Oh, my beloved!
How divinely sweet
The taste of you
When kindred spirits meet!
—Tom Moore

Who invented the non-skid tire? Offhand, I can't say. However, I will check. I want him, if he is still around, to invent a non-skid bathtub. I slipped in the bathtub the other morning. Just caught myself in time or I would have cracked something. That wouldn't have been an unusual accident. Constantly reported are accidents of persons having serious accidents from slipping in bathtubs. The bathtub in general use is outdated. It belongs to this country's cradle days. I recommend larger bathtubs with bathtubs that are square and deep. A sort of miniature swimming pool. And with a non-slip, non-skid surface. More of this vital question anon. Maybe you'll.

Get It Right
All New York drama critics turned thumbs down on "Abie's Irish Rose," saying it didn't have a chance to enjoy a long run. So I note it said. That's wrong. Alexander Woolcott predicted "Abie's Irish Rose" would enjoy great success at the box office. So did Alan Dale, drama critic of the New York Journal.

Asking
Queries from clients. Q. How old was Mrs. Patrick Campbell when she first played the part of Eliza Doolittle, the flower girl in Bernard Shaw's play "Pygmalion"? Who was her leading man? How old was he? A. Mrs. Campbell was 49 years old when she made her bow as Eliza Doolittle in "Pygmalion." Philip Merivale who played Henry Higgins was 28 years old.

Q. What does the Gaelic expression "Cushla-ma-chree" mean? A. It means "Darling of my heart."

Blarney
Many people misunderstood the word "blarney" and therefore use it incorrectly. Blarney does not mean insincere flattery. It is a sort of sweet, persuasive eloquence used to influence another person, especially a beautiful female.

Sidelights
Alice Roosevelt Longworth was married 19 years before she became a mother. I knew a couple who had married 18 years before their first child was born.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

New York—Former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, on the need for continuing this country's foreign aid program:
"Our mutual assistance program is the only practical means... to deter the Communists from launching a war and to increase our chances of victory if war ever should come."

Tokyo—American soldier William S. Girard, on the many offers of help he has received since he was charged with manslaughter in the death of a Japanese woman:
"I just can't understand how an unimportant guy like me has so many friends."

Lander, Wyo.—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, on his opposition to the rigid price support formula:
"I am not proposing that we scrap farm programs or that we scrap price support programs. I am saying that we need to revise some of our programs so that they may better serve the needs of our farm people."

New York—Former President Truman, after seeing his grandson for the first time:
"He's dark, and has dark hair which looks like it might be red when he grows up. His eyes are blue now, of course."

Washington—William Lacey, special assistant to the secretary of state for East-West exchanges on the two-hour conference with Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zaroubin:
"We had an exhaustive discussion of the details of the East-West exchange program. If negotiations continue to be successful, there probably will be more exchanges in the near future."

Washington—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's warning that intra-party quarreling over "modern Republicanism" would cost the GOP possible control of Congress in next year's election:
"If we lose, we can't blame the Democrats, we can only blame ourselves."

Brooklyn—Chicago Cub outfielder Bob Speake, on losing a routine fly ball in a heavy fog:
"I knew the ball was up there somewhere, but I just couldn't find it."

Now they have six children... Gypsy Rose Lee as is repeatedly claimed. It was Georgia Southern Baltimorean says he has a "real American dog," a Chesapeake retriever. He is in possession of a rarity. There are only two genuine American breeds of dogs: the Boston terrier and the Chesapeake retriever.

Please Note
The way to help women look their best at a night club is to have pink lighting. Or, so says Marlene Dietrich... Aly Kian, one of the most versatile husbands Rita Hayworth ever had, speaks 12 languages... What is the world's record for engagements to marry? Martine Carol, the pulchritudinous Parisienne was engaged to 10 different men before she finally married. I don't know what she did about the engagement rings.

Briefly
The first daring danseuse to be referred to by Henry Menckens as "an ecdysiast" was not started with the company.
