

Oregon's Governor Robert D. Holmes and Mrs. Holmes were honored at a cocktail party June 25 at Rogue Valley Country club given by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce. The party preceded the ceremonies which dedicated the new National Guard armory and at which Governor Holmes was the featured speaker. Pictured here on the clubhouse terrace during the party are (left
