

Haddix Shines For Phillies; Pierce For Chisox in Majors

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Harvey Haddix and Billy Pierce are two of the smallest pitchers in the majors but they may be worth their weight in World Series gold to the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago White Sox.

Haddix, a slight 170-pounder dubbed "The Kitten," tied up the muscular Cincinnati Redlegs in knots to give the Phillies a 3-1 victory Tuesday night while Pierce, who scales about 165 pounds, fired a two-hitter that enabled the White Sox to shade the Boston Red Sox, 1-0, in 10 innings.

Haddix' victory moved the darkhorse Phillies to within a game and a half of the first place Redlegs in the National League race and Pierce's triumph maintained the White Sox' five-game bulge over the New York Yankees in the American league chase.

Haddix shut out the Redlegs with one hit for seven innings and yielded their only run in the eighth on Ed Bailey's triple and Don Hoak's sacrifice fly. Ed Bouchee singled home Philadelphia's first run in the first inning and the Phillies added two in the second on an error. Chico Fernandez' triple and Haddix' sacrifice fly. The loss was the first of the year in the East for the Redlegs, who swept all 12 games they played on their first invasion.

Pierce Wins No. 9
Pierce struck out seven and didn't walk a batter in posting his sixth straight victory and ninth of the year. Nellie Fox singled with the bases filled and one out in the 10th to break up the game and hand relief pitcher Deloach his fifth defeat. Pierce now leads the majors with nine wins, 64 strikeouts and has allowed only one earned run in 38 innings.

The Brooklyn Dodgers downed the Chicago Cubs, 7-5, and took over third place when the New York Giants shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 8-7, in 13 innings. The Pittsburgh Pirates edged the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4, in the other National League game.

The Yankees defeated the Cleveland Indians, the Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, and the Baltimore Orioles scored a 9-7 win over the Kansas City A's in other American League activity.

Sandy Koufax struck out 12 batters in 7 2/3 innings but needed relief aid from Clem Labine to nail down the Dodger victory. A two-run double by Roy Campanella and Duke Snider's 10th homer helped the Dodgers pile up an early 6-0 lead against Dick Drott before Koufax weakened.

Dusty Rhodes singled home Valmy Thomas in the 13th inning with the run that snapped a three-game Giant losing streak in a battle of homers with the Braves. Willie Mays and Red Schoendienst homered for New York while Frank Torre, Hank Aaron, Carl Sawatski and Del Crandall hit homers for the Braves, who dropped into fourth place.

Dee Fondy's third hit of the night raised his league-leading average to .375 and gave the Pirates their fourth straight win. Stan Musial walloped the 362nd homer of his career for St. Louis and now ranks seventh in the all-time homer derby. Bob Grim's 3 2/3-innings of shutout relief pitching preserved Tom Sturdivant's fourth win after the Yankees routed Bud Daley and piled up an early 6-1 lead. Mickey Mantle had three hits to lead New York's 12-hit attack.

Clint Courtney's seventh-inning homer provided the Senators with their winning run and dealt Duke Mearns his third defeat. Jim Lemon and Rocky Bridges also homered for Washington while Ray Boone blasted a homer for the Tigers.

George Kell's third hit of the game and the 2,000th of his career capped a three-run Baltimore ninth-inning against Kansas City. Shortstop Billy Hunter's error let in the tie-breaking run and Kell followed with a two-run single that clinched matters.

The veteran third-baseman is the seventh active player to reach the 2,000-hit mark.

Diamond Leaders Asked To Appear
Washington — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and major league Presidents Warren Gils and Will Harridge have been asked to appear before the House judiciary committee on June 17.

Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), chairman of the committee, said the top baseball brass will be asked about the possible shift of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants to California as well as the game in general and money transactions.

Celler's committee is investigating the game with an eye on possible anti-trust legislation.

Bats Swing Hard in NWL On Tuesday

By UNITED PRESS
Northwest league pitchers had a rough night on the mound Tuesday night as the six teams converted a whopping total of 85 hits into 76 runs.

Highest scoring affair was the 17-10 Salem conquest of Yakima on the Senators' home field. The Tri-City-Eugene match was called at the end of 15 innings with the score tied 13-13. It will be continued on the Braves' field prior to tonight's game.

The remaining slugging match saw Wenatchee and Lewiston picking up a total of 31 hits with the Chiefs finally icing it, 16-17, at Lewiston.

The Senators topped mighty Yakima on a wide-open fourth inning in which Salem sent 18 men to the plate for 13 runs. They held the Bears scoreless for four innings while piling up a 16-run bulge. In the Salem fourth, it was Jack Dunn and Karl Keuhl with two runs each and a three-sacker by Bob Campbell that provided the punch.

Midnight Curfew
Big Yakima guns were Herm Lewis, two for four, Mike Cupola, two for five, and Whitey Phillips, two for four.

Called because of a midnight curfew, the Eugene-Tri-City affair went into extra innings when Tri-City's Martin leaped into a 400-foot homer in the bottom of the ninth to tie it up at 12 all.

Each squad picked up another run in the 14th before the scoring ended. Tri-City's Ellis Burton got a two-run homer in the third, his 11th of the season, and teammate Ken Meyer claimed another for two runs in the sixth.

Eugen's Dan Holden, sold by the Braves earlier this year, hit a two-run homer for the Emeralds in the seventh.

BROWNS INK COLLEGIAN
Cleveland — Rudy Spitzberger, a junior at the University of Houston, has passed up his final year of college eligibility to sign a professional contract with the Cleveland Browns. The 6-foot-1, 230-pounder will be used as an offensive guard with the Browns.

Seals Go Back on Top With Nod Over Stars

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

The in-and-out San Francisco Seals who have been alternating almost regularly with Vancouver in the Pacific Coast league lead, leaptfrogged over the idle Mounties Tuesday night with a 6-5 win over Hollywood.

By winning while Vancouver rested, the Seals took a one-half game lead in the see-saw battle for the loop's leadership.

In other games, Sacramento blanked San Diego, 6-0, and Seattle edged Los Angeles, 4-3. Vancouver and Portland begin their series tonight at Portland.

It was Sal Taormina's pinch-hit single in the top of the ninth that broke a 5-5 deadlock with the Stars at Gilmore Field. He drove home Nini Tornay, who had singled, to give the Seals their eighth win in nine games in a battle that saw five homers hit, two by the Seals' Bill Remma.

Leo Kiley, second of three San Francisco hurlers, picked up his sixth win against two losses, while reliever Chuck Churn took his second loss against a single win.

Seattle displaced San Diego in fifth place as they squeezed by Los Angeles at home while San Diego was shut out on the road against Sacramento.

Fast Start
The Rainiers opened with a rush, scoring all four runs and collecting eight of their 10 hits in the first three innings, then stood off repeated Angel threats in the late frames. Charlie Rabe, who relieved starter Red Munger in the third after the latter bruised an index finger while attempting to hunt, got the win. Dick Hanlon took the loss for the visitors.

San Diego continued its current skid as its three pitchers issued 10 walks to the Solons. Marshall Bridges gave up eight hits to hand the Padres their fourth defeat in five games and drop them into sixth, a half game behind Seattle.

Bob Brodowski, San Diego starter, was the losing pitcher.

Nau Resigns Crater High Hoop Post
Central Point—Jim Nau, who coached the Crater High school basketball varsity during the 1956-57 season, has resigned to take a position in the Bakersfield, Calif., school district. He will be head hoop tutor at the high school at China Lake.

Nau will be taking a post at a larger prep. The China Lake school reportedly has an enrollment of 900 students compared to approximately 600 at Crater.

The Central Point post was Nau's first high school coaching position. He was mentor during the 1955-56 season at Central Oregon Junior college. Nau is graduate of Oregon State college where he was a varsity basketball standout.

He tutored the Comet eagers during their first season in Class A-1 basketball.

A successor to Nau may be named shortly.

Bill Esselstyn has resigned as Central Point grade school coach to enter the employment of an insurance adjustment firm.

Jim Davis Can Shout "Uncle"
New York — Jim Davis, newly-acquired New York Giant pitcher, now has only to yell "Uncle" if he needs help.

Marv Grissom, 39-year-old Giant relief specialist, is the 31-year-old Davis' uncle.

Davis, a left-handed knuckleballer, was acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals today for a sum estimated between $15,000 and $20,000. To make room for him, the Giants optioned left-hander Joe Margoneri to their Minneapolis farm club in the American Association.

Borzich Appointed At Sweet Home
Sweet Home — Stan Borzich, former University of Portland outfielder, has been named head high school coach here succeeding Clark Anderson who will take over as head football coach.

NY's Mayor Gets Little Satisfaction

New York — Although he has promised to "expedite" all plans aimed at keeping the Dodgers and Giants in New York, Mayor Robert F. Wagner today virtually conceded his showdown meeting with officials of both teams was a flop.

"There was nothing to encourage us," Wagner said after holding a 75-minute convulse Tuesday with Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers, and Giant prey Horace Stoneham.

The object of the meeting was to determine if New York's two National league teams had definitely committed themselves to a westward movement that by next year could find the Dodgers playing in Los Angeles and the Giants performing in San Francisco.

It turned out to be a no-hit, no-run, no-commitment standoff. Wagner said that O'Malley and Stoneham told him during their closed-door conference that they had "no commitments to move."

"They also said they have no commitments to stay here," the Mayor added.

Despite the fact the National League already has approved a transfer of the Dodgers and Giants to California, if they move together, Wagner had scheduled additional conferences with O'Malley and Stoneham this summer in the hope of talking them out of such a switch.

However, Tuesday's meeting
