Sun Valley, Ida. Mr. Tibbutt is manager of Doctors' clinic, and Mr. Eitrein of the Medford clinic. The four are pictured on the final day of the conference at the Union Pacific resort.

Central Point Girl Scouts Hold Annual Ceremonies

Central Point — The annual court-of-awards and fly-up ceremonies for Girl Scouts of the Central Point neighborhood were held recently in the Junior High school library. After the flag ceremony, the singing of America was led by Sharon Trautman.
Second grade Brownies, under the leadership of Mrs. Donald R. Squire, assisted by Mrs. Melvin G. Frick, sang two songs. Singing were, Christine Stith, Debbie Reed, Sheryl St. Germain, Susan Morgan, Pamela Squire, Dale Collinsworth, Sheryl Pfaff, Jo Carol Grissom, Jane Scott, Ruth Anne Griggs and Nancy Armstrong.
Third grade Brownies who sang were Dorie May Grissom, Judy Knapp, Elen Livingston, Alice Klinger, Maggie Rowden, and Gayle Griggs. They were led by Mrs. Everett Grissom, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Livingston.
The fourth grade Brownies "Flew Up" by repeating the ten Girl Scout laws, passing through a rose covered garden gate and being magically touched by a pink and gold fairy. The fairy was Cynthia Stuart. They were then "pinned" by the fifth grade Scouts. Taking part in this were: Terry St. Germain, Terry McManama, Jill Anderson and Margaret Ann Ayres, Christine Moore and Suzanne Conroy, Patty Callender, Nancy Gavin, Suzanne Flynn, Carma Guss, Kathleen Frederick, Mary Thonison, Sheryl Marshall, Linda Bowen, Linda Schneider, Kay Wilson, Linda Caldwell, Kay Thompson, Doris Caldwell, Elaine Wright. The two troops of Brownies were led by Mrs. A. St. Germain assisted by Mrs. H. Flynn. The fifth graders were led by Mrs. E. Giggis, assisted by Mrs. W. Thompson.
Second class badges were presented to the following, in patrol 1: Vicki Caldwell, Carol Mundlin, Carol Straus, Sharon Kelly, Nancy Clemens, Ruth Harger, Betty Lou Martin; Patrol 2: Joyce Anderson, Kathy Collinsworth, Karen Griggs, Mary Ann Taylor, Donna Thompson, Sheila Forrester, Patricia Kohn, Tylene Evans, Anita Kay Townsend; Patrol 3: Barbara Beck, Kristy Chamberlain, Sharon Daniken, Gloria Thompson, Carol Wright, Sue Kelly, Rachel Lopez, Patty Gossman and Elaine Johnson.
Sixth graders, under the leadership of Mrs. W. McLarrin, did a Spanish dance called, "La Raspa." Badges presented to the girls were: skater and cyclist for Judy Patterson, swimmer and cyclist for Janet Pfaff; horse-woman, cat and dog, and needlecraft for Jo Ann Ward; tenderfoot for Sandra Morgan and housekeeping for Jolene Greene.
The seventh and eighth grade girls, under the leadership of Mrs. R. Greene, assisted by Mrs. G. Branch, presented colors, and were awarded the following badges: Mary Stuart, lifesaver, swimmer, homemaker and second class; Patricia Ray, first class.

Beginner-Easy!

by Alice Brooks

Even a beginner can do this easy pickup work! Each square takes little time to crochet — use scraps in varied colors for flowers, white for background!
Pattern 7248: Crochet directions for 4½ inch square in bedspread cotton. A cool summer hobby!
Send THIRTY-FIVE cents in coins for this pattern — add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Medford Mail Tribune, Household Arts Dept., P.O. Box 168, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS and PATTERN NUMBER.
A bonus for our readers—two FREE patterns, printed in our new Alice Brooks Needlecraft Book for 1957! Plus a wonderful variety of designs to order—crochet, knitting, embroidery, huck weaving, toys, dolls, others. Send 25 cents for your copy of this exciting NEW needle book — now!

CALENDAR

Calendar notices and news for the society section of The Mail Tribune must be submitted to writing and deadline for the Sunday edition is 1 p.m. Friday. Deadline for the weekly calendar is 9 a.m. of the day of publication and for week day news is 5 p.m. the day before publication.
Friday 7:30 p.m.—McLoughlin PTA boys' gymnasium.

Ceremonial To Be Held In Medford

Local members of the Nomads of Avruka and Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan will be hosts Saturday and Sunday to an estimated 300 visiting members and families at district ceremonies and eighth order exercises.
Fuhat Burkan temple, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, and Idella Rogue Santha, Nomads of Avruka, of Medford, are in charge.
Guests will represent DOKK temples from Nomad Santhas in Portland; Vadi Hae Santha No. 112, Corvallis; Uniqua Santha No. 133, Roseburg; Empire Santha, Eureka, Calif.
Registration will start at 10 a.m. in the Pythian building. A get-together of all DOKK officers and members is scheduled for 3 p.m. in the IOOF hall.
Nomads will hold a ceremonial at 1 p.m. in the Pythian building, followed by their "lesson of loyalty" at 3 p.m. and the eighth order at 4 o'clock.
A banquet for the combined groups will be at 6:30 p.m. at the Jackson hotel; the Dokey ceremonial at 8 p.m. in the Pythian building; and their eighth order at 10:30 p.m.
Nomad groups will meet at the IOOF hall at 8 p.m. for card games and other entertainment. A barbecue and picnic will be held in the northeast section of TouVelle state park Sunday noon, with tickets available from members or at time of registering.
Tom Davidson is Royal vizeer of the Medford temple and Mrs. Margaret Davis is Rani and Ed Bostwick rajah of the Medford Nomads. The groups are affiliated with the Knights of Pythias lodges.

Help Yourself to Happiness

Readers are invited to present their problems. All queries will receive individual attention and should be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, directed to MARY HARRIS SEIFERT, M. A., Department of Education, THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF FAMILY RELATIONS, 5257 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles 27, California.

He Won't Admit He's Wrong!
"No matter what mistakes Jim pulls," complains Barbara, "he'll never admit he's wrong. Even when I've got the goods on him, plain as day! He's always right!"
"Ginger argues till she's blue in the face," says Paul. "She'll never give in and say she might be mistaken. She acts afraid to admit she might be wrong."
Some people who feel insecure within themselves, doubtful of their own powers or physical appeal, sometimes attempt to compensate for their inner uncertainty with an outward show of firmness. They may become authoritative upon all sorts of controversial subjects, with or without the benefit of facts. They may feel that their standing upon any question must be preserved at all costs, that their "face" must be saved — and that they must never appear in the wrong.
Men frequently feel that this is the proper role as a father, and that questioning adolescents must be shouted down. In reality the fathers may be as bewildered as their sons, but they tell themselves that the youngsters must never suspect paternal confusion — Pop tenders his opinions and saves his face for yet another day. In the tug-of-war in marriage, husbands sometimes feel insecure, perhaps from childhood experiences, perhaps from professional difficulties. Perhaps they may secretly fear the possible superiority of their wives — so husbands may refuse to admit defeat in arguments, or to "give in" on decisions involving house and children.
"Dick has never yet said he is sorry," says Phyllis, "when he's done something which has hurt me. Should an apology be such an impossibility for him?"
Admission of hurting another — an apology — is to many a sign of weakness. Yet, ironically,

Plants for Shade Subject of Club In Evans Valley

Evans Valley—Clarence W. Norris, landscape engineer from Grants Pass, talked on shrubs and flowers for shady spots at the last meeting of Evans Valley Garden club. It was held at the home of the club president, Mrs. John Goldt, with Mrs. Delbert W. Howell as co-hostess. Desert was served.
Mr. Norris spoke of camellias, rhododendrons, Oregon grape, daphne odora, aucuba and andromeda, begonias, fuchsias, Christmas rose, columbine and the primrose for north planting. Nandina, heather, pyracantha and cotoneaster may be used for north-east exposures, he stated. He recommended the use of lime to the soil for north plantings.
Mrs. Tom Mauchline welcomed Mrs. Andrew Guffin, a guest from Laurel Garden club, and Mrs. Laura Douglas, a club member who has returned to Rogue River to live. She also presented Mrs. Howell and LaVerne North with remembrances for their birthday anniversaries.
Officers were nominated. Mrs. Meta Lotz was presented a prize.
June 26 the club will hold a potluck luncheon at Hawthorne park, Medford, and officers will be elected and installed.

Mrs. Virgil Bolton Chapter Speaker

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Alton M. Anderson, East-over terrace.
This chapter was one of the hostess chapters of this district for the state conference held last month in Ashland and reports were given by Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, Mrs. B. G. Harding and the regent, Mrs. G. R. Carter.
Announcement was made of the recently held naturalization ceremony. Instruction of these new citizens has been a project of the chapter for many years under the supervision of Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, who holds the classes of instruction in her home.
After the business session, Mrs. Virgil Bolton told of her recent trip to the Hawaiian Islands and exhibited mementos of the Islands.
The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. F. J. Glonning and Mrs. John Sansone. Pouring were Mrs. W. P. Holt and Mrs. Harding.

Dances Announced Saturday Night

Two square dances are announced for Saturday, June 1.
Roxey Ann Grange will sponsor a public square dance at 8:30 p.m. at the Grange hall on Spring street. Gordon Kershaw and Kenneth Howe will call; potluck refreshments will be served.
Happy Harvesters Square Dance club will hold a dance at the American Legion hall in Central Point beginning at 8 p.m. J. D. Lubbers and Paul Larsen will be caller. Refreshments will be potluck.
The first land engagement of the Spanish-American War was at Las Guasimas, Cuba, won by the Americans.

Rose Show Judge Talks In Medford

Mrs. Charles Andreason, who grows more than 1200 rose bushes in her garden at Eugene, spoke for a meeting of Medford Rose society Monday night in the high school auditorium.
Mrs. Andreason, who grows many old-fashioned roses seldom seen today as well as the newer ones, said that she uses other flowers in her garden, but her main thought is always to glorify the rose, her favorite flower. Border and background plants are for contrast, she explained. Under trees, where roses do not thrive, the Andreasons grow about 300 fuchsias. Climbing roses are used to frame the beds which are arranged according to color. Tree roses are planted in the flower beds for accent.
Mrs. Andreason said "I have a rose garden to show, and am happy to share it." The public is invited "any time" to view the flowers. The Andreasons live near the university, and her address is 1965 Alder street, Eugene.
Mrs. Andreason spoke in considerable detail about rose shows and the type of roses to exhibit. She is an accredited rose judge, an accredited judge for the Federation of Garden clubs, and a flower arrangement judge. She explained the defects and good points which judges look for in judging the blossoms.
Ernest Vehrs, Grants Pass, consulting Rosarian for the American Rose society, spoke briefly. Mr. Vehrs will serve as hospitality chairman for the annual convention of the Northwest district, American Rose society, to be held in Medford June 7-8.
In preparation for the coming convention and the annual rose show of the Medford society, members brought blossoms which were classified and prepared for showing as they will be the day of the show.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Plants for Shade Subject of Club In Evans Valley

Evans Valley—Clarence W. Norris, landscape engineer from Grants Pass, talked on shrubs and flowers for shady spots at the last meeting of Evans Valley Garden club. It was held at the home of the club president, Mrs. John Goldt, with Mrs. Delbert W. Howell as co-hostess. Desert was served.
Mr. Norris spoke of camellias, rhododendrons, Oregon grape, daphne odora, aucuba and andromeda, begonias, fuchsias, Christmas rose, columbine and the primrose for north planting. Nandina, heather, pyracantha and cotoneaster may be used for north-east exposures, he stated. He recommended the use of lime to the soil for north plantings.
Mrs. Tom Mauchline welcomed Mrs. Andrew Guffin, a guest from Laurel Garden club, and Mrs. Laura Douglas, a club member who has returned to Rogue River to live. She also presented Mrs. Howell and LaVerne North with remembrances for their birthday anniversaries.
Officers were nominated. Mrs. Meta Lotz was presented a prize.
June 26 the club will hold a potluck luncheon at Hawthorne park, Medford, and officers will be elected and installed.

Dances Announced Saturday Night

Two square dances are announced for Saturday, June 1.
Roxey Ann Grange will sponsor a public square dance at 8:30 p.m. at the Grange hall on Spring street. Gordon Kershaw and Kenneth Howe will call; potluck refreshments will be served.
Happy Harvesters Square Dance club will hold a dance at the American Legion hall in Central Point beginning at 8 p.m. J. D. Lubbers and Paul Larsen will be caller. Refreshments will be potluck.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Jumper-Dress!

The Printed Pattern gives a double pleasure! Easy sewing as a sundress for summer; again as a jumper, blouse for school! Princess lines, flare skirt are fashion favorites for a young miss!
Printed Pattern 9112: Girls' Sizes, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14. Size 10 dress requires 3 yards 35-inch fabric; blouse takes 1½ yards.
Printed directions on each pattern part. Easier, faster, accurate.
Send THIRTY-FIVE cents in coins for this pattern — add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Marian Martin, care of Medford Mail Tribune, Pattern Dept., 232 West 18th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS with SIZE and STYLE NUMBER.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Janet K.—Married men are the most feeble.
Frances M.—I don't want to be a home-breaker.

Janet K.—I am a widow in my late 30s and I have two children, aged 7 and 9. My best friend is a childless divorcee of my age. We have been going around together a lot because we are both eager for some social life. We have both encountered the same problem. There aren't many widowers of our age around. Divorced men usually choose their next mates before the divorce goes through. Bachelors past 40 are either so woman-shy or eccentric and neurotic that there is little hope from that source.

We have both been approached for dates by married men who are dissatisfied for one reason or another. I feel these are the most eligible of all, but Frances will have nothing to do with them. Isn't she making a mistake?
Frances M.—My own marriage was broken up by a woman who played up to my husband at a time when we were going through some difficulties. I feel that those difficulties could have been ironed out and we could be happily married today.

I don't blame the other woman too much because I know my husband was out to spite and hurt me at that time. The funny thing is that he is now experiencing some of the same problems with his new wife.
I realize now I made a big mistake in granting a divorce so hurriedly, but I was so hurt at the time that I couldn't shed my husband fast enough. Other women would not be so foolish. Aside from the fact that I don't relish the idea of being a home-breaker, I feel that married men are not the best bet.

The Council: Frances has learned a great deal by her experience and her position is not only more moral and ethical, but more practical.
She is quite right in feeling that other women would not act as hastily and foolishly as she did. Another aspect is the fact that most married men seeking extramarital interests haven't the slightest intention of becoming seriously involved.
Janet's generalizations about available men of the right age are very feeble. Like most generalizations, they are riddled with exceptions. It may seem a little tough to make the effort to find these exceptions, but it would be a lot tougher in the long run to get involved with a married man, suffer serious social embarrassment, only to be shown the gate when he straightens things out with wifely.

Dates with men may be the most pleasant way of socializing but it is not the only form. Club and civic work, going out with other women and with couples can be enjoyable and rewarding. Most women like to pair off the odd members of any crowd and will be helpful in introducing Janet and Frances to truly eligible men.
(Copyright 1957, General Features Corp.)

Master Point Play Announced by Club

Medford Duplicate Bridge club will play for master points at the weekly session Tuesday, June 4.
This week's north-south winners were Mrs. B. L. Sanderson and Paul Hatten, first, 107; Mrs. R. J. Conroy and Howard Boyd, second, 101½; Mrs. Alto Pruitt and Mrs. E. L. Miller, third 88.
East-west winners were Mrs. Richard Milestone and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, first, 95; Dr. and Mrs. Elliott Harlow, second, 89; Mrs. C. L. Howard and Don Reverman, third, 84.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

Help Yourself to Happiness

It is the strong man who can most easily apologize, the man who is secure and unafraid of appearing weak.
Women, as often as men, assume this role of infallibility. They, too, accept responsibility in error. They often are the victims of their own self-doubt, and may respond to additional praise and sympathy from the family.
Indeed, insistence upon infallibility is often a plea for more understanding, more warmth and acceptance from a hitherto unfriendly world. Praise, altruism, patience may give the "infallibles" the strength they need and for which they ask.

don't miss the flavor fiesta

Arden Fandango ICE CREAM

—the flavor dances

at your Arden dealer

TINY TOTS SUMMER SWIM INSTRUCTIONS

6 to 8 Yrs. of Age — Boys & Girls

2 SESSIONS

June Session — 8 Sections

July Session — 8 Sections

$7 Service Fee for Non-Members

Phone YMCA SP 2-6295

GRADUATION SPECIAL RCA VICTOR 45 "Victrola"

SPECIAL Includes

- Model 7EY2 Player (as shown)
- 2 Tone Gray or 2 Tone Green
- Carry Case for 50 Records
- Plus Free "45" Single E. P. Record

Regular Value $45.00

ON SPECIAL $38.95

Terms If Desired LAY-A-WAY TODAY!

Model 7EY2 — 2 Tone Gray or Green

Swem's BOOK & GIFT SHOP

217 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

SAVE MONEY! DO IT YOURSELF! RESTORE BEAUTY TO YOUR FLOORS WITH A RENTED SANDER

Easy to Operate Clean and Dustless Low Rental Rates

We Handle Everything You Need for Floor Refinishing

ACME HARDWARE

SPECIALISTS IN HOMEWARES

2 West 6th St., Medford