Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Evans of Linsey, Ontario, Canada have announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Jean, to the Rev. Donald Collins, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Collins, 448 Laurel street, Central Point.

Miss Evans and Mr. Collins are graduates of Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, and are preparing for missionary service in Africa. Mr. Collins is a graduate of Crater High school.

A late September wedding is planned.

Wedding Plans Made by Couple in Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Miss Beverly Calloway, daughter of Mrs. Kenneth Franklin of Chino, Calif., and Elio (Mike) Swift, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swift of Oakland, Calif., announce wedding plans for this summer.

Both Miss Calloway and her fiancé graduated from Illinois Valley High school Wednesday. Mr. Swift will start his second year as a forest service smoke jumper in June, while Miss Calloway is planning to spend the first part of her vacation with her family at Chino. They expect to live at Redding, Calif. this fall, where Mr. Swift will attend Shasta Junior college.

During their high school careers, the engaged couple have been active in student government and club work. Miss Calloway appeared in the 1956 junior-senior play, while her fiancé is a past president of the Future Farmers of America and was one of the school's top athletes.

The couple, together with Miss Calloway's grandmother, Mrs. Vern Wagner of Siskiyou, Calif., were here for the graduation exercises.

Young Swift has lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rausch in Cave Junction for several years, where Miss Calloway has also been a recent guest.

India's population is estimated to be increasing by 10 million a year.

Rogue River—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Farrar, Rogue River, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Renee, to Wayne Richard Paulsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Paulsen, Central Point. Both young people are students at Southern Oregon college. No wedding date has been set.

Delegates named to attend the state convention in Coos Bay June 23 through 25 were Mrs. Shafer and Mrs. Doe.

Students Of Medicine Honored

Honors and activities of medical and pre-medical students from Medford have made recent news.

R. M. Johnson, Jr. will be graduated from the University of Oregon Medical school Friday, June 14, in Portland. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnson, 325 Vancouver avenue, Medford. The young man attended the University of Oregon following graduation from Medford High school and received his bachelor of science degree in 1954. He has been serving as an extern at Physician's and Surgeon's hospital, Portland, and following graduation this month, will be an intern at the University of Oregon Medical School Clinic and Hospital, Portland.

Mr. Johnson is a member of Asklepiads, honor society at the university for medical students and of Phi Beta Phi, medical fraternity. His social fraternity is Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Curtis Holzgang, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Holzgang, 628 Park street, and a pre-medical student at the University of Oregon, was recently invited to become a member of the honor society, Asklepiads. The student, who is completing his junior year, also was granted a tuition scholarship for the coming year. Mrs. Holzgang, the former Darrell Elz of Medford, will be graduated June 9 from the university, receiving a degree in education.

Christopher P. S. Williams, junior student at the University of Oregon Medical school, was recently initiated into Alpha Omega Alpha, national medical honor society, a release from Portland states. Candidates are chosen on the basis of scholastic achievement.

Young Williams, a son of Mrs. Thomas V. Williams 1775 Houston road, Medford, was also recently granted a renewal of the Mackenzie scholarship, awarded to former University of Oregon students in honor of the late dean of the university's medical school. He is a graduate of Medford High school.

Also graduating from medical school this month will be Max Y. Miracle and Howard D. Huenergardt, who will receive their degrees from the College of Medical Evangelists, Loma Linda, Calif. Mr. Miracle is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Miracle, 1702 Corona avenue, and young Huenergardt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huenergardt, 51 South Stage road. The two students from Medford will be among 96 to receive their doctorate of medicine degree at Loma Linda.

Robert Bright Named Winner Of Scholarships

Robert Bright, who will be graduated from Medford high school Thursday, has been awarded three scholarships for college study. He is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bright, 1797 Miner road.

The student has been awarded a University of Oregon tuition scholarship, the KMED scholarship and one for $500 from Consolidated Freight company.

The young man has engaged in many diverse activities in addition to being an honor roll student. He is a member of Torch Honor society, president of the school orchestra, and served as manager of the Chamber of Commerce Students Government day. Young Bright participated in nine school clubs, and was active in forensic, debate and radio work. He was in the cast of the annual senior class play and won third place in an annual state-wide after dinner speaking contest for high school students. He also was a winner in the Knights of Pythias speech contest in 1955, was a delegate to Beaver Boys' State, is a member of Quill and Scroll and served as a reporter on the Medford Bi-Times.

The young man plays both the piano and the violin, and attended the Northwest Music conference in Boise, Ida., this year. He studies astronomy and plays chess as hobbies.

He will enroll at the University of Oregon this fall to study liberal arts.

Young Bright's older brother, Lewis, now a student at Willamette university, has won a number of scholarships and honors during his academic career and was awarded the KMED scholarship at high school graduation time.
